A STRONG CASE AGAINST ACCUSED TRAIN BANDIT

Quebec, Oct. 1.—The case of the crown against George Topping, the accused train bandit, who is held for trial, was brought to a close in the preliminary investigation this afternoon. The principal witness was Mrs. Lemieux, in whose house Topping boarded. She testified under oath that the suit case in which the money was found, belonged to Topping, also the cap found with the money, as well as two khaki shirts found under the suit case in the barn at Montserrat where the suit was hidden. Inspector Charon was the next witness, and he swore that after examining the shirts found in the barn with the stolen money, he took note of the marks and the laundry numbers and went to Topping's boarding house where he found other articles of clothing belonging to the accused which bore the same marks and laundry numbers as the shirts found in the barn.

ANOTHER NEGRO OUTRAGE REPORTED FROM OMAHA.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 2.—Mrs. W. G. Wisner, a white woman, was attacked by a negro in the rear of her home this afternoon. The negro escaped. The Wisner home is in the heart of Omaha's "black belt" which is under control of troops under the command of Major-General Leonard Wood. According to Mrs. Wisner, the negro entered her home while she was alone with two small children. After threatening to kill the children if they made an outcry, the negro carried Mrs. Wisner from the house. As soon as the assault was reported troops threw a cordon around the entire district and refused to permit anyone to leave or enter the district.
