A despatch from Petrograd under date of Feb. 15 quoted Leon Trotzky, the Bolshevik foreign minister, as declaring in his report upon the ending of the Brest-Litovsk negotiations that the German terms included the retention of Poland, Lithuania, Riga and Moon Island, with an indemnity of $4,000,000, presumably in gold. It will be seen from the above despatch that the Teutonic demands, both in territory and indemnity, were very much less than those reported by M. Trotzky.

Ambassadors Remain. Petrograd, Feb. 24—The Allied ambassadors, at a conference today at the American embassy, determined to remain in Petrograd pending developments, The general belief in embassy circles is that the German terms, which the Bolsheviki have agreed to accept, are couched in such ambiguous terms that they must be cleared up thoroughly before the actual status of Russia can be ascertained.

Terms Ambiguous. Mayor Hayes presided at educational night held at the Portland street Methodist church last evening. Dr. H. A. Powell was on the platform and delivered a forcible address on the war. Rev. Thomas Marshall also addressed the contraction
