The Civics trimmed the Post Office team by the score of 8 to 4 in a Civic and Civil League game on the Rockwood Park diamond last evening. Brookings, for the winners, had sixteen strikeouts and the Post Office team was defeated. The Royals took a game by default from the St. George's in the Intermediate League last night, when the latter team failed to appear at the North End grounds. The West Siders refused to play on the North End grounds as they claimed that they were unsuitable. A board, consisting of Norman P. MacLeod, A. W. Covey and Frank Finnmore, will be asked to decide concerning the grounds. In the meantime the Postoffice will not play and more games on the Queen Square diamond.

On Wednesday the Refinery and St. David's teams will play while on Thursday the Royals will stack up against the St. David's.

CHANCE FOR LOCAL SWIMMERS.
Frank White announced last evening that it was the intention to hold several swimming events for local swimmers at the great aquatic meet to be held at Lily Lake in July. He announced this special feature in view of the numerous requests which he had received for further information regarding the coming meet.
A maritime province man has been chosen to fill the place of Rev. J. A. MacKegon as pastor of St. David's church and word from him is expected soon. The committee in charge had only one name before them at yesterday's meeting.

Each won a fall, but neither could repeat and after an hour and thirty minutes wrestling the bout was declared a draw.
