H. A. PORTER CHOSEN BY ROYAL ARCANUM

Elected Grand Regent of Maritime—Installation Ceremony at Meeting Here

Horace A. Porter, Saint John, was elected Grand Regent of the Grand Council of the Royal Arcanum of the Maritime Provinces at the afternoon session of the Council's annual meeting, yesterday at the Admiral Beatty. Mr. Porter was also elevated to the office of supreme representative.

The result of the election of officers follows: Supreme Representative, H. A. Porter; alternate, H. H. James; Saint John; grand regent, H. A. Porter; grand vice-regent, H. C. Reid, Sackville; grand auditor, T. Andrew Ramsay, Saint John; grand secretary, H. H. James; grand treasurer, W. H. Studd, Halifax; grand chaplain, Rev. H. W. Perkins, Sussex; grand warden, C. McCabe, Saint John; grand entry, F. E. Wetmore, Saint John; grand guide, G. G. Wetmore, Saint John.

The installation of officers was conducted by J. M. Tripp, of Baltimore, supreme Deputy Regent of the Royal Arcanum. Mr. Tripp addressed the meeting briefly and was made a life member of the Maritime body. Reports and other routine business were dealt with.

The place of meeting for 1927 will be held later by the executive.

CHURCH OPPOSES RISING IN MEXICO

Will "Go to Calvary" if Necessary in Struggle, Says Bishop

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 4.—The archbishop of the Roman Catholic Church will never approve of armed uprisings, but the church will "go to Calvary" if necessary, in the present religious struggle in Mexico, Mgr. Pascual Diaz, Bishop of Tabasco and secretary of the National Episcopate, today told the Associated Press.

H. J. LOGAN DECLINES NOMINATION IN N. S.

J. A. Hanway, K. C., Chosen by Liberals in Cumberland Convention

AMHERST, Aug. 4.—James A. Hanway, K. C., today received the Liberal nomination in Cumberland county and in the balloting and the convention won out over John S. Smiley, K. C., and Hon. S. S. Carter, of Macan. Hence J. Logan, K. C., who had received the initial nomination from the floor of the house, his eighth nomination since 1876, refused to consider acceptance, stating that he felt it was his duty to retire in favor of a younger man.

Island Inquiry Opens Friday

THE Royal Commission, under the chairmanship of Sir Andrew Rae Duncan, will open their sitting in Charlottetown Friday and expect to hold sessions there for two days, according to an announcement made last night by F. Macleure Scanders, secretary of the Commission.

Mr. Scanders also stated that the Commission expect to be in Halifax about the middle of next week and will spend two days there. It is possible, Mr. Scanders said, that an informal sitting will take place at Bathurst, N. B. All sessions, except at Halifax, Saint John and Charlottetown, will be informal in nature, Mr. Scanders stated.

The members of the Commission, with the exception of Mr. Scanders, left yesterday afternoon by automobile for P. E. Island. Mr. Scanders, who is detained here on business, will leave this afternoon by train for Charlottetown.

VERA GRATTAN WINS FREE-FOR-ALL RACE

Nesha of Truro Wins 2.24 Trot at Glace Bay; Halifax Stables to Fore

GLACE BAY, N. S., Aug. 4.—The showing of the entries from Merrytime Stables, Halifax, featured the two-day carnival race meet which closed here this afternoon.

Vera Grattan was the winner of the free-for-all today in three straight heats, while V. Peters took third place in the 2:24 trot. The latter was marked by blanket finishes in all four heats. Yesterday Halifax horses won two second places and one third.

The 2:24 trot furnished the finest racing which has been seen here for some time. Nesha, Truro entry, won the event after taking sixth place in the first heat, won by Fenech Peters.

Springhill Man Is Severely Injured

SPRINGHILL, Aug. 4.—A. A. Horne, rigger for the company, met with a painful accident today. While removing a rubber belt 42 inches wide weighing about 1,800 pounds the weight broke a plank with which they were removing the belt and a piece of the plank flew up and struck Horne on the head and shoulder, injuring him severely. He was rushed to his home, where medical attention was given him.

Australia Moves To Select Touring Party

MELBOURNE, Aug. 5.—Premier Bruce has requested Australian employers' and employees' organizations each to nominate 15 men from among whom the Australian government can select a party of eight to visit the United States to study industrial conditions. Mr. Bruce recently said it was a unique phenomenon that during the last six years in the United States a substantial fall in the price level had been accompanied by a substantial rise in wages.

Many primitive tribes raise commercially developed varieties of cotton that were brought to them by missionaries and traders.

PARLIAMENT TAKES RECESS TILL NOV. 9

Efforts of Laborites to Have British House Sit on Aug. 17 Fail

LONDON, Aug. 4.—Parliament adjourned today until November 9, unless a continuance of the coal strike compels an earlier meeting.

In that case the members will meet August 30, for a renewal of the emergency regulations, and if necessary they will sit again on September 27 for a further renewal.

Efforts by the Laborites to have the House reassembled August 17, because of the coal situation, was voted down. Sir Austen Chamberlain, on leaving the House, said:

"We have had 16 days of discussion and I am not aware that they have contributed powerfully to a settlement." He added that the coal industry must settle the dispute itself.
