

MORE CRIME IN WEST, SAYS WOMAN JUDGE

Stratford Magistrate Shares Court
Honors With 'Janey Canuck' of Edmonton.

Stratford, Ont., Oct. 13.—Police Magistrate Makins shared honors of his court with Judge Emily Murphy (Janey Canuck), woman police magistrate of Edmonton, Alta., recently.
This is the first time in the history of the local court that a woman sat on the Bench, and "regulars" of the court were obviously intrigued with the novelty.
Mrs. Murphy explained something of the system that is used in the courts in Edmonton. Nominally, she is supposed to preside over the Women's Court, but she has equal jurisdiction with a man magistrate, and she also takes the girls' juvenile court. In Edmonton the United States system is followed, and the city magistrates have provincial jurisdiction as well.
Mrs. Murphy commended on the comparatively clean sheet eastern cities have, stating that there is far more crime in the west than in the east. There was a noticeable difference even at Port Arthur and Port William, she said. She expressed herself as pleased with the court room and police station here, saying that they were well kept and apparently adequate in every way. Mrs. Murphy addressed the Women's Club.

Robert S. O'Meara, junior trade commissioner, arrived in the city last evening from Montreal and will spend two days here going into the export situation thoroughly. He will make his headquarters at the local board of trade office. He has just completed a tour through Nova Scotia.

ISABELLA'S SHAWLS STOLEN

Brenton's Window Broken and Antiques of Spanish Queen Taken.

New York, Oct. 13.—Breaking the large plate glass show window of Brenton's, at Fifth avenue and Twenty-seventh street, thieves made off with two silk and lace Spanish shawls, said to have belonged at one time to Queen Isabella, valued at $5,000 each, which were a part of the window display advertising Joseph Hergeshimer's new book, "The Bright Shawl." Several copies of the book were also taken.
At Brenton's it was said yesterday that no clue had been obtained to the criminal. The books and shawls had come from Alfred A. Knopf, publisher, last Friday. At the publisher's it was learned that the shawls were the property of Berdorf & Goodman of Fifth avenue and were extremely valuable antiques. They were of pure heavy silk and were seven feet square. It is believed that the theft occurred shortly after midnight.

CALLS AMERICA STILL SAVAGE MUSICALLY

Prof. Dykema Tells National Recreation Congress That Jazz Has Its Good Points.

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 13.—That America still is in a state of savagery so far as instrumental music is concerned, was the charge made at the National Recreation Congress by Professor Peter W. Dykema of the University of Wisconsin. "We are still 100 years behind even in methods of instrumental music education," said the speaker.
"I have some good things to say for jazz," he continued. "It is not the principle of the thing that is bad; it is more often the performers. Jazz has a new rhythm, a new arrangement of tones, a piquancy, a verve, and stimulating qualities which is a real contribution to music. Jazz is being wrecked by nerve wracking devices. Cow bells, rattles and fog horns are drowning out its merits. Jazz is the victim of its wild modern devotees who are as bad as the voodoo worshippers of darkest Africa.

Following the session members of the congress demonstrated their vital belief in the power of recreation by playing leap-frog, ring-around-a-rosy and other famous old games.

TWO SISTERS DIED IN WEEK

Third Is In Hospital—Mysterious Infectious Disease Strikes Home of Mr.
and Mrs. E. Duffy, North Toronto.

Toronto, Oct. 13.—Two children are dead, and a third is in the hospital for Sick Children, stricken with the same disease which caused the death of her sisters. The three are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Duffy, and the fatal illness, which is infectious, is thought to have been the result of a germ in food, probably fruit, which they had eaten.

Mildred, aged four and a half years, was the first taken ill, on September 27th. Dr. G. Pringle was called in, and the child was rushed to the hospital for Sick Children, where she died two days later. Kathleen, aged seven years, was stricken the day after her sister, and was also taken to the hospital. She is slowly recovering from the strange disease.

When Mrs. Duffy returned from taking Kathleen to the hospital, she found that baby Reta Constance, aged sixteen months, had been taken sick, although a few hours before she appeared to be in perfect health. The baby, who was admitted to the hospital that night, died October 3rd. By a coincidence, her death occurred on Kathleen's birthday.

The mother and father are broken-hearted. In an effort to save the lives of their children, they gave a transfusion of blood to each of them, but it was not successful. There are three other girls in the family, who are in good health; Irene, aged nine; Esther, aged eleven, and Grace, aged thirteen.

APPOINT CANADIAN TO A HIGH POSITION

To Superintend Property of World's Model City of Mariemont, Ohio

Cincinnati, Oct. 13.—Charles J. Livingood, general manager of the Emery State, estimated to exceed seventy-five million dollars, who has returned from a vacation in Canada, announced here the selection of Frederick Peck of Wolfville, Nova Scotia, who has been appointed general superintendent of the property of the proposed world's model city of Mariemont, near Madisonville, this city, which is to carry out the community ideas of Mrs. Mary M. Emery, a philanthropist of world-renown.

Mr. Peck, who is noted as an expert agriculturalist and a nurseryman had charge of the grounds of Williams College, Mass., a number of years ago. He was also agricultural agent for the State of Massachusetts and was milk inspector for a number of southern states.

FOUND DEAD IN CHAIR.

Defective Gate Caused Death of Clarence Hahndorf.

Toronto, Oct. 13.—A defective gate in his home at 37 Glenholme avenue, cost the life of Clarence Hahndorf, aged forty-four, a printer, who was found dead by his wife upon her return from a visit to her mother.
All the ventilation in the room had been cut off. The bricks in the fire-place were so hot that they could not be touched and candles were melted.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

The five men who had been missing since the Gloucester fishing schooner Marshal Foch struck on the inner bar on the south side of Sable Island arrived in Port Pella, near Canso, after rowing in an open boat for ninety miles, according to advices received from that place. The government steamer Stanley will leave today to take the men to Halifax. The men in the boat were John O'Neill, Gilbert Bennett, Harry Veno, Patrick James and Frank Macloney.

Captain T. A. Hill, of the R. M. S. P. Chaleur, was presented a gold watch by the ship's company at Halifax yesterday. He is giving up command after nine years service and his place will be taken by Captain J. C. Buret.

The case against Ernest McEachern, charged with the murder of Gordon Michael at Mill Creek, was continued yesterday at the Kent County Circuit Court in Richibucto. Donald Michael, brother of the dead man, was the only witness examined. He told of seeing his brother and of a conversation in which he said the accused struck him. The witness broke down and cried when telling of his brother's condition.

TO SCRAP TWO OLD LINERS

The Touraine and the Lorraine on Their Last Voyages, Officials Announce.

The French Line has decided to scrap two of its old liners, the Touraine and the Lorraine, which have been popular with Atlantic travelers for more than twenty years.
The Touraine, which sailed this week from New York on her last voyage to Havre, is a twin screw vessel of 8,429 gross tons, 330 feet long and fifty-six feet beam. She was built in 1890 at St. Nazaire, France. In 1892 she conveyed President Carnot from Toulon across the Mediterranean to Elberta, where she opened the canal from that port to Tunis on the site of ancient Carthage.
The Lorraine is a twin screw ship of 11,272 gross tonnage and 593 feet long and was built at St. Nazaire in 1900. She arrives today from Havre and sails on Saturday.

BANK BANDITS GOT $222,004.

President of Cincinnati Institution
Gives Figures for Sept. 28 Hold-Up

Cincinnati, Oct. 13.—A total of $222,043.93 in cash and bonds was obtained by the five bandits who held up the Hamilton County Bank of this city on Sept. 28. It was officially announced today by E. H. Matthews, president of the bank. The loot consisted of $12,154.93 in cash and $209,889 in Liberty industrial and municipal bonds. Mr. Matthews said. Previous estimates of the loss were $35,000 to $80,000.

The robbers drove up to the bank in an automobile, and, herding the bank employees and a few depositors in a rear room, rifled the safe. Police and private detectives who have been working on the case have reported no trace of the bandits since they drove away from the bank in their automobile. A reward of $25,000 has been offered for their arrest and conviction and recovery of the money and bonds.
Mr. Matthews in making the announcement of the bank's loss said shareholders and depositors will not suffer, as the loss is covered by insurance.

A Warm Home Starts a Cold Day Right

A piping hot breakfast in a warm, cosy dining room! There's nothing like it on a bitter cold morning. It starts the day right and keeps the machinery going all day long.

But to have warm, comfortable rooms early in the morning requires a furnace that gives immediate response to the open draft—and instant heating results. It is just such "quick action" that you can always expect from a Sunbeam Furnace—that will exactly meet your needs. We'd like to show it to you and explain its "quick action" feature. # THE MINIMUM MARRIAGE AGE

(Toronto Star.)

The Anglican Synod in session at London, Ontario, has been discussing resolution to make the minimum age for marriage twenty-one. It will probably surprise most readers to learn that in Ontario, in 1920, nearly eleven per cent. of all the brides and grooms were not only under twenty-one, but under twenty. Of the brides alone, nineteen per cent. or almost one in five, were in this category, with many more in the twenty-year class, which is included in the twenty-twenty-nine-year group in Ontario statistics. Eighty per cent. of the brides were under thirty and sixty-seven per cent. of the grooms. The average age of brides was just under twenty-five years, and of grooms 28-3-4.

But if early marriages are more frequent than is generally thought, they are nevertheless not to be compared in number with those in the earlier period of Canadian history. Colbert, the French diplomatist, in a despatch to Talon, the French-Canadian administrator, laid down in 1668 the following principles:

"I beg you to commend it to the consideration of the whole people that their well-being, their subsistence, and all that most nearly concerns them depends on a general resolution, never to be broken, to marry youths at eighteen or nineteen years, and girls at fourteen and fifteen."

How frequent were these "child marriages," is indicated in Skelton's outline of the genealogy of Sir Wilfred Laurier. In 1662 Jacques Millot, age twenty-seven, married Jeanne Hebert, aged only twelve. Their eldest child, Madeleine, at fourteen married Francis Cot-treau, called Champlainier (probably from the fact that the family in France has possessed a field of oleaners), the founder of the Laurier family in Canada. The eldest son of this union, Jean Baptiste, at twenty-six married Catherine Lamoureux, a girl of sixteen. The fact that the line of descent from these marriages included a man of the brilliance of Sir Wilfred Laurier would not be accepted as an argument in favor of such unions today. Nor should it be. The times in which these people lived, and the conditions under which they existed in pioneer settlements, had much to do with the age at which matrimonial alliances were contracted. Today's marriages are similarly affected by today's circumstances. And the fixation by church courts of a minimum marriage age of twenty-one would be quite ineffective in view of the fact that nearly one-fifth of the brides are now under twenty.

SOCIAL EVENING.

A masquerade social was held by the members of the Dominion Lodge of L. O. G. T., No. 445, on Monday evening in their hall in Murray street, when the members opened their "Tens" boxes. More than 100 members attended and the costumes worn were both original and unifine. Games were participated in and during the evening solos were sung by Miss H. S. Mills, Miss C. Squires, Mrs. C. Spaine and little Miss Dorothy Spaine. The ladies' prize for the best costume was won by Miss C. Squires, as an Indian maid, and the gentlemen's prize by T. B. Brown, as a tramp. The judges were: H. Cunningham, worthy lodge deputy, and Richard Stackhouse. Refreshments were served at the close.
