

RED CROSS DRIVE OFF TILL FRIDAY

Wet Weather of This Morning
Made Canvass in City
Undesirable.

Owing to the heavy rain of this morning, the Red Cross drive set for today was postponed until tomorrow. Miss Ethel Hassen Jarvis, secretary, reported from headquarters. The workers will be all ready for work tomorrow. The objective is $2,000 for the province and there is no limit to the objective or number of members. In Saint John Mrs. T. F. Lingley is general convener and Mrs. J. H. Duddy is convener for the house to house canvass.

GRAPHIC APPEAL

To bring the society's appeal before the public in most graphic form two stop windows in the centre of the city have special display today. In Oak Hall an attractive Red Cross nurse holding in one hand the $1 fee for Red Cross membership shows what that dollar is used for. From her other hand small ribbons reach out to the big supply of groceries, the heap of coal, the warm garments, medicine and emergency supplies and to various pamphlets which give records of Red Cross activities. Hospital shirts and other comforts given to the soldiers in hospital are seen amongst the articles displayed which are most attractively grouped. The second window display is seen in F. A. Dykeman's store, which has a Red Cross nurse attending to some small folk and represents the Red Cross activity in providing maternity care and safeguarding the well-being of the new citizens.
