TO PLANE FATAL

Long Branch, N. J., Oct. 7.—While attempting to make a flying leap from a speeding automobile to an airplane, Miss Madeline Davis was so badly injured that she died from a fracture of the skull in a hospital here. Her home is in Fort Pierce, Fla.

Miss Davis lost her balance, as she reached for the bottom rung of a rope ladder suspended from the airplane and fell from the automobile, landing on her head. She was practicing the stunt under the direction of Ruth Law, well-known avitrix, when the accident happened. She had appeared at fairs in the west in parachute drops, her companions said.

IN MURDER PLOT

Cleveland, Oct. 7. — Testimony that Marian McArdle not only had knowledge of the plot to murder Daniel Kaber, her stepfather, but actually aided in the plans, was introduced by the state at the twenty-year-old girl's trial for first degree murder yesterday.

Mrs. Emma Colavito, herself under indictment for complicity in the crime, testified that Miss McArdle met Salvatore Cala on the day Kaber was stabbed to death two years ago, and arranged with him the plans for the entrance of Cala and Vitorio Piscelli into the Kaber home in Lakewood.
