LOCAL NEWS

TRAINS LATE.
The Boston was reported two and a half hours late today, and the Montreal twenty minutes.

PRELIMINARY MEETING.
A sub-committee of the Provincial Red Cross met this morning in the mayor's office and took up several matters which will be dealt with at a meeting next week.

CHINESE THROUGH.
Two more trainloads of Chinese coolies passed through the city this morning from Halifax on their way to Vancouver.

GRADUATE NURSES.
Among the graduates of the January class of the McLean Hospital, Waverly, Mass., are Miss Pearl C. Baker of this city, and Miss Edna Grant of Halifax. Both young ladies have many friends in their home towns who will wish them every success in their chosen profession.

TO BE SISTER OF CHARITY.
Miss Clara M. Boyle, daughter of Mrs. Annie Boyle, 47 Gilbert's Lane, left last night for Halifax, where she will join the novitiate of the Sisters of Charity of Mount St. Vincent. She will be missed by many young friends, who will wish her every success and all happiness.

SUMMER WEATHER THERE.
Commissioner J. B. Jones, of the water and sewerage department, received a post card this morning from H. G. Marr, of this city, who is now at Daytona, Florida. Mr. Marr said that Florida was now enjoying ideal summer weather, much similar to that prevalent here in June, July and August.

WILL FUGGATE CARS.
Instructions have been given by the Canadian National Railways authorities at Moncton, that, starting today, all passenger cars in and on the road must be fumigated at the stations where they remain over night. This order is given to prevent the spread of germs of influenza and other diseases.

VALENTINE TEA.
Mrs. T. J. Cosgrove, 166½ Sydney street, entertained last night at a Valentine tea in honor of her daughter, Winifred. About fourteen friends were present and an enjoyable evening was spent. Miss Sherman and Mrs. Kenneth Fairweather assisted Mrs. Cosgrove. The tables were tastefully decorated in pink and white.

AUCTION SALES.
There were no auction sales at Chubb's corner this morning. Auctioneer Potts told a Time reporter that during the balance of the winter months, on account of the severity of the weather and the prevalence of influenza in the city, he was planning all real estate sales in his show rooms in German street.

LAST NIGHT'S FIRE.
Commissioner Thornton said this morning that the fire teams experienced great difficulty in getting the apparatus to the fire in Lansdowne avenue last night, on account of the heavy snow. He also said that he planned on having another fire alarm placed near the end of the avenue, towards the Shamrock grounds.

IN THE COURTS.
The adjourned session of the circuit court will be held on Feb. 26. Mr. Justice Chandler presiding. As there is no further business to come before this session a final adjournment will probably be made.

In chambers this morning before Mr. Justice Chandler, adjournment to March 10 was made in the case of the W. F. Burns Export Corporation vs. the Maritime Navigation Company. This is an action on an alleged breach of contract. F. R. Taylor, K. C., appears for the plaintiff corporation, and J. H. M. Baxter, K. C., for the defendant company.

DANCING MASTER FINED.
An unusual by-law case was brought up in the police court this morning when Professor Ruvault, a dancing teacher, was charged with conducting a dance hall. "The Peacekeeper" in the Le Tour Apartments, without a license. He said, "All the high-toned people come there, your honor." He paid a fine of $20.

CAPTAIN TURNBULL, master of S. S. Metagama, was charged by Harbor Master Alward with improperly discharging ashes from the steamer. The case was postponed until Monday morning.

TWENTY-TWO DEATHS.
In spite of the large amount of sickness in the city besides the recent outbreak of influenza, the death rate is comparatively low. Influenza claimed only one victim. The following deaths were reported: Lobar pneumonia, four; cerebral hemorrhage, three; myocarditis, two; influenza, influenza, pneumonia, paralysis, premature birth, bronchopneumonia, pulmonary congestion, gangrene of intestines, chronic rheumatism, tuberculosis of the lungs, hemorrhage neonatorum, carcinoma of stomach and carcinoma of bowel, one each.

HAD SLEIGH DRIVE.
The King brothers, of the Maritime Clothing Manufacturing Company, 198 Union street, tendered a sleigh drive to their employees last evening. The party drove as far as Glen Falls and returned to the A. O. U. E. rooms, Union street, where dancing, music and refreshments were much enjoyed by all. Much merriment was added by two employees of the firm, who were dressed in clown attire. Their actions caused much laughter and applause. The employees considered their most hearty thanks to the King brothers for the drive and hospitality. The National Artistic was sung and the party disbanded in the small hours of the morning.

MISS ISOBEL AMOS.
The many friends of Miss Isobel Amos will be very sorry to hear of her death, which occurred early this morning at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Amos, 29 German street, West End. She was in the twenty-third year of her age, and being of a kind and lovable disposition, was loved by all. She was a member and faithful attendant of the First Presbyterian church, and was also a member of the Young Ladies' Club of the same church. Besides a host of friends, she leaves a sorrowing mother, father, three sisters and one brother. The sisters are Mrs. Ford Henderson of Portland, Maine; Misses Edith and Agnes at home. Her brother, Frank, is in the C. P. R. employ.

CITY CHURCHES OVER OBJECTIVE

Reports From Methodist Congregations re Forward Movement.

In the matter of the forward movement in relation to the Methodist church in St. John, five of the churches have already reached their objective, Zion being the first to go over the top. It had an allotment of $700. This was closely followed by Faith, which holds the record so far, having $2,000 subscribed against an objective of $1,500. Carleton reports $2,700 against an objective of $2,500. Exmouth street has exceeded its objective of $3,500, and the same is true of Portland, with an objective of $4,000.

Many of these churches felt even a week ago that the task before them was an impossibility, but they simply had not recognized the spirit of their people, the excellent result being the outcome of the desire to express appreciation of the opportunity afforded, to advance the interests of Christianity and of the complete organization affected on the part of the individual church to secure the subscriptions of the people. Undoubtedly Queen Square and Centenary will be able to announce that they have gone over the top within a few days. In the outlying parts of the district the campaign will have to be kept open perhaps for some weeks, the roads being impassable and many of the men being away from home, very largely in the woods, and so cannot be reached.

This opportunity is being used by many as an expression of thanksgiving, and also as a memorial in relation to the dear ones that have gone before.

A. P. O'NEIL DEAD

Head of City Market Firm and Prominent Young Business Man.

With their huge again plunged in sorrow through death, the members of the family have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in the loss of Arthur P. O'Neil, who passed away about 4 o'clock this morning at his residence, 144 Leinster street. This break in the family circle, following just a few months after the death of his father, J. Harry O'Neil, in Boston, and not quite a year after his father's death. Mr. O'Neil was taken severely ill just a week ago with congestion of the lungs. Every possible attention was given him but his illness took too deep a hold and his death followed this morning. He was the head of the firm of O'Neil Brothers, meat merchants, in the city market, and had been associated with the business with his father for many years. He was respected for his uprightness of dealing and liked for his many sterling qualities which made him a favorite with many friends. He was a charter member of the Knights of Columbus, had attained the fourth degree and was very active in the order. He was also an interested member of the Y. M. C. L. and was very popular in both societies.

The late Mr. O'Neil was a kindly husband and father and delighted in the joys of life at home with his little family. He was survived by his wife and four little children, three boys and one girl. Four brothers, Frank and Gerald, of this city, and Herbert and Ernest, of Richibucto, survive, with three sisters, Sister Mary Borgia at St. Vincent's Convent, and Misses Florence and Gertrude at home.

DEATH OF BROTHERBENEDICT, C. SS. R.

Passed Away This Morning at St. Peter's Rectory, North End.

The death of Brother Benedict, C. SS. R., occurred this morning at St. Peter's Rectory, North End, after an illness which has troubled him for some time. He had really been poor health for the last few years, but latterly had been confined to bed, and on last Tuesday he suffered an attack from which he did not rally. Brother Benedict was a deeply religious man who took a keen interest in his duties and who found his work no burden. He had been at St. Peter's church for about nine years and had been faithful in his attendance to the many details of the house and church which came under his care. He was well liked by the people of the parish.

In private life, before his admission to the Redemptorist order, Brother Benedict was Hugh Hiney, born in St. Catharines, Quebec, on Jan. 29, 1852. It is just a little more than thirty years since he was made a brother, on Jan. 2, 1890, serving his novitiate at Annapolis, Maryland. He served in various cities in Canada, and before coming to St. John was at the Redemptorist church in Quebec. His funeral will be held on Monday at 9 o'clock, with solemn high mass, from St. Peter's.

DEAD IN NEW MEXICO

Word of Passing Away of Ralph W. Gilchrist Reaches St. John.

A telegram received last evening by Mrs. F. E. Flewelling, Douglas avenue, brought the sad news of the death of her nephew, Ralph W. Gilchrist, in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Many friends about the city will regret to learn of his passing away. He was the only child of C. E. Gilchrist, formerly of this city and now of Malden, Mass., and his father is survived by his wife and two children. He was about thirty-eight years of age.

Mr. Gilchrist was in failing health some years ago and had been advised to go to a different climate. He went to New Mexico and had been there about seventeen years. Up to the time he was about twenty years of age he used to spend his summers in St. John and, being of a bright and cheerful disposition, made many friends while here.

The Decorative Influence of The Artistic Lamp!

The floor lamp or table lamp has come to be more than an economic, convenient lighting medium. Its decorative possibilities have made it one of the most important factors in artistic home furnishing. It lends a variety of proportion which emphasizes the character of the furniture pieces with which it is associated, and the touch of color which is invariably provided in the shade—and frequently in the lamp itself—relieves what might otherwise be a sombre room.

It is very important, however, that the lamp and the shade both possess individuality and character, for with all its practical service these long winter evenings the desirability of the lamp depends on its artistic beauty.

Possibly we can serve you in this direction?
