

by H. T. Schiff, president of the debate will be continued today by Hon. J. B. M. Baxter. In the Senate, Senator A. B. McCoig moved and Senator Gustav Boyer second-ed the motion for the address in reply to the speech from the throne. Sit James Lougheed declared that the late government had brought about romy reforms which hed proved injur-form to if in the matter of getting votes at the last election. He cited prohibi-tion, protection for the manufacturers, the best treatment in the world for soldiers, and the franchise for women. Yet all these had voted against the gov-ernment. He gave it as his view that "the Quebec bloc and the Progressive bloc threaten the stability of the do-minion." <text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

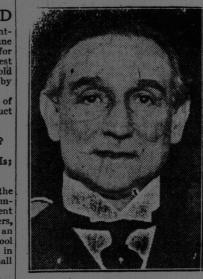

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

(Canadian Press) Vinnipeg, March 15 — Little is ex-ted to develop today in the Manitoba tical situation. Following the de-t of his government in the legislature

Synopsis—Pressure has risen over the northern and central portions of the con-tinent, with an attendant change to colder weather in the west. The weather continues fair and quite mild in eastern Canada.

ling-Make Kingston Free THE GRENFELL OF THE TROPICS. BY GOVERNMENT FORCES IN AFRICA

FORCES IN AFRICA London, March 15-(Canadian Press) --While sniping continues in the various strike areas in South Africa, Reuter's correspondent at Pretoria cables that the chief interest centres at Fordsburg. It is evident that some revolutionaries there intend to fight to a finish and the situation has been carefully studied by the government's military forces, with a view to taking the best action possible effectively to clear up the storm centre. Johannesburg, March 15-Advices from Fordsburg, timed late yesterday, report that government infantry was then clear-ing the streets following the capture of the rebels. Many prisoners had been taken, and the remainder were retiring on the Langlaagte River. Prior to the bombardment of the town leaflets were dropped by airplanes warn-ing the women and children to leave. There was an immediate response, a steady stream of refugees proceeding to a special camp outside the zone of bom-bardment.

