Where Words End, Music Begins

Words, in themselves, are but poor interpreters of emotion. Where words end, music begins. Where words only suggest, music satisfies; it utters with a clear, vibrant voice what otherwise would remain unuttered.

Music will allow you to express your innermost thoughts and ideals.

But how, you ask, can you create this music since you are no musician nor the master of any instrument?

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

has stored up in its magic discs the music of the world's greatest musicians—the soul-children of the music masters. And this music The New Edison will RE-CREATE for you, in your own home, exactly as you would hear it in the grand opera houses and the famous concert halls.

You should read the beautiful book "Edison and Music" and the booklet "What the Critics Say" containing evidence that proves Edison superiority. Ask for copies when you come to hear the New Edison.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS BANISHED HER BACKACHE

Mrs. Alice Roberts Felt Like a Different Woman After She Had Used the Great Canadian Kidney Remedy, Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Hathursage, Alta., Jan. 30th, (Special).—That Dodd's Kidney Pills are the remedy that tired women with aching backs are looking for is the lesson taught by the experience of Mrs. Alice Roberts, a well-known and highly respected resident of this place.

Mrs. Roberts felt tired all the time. Her backache was terrible. She used Dodd's Kidney Pills. That is why she says:

"Dodd's Kidney Pills did wonders for me. My back ached so that I could hardly do my work." Mrs. Roberts continues, "And I felt so tired all the time. My heart also bothered me."

"Six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills made me feel like a different person." Ask your neighbors if Dodd's Kidney Pills won't cure sick kidneys. Cured kidneys strain all the impurities out of the blood. Pure blood means new health all over the body. Thousands of Canadian women recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills.

MORNING NEWS

OVER THE WIRES

The Westminster Presbyterian church in Toronto was destroyed by fire last night. The loss is estimated at about $75,000.

The French government has appropriated $225,000,000 to construct ships and negotiations are under way for Canadian financiers to handle a portion of the credit in order that part of the programme might be carried out in Canada.

The minister of finance has the matter under consideration. Because of the strike of 1,200 freight handlers in Boston, it is expected that about sixteen vessels will be diverted from that port in the next few days. The Canadian Board of Commerce has issued regulations regarding the formation and operation of combines.

FERVID LOVE WAS COOLED WHEN GIRL CALLED HIM 'BOOB'

Passionate Notes of Man Are Sued by Pretty Woman From Teaneck.

New York, Jan. 31.—Miss Mary Lillian Phipps brightened up the corners of the old circuit court of Hackensack by her beauty and stylish figure when she appeared in her $50,000 breach of promise suit against William Russell Smith, of Tenafly, N. J. Miss Phipps is twenty-seven years old and moved prominently in Teaneck's younger set. She is a daughter of George Phipps, of New York, a typewriter inventor and a descendant of Sir William Phipps, the first royal governor of Massachusetts.

When the fair plaintiff appeared, accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Irving S. Van Loan, of Teaneck, the jury had eyes for nobody else. She is about five feet six inches in height. Her eyes are large and blue and surmounted by a mass of brown hair which she styled under a black toque hat. She wore a gown of blue silk under a brown military coat, and high top shoes.

The suit was declared she only seeks to punish Mr. Smith and that if she is awarded the $50,000 she will hand it over to charity. She is wealthy in her own right. Her complaint contains about forty letters, through which she says Smith poured out his love for her.

She says Smith first proposed to her during a ride in the Van Loan automobile to Asbury Park on last Easter Sunday and that she refused him. The suit was persistent, she declared, and on June 4 she consented to become his wife and set the day for the following October. In July Mr. Smith experienced a change of heart. She said he telephoned thus: "I'm through with you, Lillian. You told friends of mine I was a greenhorn and a boob."

Miss Phipps says she was humiliated and wanted to die. Then she brought suit and says Smith's friends tried to buy his letters from her, excerpts of which are subjoined to the complaint. Here are some of the alleged excerpts:

"You are the sweetest little girl that ever was."

"The beauty of love lies in its life. My beloved, how beautiful you are. You have called me forth to life. I see your name on the clouds and I love to hear your plaintive voice say 'My love'."

Here is another: "Sweetheart: Do the birds tell you I love you? Do the flowers through their beauty tell you I love you? Then the world is a happy place for you. I want your love, I want to earn it and be worthy of a true woman. I most perfectly lived the lives of Balzac's great characters, Raphael and Louis Lambert. I lived a riotous life. Love dissipated and died by inches alternately in the most glorious and most wretched manner possible."

Another letter says: "I have seen the world. I have learned all languages and lived after every manner. I have joined a Chinaman money and taken his father's corpse as a pledge. I slept in an Arab's tent in the society of his bare women. I have signed contracts in every capital of Europe. I have left my gold without hesitation in a savage's wigwag. I have begged my bread. I saw the licentious days of the regency.

"I am now a centenarian with a couple of years to spare and a millionaire to boot."

Miss Phipps is represented by Attorneys William Vance Azzoli and Frank M. McDermott, while Mr. Smith has for his attorney former Congressman A. A. Hart.

Mr. Smith is the senior member of the firm of Smith, Sweeney & Demarest, of Tenafly.

7 - 1910 - 1912 - 1920

Cross off the Past with it's Worries.. But what About 1920?

Women have dreaded "wash days" from time immemorial.

They've been seeking a way of escape for ages.

Those wearying hours at the tub every week are the bane of a woman's existence—but the time of emancipation is at hand!

1920 can be the best year in all your life to date—if you choose to make it so.

The Wet Wash Way is the best way to dispose of family washings. We do the work far better—and it's easier on the clothes.

More—the laundry is dried before being returned—dried quickly and carefully under sanitary conditions. Winter weather makes this feature doubly attractive; who wants to hang clothes, anyway?

Be Sensible! Cast aside all scruples! Call the wagon! M. 1707.
