

(d), That in recognizing the providence of God, by which we are called to say "good-bye" to Bro. Boyd and his esteemed wife, we commend them and their family to the loving care of our Heavenly Father, and we cherish the fond hope that, though henceforth less intimately associated in body, we shall continue one in spirit, until in due course, after the patience of faith, we shall meet to part no more in our Father's house above.

REV. S. JENNINGS.

7.—Whereas, that, owing to family affliction, Bro. Jennings is leaving us for another sphere of labor;

Resolved,—That this Conference, while expressing its deep sympathy with him in his bereavement, also commends him to the Divine Blessing, and wishes him every success in his future field.

EX-PRESIDENT'S CHARGE.

8.—The thanks of the newly-ordained ministers of this Conference are due, and hereby presented, to the ex-President, Rev. Thomas H. James, for his able and eloquent charge.

BOOK-ROOM.

9.—The Conference having received and considered the published report of the Book-Room, desires to express its continued confidence in the Rev. S. F. Huestis, book steward, and Rev. J. Lathern, D.D., editor; its high appreciation of their valuable services, and its determination to co-operate with them to the utmost of their ability.

DR. MILLIGAN.

10.—That the Conference, having listened with close attention to the elaborate address of Rev. Dr. Milligan, Superintendent of Methodist Schools, does hereby record its high appreciation of the earnest efforts he continues to put forth in the interests of our educational work, in all its departments, and assures him that he is sustained by the unwavering confidence, sympathy and co-operation of the members of the Conference.

BOARD OF EXAMINATION.

11.—That the best thanks of the Conference are due, and are hereby given, to the Central Board of Examiners, for the very laborious and efficient services they have rendered in the interests of the educational work of our church in the colony.

COLLEGE EXECUTIVE.

12.—Resolved,—That the best thanks of the Conference be presented to the Executive and officers of the College and Home, for their valuable services during the past year.

REV. G. P. STORY.

13.—That the Conference place on record its sincere and best thanks to Rev. George P. Story and his excellent wife, for the successful management of the Home in connection with our College, and pray that for many years they may be spared to afford to the young people under their care the necessary assistance and guardianship they require when preparing for the work of life.

BAPTISM.

14.—In view of the nature and design of the Sacrament of Baptism, the Conference would urge our people to present their children for baptism in the public congregation, except in cases of sickness.
