Read what Mr. Snyder says:-

"Gentlemen:—I have been wearing one of your arms for about three years. I have had three arms before the one I got from you, but always had trouble in getting a fit and then could not use them in any way compared with the Carnes Artificial Arm. I can move the fingers and wrist in any way I want to, and without the sid of my sound hand."

The Carnes Arm is the most perfect substitute for the human arm ever devised. Its efficiency is nothing short of marvellous—it must be seen and used to be fully appreciated
