

- Q. In the commission and heard the whole evidence?
- A. There was only two men of us that was acting as Councillors, Harper and myself.
- Q. And you never gave any evidence yourself on that point?
- A. No.
- Q. Why didn't you volunteer this as you have now?
- A. I suppose because they could do without me.
- Q. There was Mr. Truthwaite's oath against Peter George's, wasn't there? A. I know Thomas Truthwaite was the man that was putting in a claim at that time.
- Q. And then was it Peter George put in a claim, right the next minute after he got there, Peter George came in and put in his claim? A. I did not hear that.
- Q. Did not you hear Peter George's claim?
- A. I did not. I heard a good deal of Thomas Truthwaite putting in his claim at that time.
- Q. And you did not hear Peter George? A. No.
- Q. Did you hear that Peter George had put in a claim?
- A. I heard afterwards.
- Q. You did not hear at the time that the commission was sitting that he put in a claim? A. No.
- Q. How long after the claim had been put in was it that you heard of it. A. Well, I could not say.
- Q. How did you happen to hear about it?
- A. The people was talking about it.
- Q. Did Peter George tell you himself?
- A. No, he did not tell me himself.
- Q. Was Peter George married?
- A. Yes, he was married at the time he was working for Truthwaite.
- Q. His wife was living in the house too?
- A. Yes, sitting in that house when I was putting in the windows and doors.
- Q. Was there any arrangement with Mr. Truthwaite as to Peter George occupying the house?
- 14.
