Points Way to Health

I can truthfully say that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is a very good medicine, not alone for kidney trouble, but also for weak and sore back, as well as for rheumatism.

About a year ago I became ill and unable to work, my trouble being a lame back. I read of your Swamp-Root in the newspaper and in an Almanac. Believing it would do me good, I went to my druggist, Mr. Skinner, and purchased a bottle. Finding relief in one fifty-cent bottle, I purchased several more and in a short time was able to continue with my work and am today feeling well and strong. I always recommend Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root to my friends as I believe it is as good a medicine as can be found.

NOTE FROM WINDOW GETS GIRL
PRISONER FROM CLUTCHES OF ALLEGED WHITE SLAVERS

New York, Nov. 5.—Josephine McLaughlin, a fourteen-year-old girl, missing from home a week and for whom a general police alarm had been sounded, has been rescued from a band of alleged traffickers in women who had taken her from her mother and kept her prisoner since the night of her disappearance. A note imploring aid was written by the girl and pushed through the shutters of a window. It fluttered down before the feet of a citizen, who notified the police, a spectacular raid of the place was made and two prisoners taken.

The girl told the police that she left her mother's home on the night of October 23, with a young man she had met a few days previously, to attend a dance. Her escort took her, instead, to the flat from which she was rescued.

There she met a man and a woman who appeared to be waiting for her. They confiscated her clothing and watched her closely but finally their vigilance was relaxed long enough for her to write the note appealing for help.

John Hamilton, a driver, one of the girl's alleged captives was locked up on charge of abduction. A girl companion was charged with disorderly conduct. She said her name was Elizabeth Clark and the police, searching their records, found that her disappearance from home had been reported a month ago by her father, and that a general alarm for her, too, had been issued.

AN EVENING GOWN IN SOMBER YET RICH TONES

BLACK SATIN EVENING GOWN

For the woman who is not in her first youth and wishes to disguise this fact the gown pictured here has many merits. It is carried out in black liberty satin, with corsage and tunic of head embroidered chiffon. The pointed train is tied up. The sleeves are especially effective, their lines giving an appearance of plumpness to even slender arms.
