Russia Desperately in Need of Ammunition

Situation Making Feeling of Anxiety in England—More Stirring Fighting in West and Germans Retake Ground in Violent Offensive

New York, July 5.—A Herald cable from London says:—Russia's desperate need of ammunition is shown by the continuous retreat of Grand Duke Nicholas' forces in Galicia and Southern Poland.

Two courses are open. On the one hand, it is proposed to begin a violent general offensive in the west in the hope of forcing a transfer of German troops from the east and thus relieving the pressure against the Russians.

The Russian Retreat. Toronto, July 5.—A despatch to the Globe from Ostrow, Poland, sent by Stanley Washburn, who has been with one of the retreating Russian armies, says:—Regarding the movement as a whole, suffice it to say that in the two weeks following the change of line, this one army inflicted upon the enemy a loss of nearly 30,000 killed, wounded, and prisoners.

French Report. Paris, July 5.—The French War Office reports:—North of Arras, two attempts at attack on the part of the enemy, preceded by a violent bombardment were checked by us.

Yesterday afternoon and in the evening, the Germans assumed the offensive along a front of about three miles stretching from Fey-en-Haye to the Meuse. To the east of Hays-en-Haye, as well as in the western section of the front of Lezere, along a front of about two thirds of a mile, they were successful, after a very violent bombardment, in gaining a footing in their lines.

Further to the east on a line running from Croix-Des-Carmes to the village of Riepten, the Meuse, a German attack resulted in complete failure, and the enemy suffered very heavy losses.

Berlin Denies It. London, July 5.—The Russian report regarding the destruction of a vessel of the Deutschland class is denied in Berlin. It also denies that the mine layer Albatross lowered the German flag before running ashore on Swedish territory.

MORGAN TODAY OUT OF DANGER

Doctors So Notified Family This Morning ASSAILANT VERY WEAK

Condition of Holt is Described as Serious—Planned to Hold Mrs. Morgan and Children Hostages or Kill Them

Glen Cove, L. I., July 5.—J. P. Morgan, who was shot twice by Frank Holt, last Saturday night, is out of all danger. His physicians so notified his family this morning.

Holt, the assassin, on the other hand, was so weak today that when his keepers went to his cell to arouse him, he could not sit up in his couch. Unless his condition improves rapidly, and there seems no reason to expect so radical a change, it will be impossible for him to be taken into court for examination next Wednesday.

All plans to submit Holt to a further questioning today were abandoned because of his serious condition.

MIGHT HAVE KILLED THE CHILDREN. New York, July 5.—Efforts were made here at Glen Cove, L. I., and in several other cities, today, to clear up the mystery surrounding the identity of Frank Holt who attempted to assassinate J. P. Morgan.

One of the most interesting features of the children's play was the spirit of helpfulness shown towards the smaller children by the big boys, the claps who look as if they might ordinarily be dodging the cops and getting into all the mischief.

THE HAPPY DAYS FOR THE KIDDIES

Playgrounds Opened Today—Eager Children Early on Hand

How much happiness and solid enjoyment can be packed into a comparatively small space was shown at the Allison playgrounds this morning when they were opened for the season.

From the tiny toddlers to good sized boys and girls all kinds and conditions of children were represented and they certainly were enjoying themselves.

One of the most interesting features of the children's play was the spirit of helpfulness shown towards the smaller children by the big boys, the claps who look as if they might ordinarily be dodging the cops and getting into all the mischief.

Rev. J. J. McCaskill Before Rotary Club—All Accomplished so Far Might Have Been Done by One Province—'Let Us Get Into This Thing Seriously'

Rev. J. James McCaskill addressed the Rotary Club this afternoon on Canada's part in the war. He said in part:—For nearly a twelvemonth Canada has been listlessly and indifferently waging a war against the two central empires of Europe—most formidable antagonists.

Let us arm for mortal combat. Humanity and civilization are struggling to beat their way back from the gates of hell. Let the country arm her young men that she may take her true place as a nation.

Let us get into this thing seriously. All that has been accomplished so far in the whole country might well have been done by one province. For weeks in this conflict, strengthened, purified and inspired. This can be accomplished only by great and mighty united endeavor.
