Two Well Known Citizens of Tryon Pass Away. Harbors and Rivers Opening Up—Notes from Victoria and Bedouque. Tryon, April 18.—Two recent deaths have thrown a gloom across our community. Wm. Morrell, photographer, who only returned from the United States about two years since, and had since his return worked up a success-ful business, after a sickness of some weeks passed away. The other case is a very sad one. Archibald Howatt left his home on Tuesday afternoon for his brother-in-law's home, about four miles distant, with a circular saw and frame. On his arrival they set to work to saw the saw in position. Mr. Howatt complained of a pain in his head and weakness of limbs, and partially fell to the ground. He was carried into the house, and despite all aid that could be given, soon breathed his last. His body was taken back in a coffin on Wednesday, and the family had had travelled, apparently well and strong, the preceding day. Two sons are away in the states, but were expected to return this spring. Each of the deceased citizens leaves a widow and family, and they both have the sympathy of the entire community. The funerals took place today in the Tryon cemetery, the pastors of the Methodist and Baptist churches officiating. Tryon, April 18.—The funeral of the late Mr. Morrell and A. Howatt were very largely attended yesterday afternoon. The whole community seemed to have been present to testify its sympathy with the families of the deceased. Mrs. Joseph Calbeck of Augustine Cove suddenly fainted during the service at Mr. Morrell's; the exercises had to be closed. She, however, soon recovered. George Ives, who recently was severely injured in his foot by the bursting of a wheel in his mill, is recovering. Bedouque, April 19.—The funeral lay out to Summerside and the chery boat expects to make her first trip to Bedouque on Monday. In consequence of the continued ill-health of Captain Rollo McKay, his farm and stock, etc., are to be sold by auction on the 29th. Horace Howatt is very sick with inflammation of the lungs. Application has been made to the government for a subsidy to run a line of telephone to Tryon by way of Cape Traverse from Bedouque. Ephraim Leard, son of Charles Leard of Sea Cow Head, has left for Halifax; it is said, to take a business position. The Easter service at the Methodist church was held on Sunday. Rev. W. J. Kirby preached. The church was nicely decorated with flowers by the E. L. flower committee, and the collection amounted to $37.52 for the W. M. S. The Albany siding on the Cape Traverse branch is to be changed to the other side of the track, which will be far more convenient for shippers. The people are asking that it be made a booking station to accommodate the large amount of freight and passengers travelling to and from the station. The second quarterly session of the G. D. S. of T. met at Ellerslie on Good Friday. It was very well attended and the officers' report showed the order to be in a progressive condition. Victoria, April 18.—A very good audience assembled at the Methodist church last evening to attend a meeting held under the auspices of the Woman's Missionary society of the Methodist church. The ladies had an excellently prepared programme, which was admirably rendered. The choir gave some really beautiful songs. Miss Bertie Lee sang a beautiful solo. The members of the mission band took a prominent part in the exercises, and showed evidence of the careful training their president, Miss Tuplin, and Miss Ella Wright had given them. The reading by Miss Brian was forcible and humorous. The harbor is now clear of ice. The Rev. A. F. McCurdy was appointed ordained minister by the presbytery at its recent meeting in Charlottetown, on his own and the people's request. The charge embraces North Tryon, Hampton and Bonaville. A young man named McEachern, living with his uncle at Afton road, about four miles from this village, committed suicide last evening by cutting his throat with a razor. Medical aid was procured, but too late. He died this morning. It is thought the deed was done while laboring under a fit of temporary insanity. An inquest was held today. Bedouque, April 22.—The Bedouque bay is about clear of ice again. The roads, however, are still badly blocked with snow and in many places the travelling is still through the fields. Horace Howatt, whose sickness was reported before, is much worse, and there is small hope of his recovery. He is a young man, son of John Howatt of Bedouque, and brother of the wife of Rev. A. C. Bell of St. James, N. B. After a continuous sickness, Mrs. Thomas McMillen of Carleton died on Saturday night last. She leaves three sons to mourn their loss. S. Hiram Trueman, who died at his home in Seartown on Sunday, the 21st, came to P. E. Island thirty years ago and settled on the Black homestead at Seartown, where he has resided ever since. Besides his widow, who was a Miss Typhena Black, he leaves two sons and two daughters. Dr. Thomas Trueman of Acadia Iron mines is a son of the above, and Albert and Howard Trueman of Point de Bute are his brothers. He was a progressive farmer, and the postmaster of Seartown for many years. The Rev. W. J. Kirby officiated at his funeral. The beautiful officers' eulogies, which

HE RECEIVED MISS HALL.

Rev. Jonathan Bell Fled After the Detroit Story Became Known.

The Piteful Story of a Clever Young Woman's Ruin and Death.

London, April 25.—At the end of 1894 the Rev. Jonathan Bell, who it is claimed ruined Miss Emily Hall, whose death at Detroit has created such widespread interest, and sent her to Detroit, for the past two years has been pastor of the Primitive Methodist church in the Black Heath district, and was seen occasionally in the company of Miss Hall. She was a member of his church; Miss Hall was a French girl and used to preach and speak at temperance and political meetings. She was a candidate for the local preacher's place at Black Heath. Miss Hall went to Mr. Bell's house in August last to assist in doing the house work during the absence of Mrs. Bell. She left her home suddenly in the following November, it is understood to take a situation in Leeds, to which place Mr. Bell accompanied her. Her parents were later informed that she had gone to America with a lady. Her father and mother were opposed to her going to the United States. They heard nothing further from her until they received a letter on Jan. 17th. In December Bell obtained leave of absence on the plea that his throat was affected and that his doctor had ordered him to go away. Several weeks later he returned to Old Bury, his home in Worcestershire, five miles northwest of Birmingham. Since that time he has lectured on his experiences in America, to which he also referred in his sermons.

Mrs. Hall has in her possession letters written by her daughter to Mr. Bell, which contain serious allegations, and asked him to help her through her trouble. Mr. Bell came to the district from Burley, and was to be removed next July. He is 38 years old and has a wife and six children. He has an excellent education. On Monday last he preached in the chapel, but as the details about the Detroit story were published, he vanished the next morning. The police have taken no action in the matter, although Miss Hall's parents sought their assistance. There is much indignation in the district, and Mr. Bell has resigned his parish.

The Salvation Army council and business meeting held Wednesday was marked by the transaction of a lot of business. The following various branches of the work were brought up and discussed. The price of the War Cry will from this out be 2 cents per copy, the corps throughout the maritime provinces having succeeded in doubling the circulation. The following changes in the personnel of various corps, Capt. Jennings goes from St. John to Newcastle; Lieut. Stacey goes from this city to Nova Scotia; Capt. Miller comes here from Sussex to take charge of No. 3 corps, Brindley street, Lieut. McIntyre comes down from Sussex to assume command of No. 10 corps, Charlotte street; Lieut. Matherson, who has been stationed at Yarmouth, now takes charge of No. 2 corps, north end; Capt. Keney and Lieut. Wilson go to Sussex and Capt. Baggs and Lieut. Davis to Amherst.

Thursday night the Salvation Army had a big special meeting in the Opera house. Before going inside they apprised the general public of their intention by open air meetings at all the principal street corners. Inside an interesting programme was going through. After prayer and several musical selections, the curtain was lowered and when it rose it showed a Salvation Army open air meeting in full swing, surrounded by the inevitable crowd of loafers, drunks, dudes, etc., and when the curtain fell the soldiers were leading the worst looking "drunk" away to the inside meeting, which was to follow the outside one.

The third scene showed the officers and soldiers seated on the stage as at first, and Ensign Bradley, who was, before his conversion, a most reckless gambler, was the first to stand and give the first met with the army in the open air and afterward found salvation at their penitence form.

Some splendid music by Staff Capt. Howell, Ensign Galt, Ensign Watson and Capt. Frigg followed. Then Mr. St. John, Ensign Mathew and Brigadier Scott addressed the audience in an earnest and pointed manner, urging the uncovered to repent in time, and after a prayer meeting (at which seven souls professed conversion) the service closed.
