

BY-LAWS.

1. The President, or in his absence one of the Vice-Presidents, or a Chairman to be then chosen, shall preside at the meetings of the Association, and of the General and Executive Committees. The President shall be an ex officio member of all Committees and shall have the general supervision of the business and correspondence of the Association. In his absence one of the Vice-Presidents, to be named by him, shall perform the duties of the office.
2. The Honorary Secretary shall cause an accurate record to be kept of the proceedings of the Association, and of the General and Executive Committees, and shall cause to be issued all notices of meetings of these bodies. He shall also cause to be kept a record of annual subscriptions, donations and bequests, and shall publish the same with the names of the donors, with the annual report of the Association.
3. The Honorary Treasurer shall have charge of the funds of the Association. All annual subscriptions, contributions, and other monies shall be placed in his hands, and he shall be held accountable for them. By and with the advice of the Executive Committee he shall deposit all monies in the name of the Association, and make such payments as they may direct under the authority of the General Committee. The Annual report of the Honorary Treasurer shall be certified by at least two members of the Executive Committee and presented at the annual meeting.
4. At any meeting of the General Committee ten members shall constitute a quorum.
5. The Executive Committee shall consist of ten members, of whom the President, Honorary Secretary and Honorary Treasurer shall be three; five shall constitute a quorum.
6. The annual subscriptions of Members and Associate Members shall range from one to ten dollars, payable at such time as may be determined by the Executive Committee.
7. Local Branch Associations may be organized where there are a sufficient number of Members and Associate Members residing. On a meeting being called at which five or more members are present, they may elect a Chairman and Secretary-Treasurer, and proceed to deal with such matters as may tend to promote the object of the Association.
8. At all the meetings of the Association the following order shall be observed in the transaction of business, unless set aside for the time being by a vote of the Members present. The same order, so far as applicable, shall be observed at the meetings of
