ENGLAND'S PATRON SAINT HONORED LAST NIGHT

Brilliant Banquet of St. George's SAY THIS NEGRO LIVED ONE Society at Union Club.

The St. George's Society celebrated the day of Enland's patron saint in a royal manner at the Unifon Club last night. The dining hall was prettily decorated, and on the walls were hung several mottoes of the society. A lengthy programme of toasts was carried out and the dinner was one of the most brilliant affairs that has taken place here for some time. The menu card was gotten up in very artistic style. The front cover was arranged in the shape of the cross. The following verse of "The Englishman" was printed on the inside:

"There a heart that leaps with burning glow"."

The wronged and the weak to defend, And strike as soon for a trampled foe As it does for a soul-bound friend; It nurthres a deep and honest love, The passion of faith and pride, And yearns with the fondness of a dove For the light of its own fireside:

The president proposed the toast to the dinner.

The was also rerid from Coadjuton which the writer expressed his regret at not being able to attend the dinner.

The president proposed the toast to the King, which was responded to by the singing of the National Anthem.

The next toast was to the Governor General and the Lieutenant Governor Snowball. Governor Tweedie the death of the late Lieutenant Governor Snowball. Governor Tweedie the death of the late Lieutenant Governor Snowball. Governor Tweedie the late of the high respect in which the writer expressed his regret at not being able to attend the dinner.

The president proposed the toast to the King, which was responded to by the singing of the National Anthem.

The next toast was proposed by Dr. G. A. B. Addy, who mentioned the death of the late Lieutenant Governor Tweedie the death of the late Lieutenant Governor Tweedie the death of the late Lieutenant Governor Tweedie the death of the late proposed by Canadians. His Honor complimented the society on its prosperous condition.

The toast to the "President of the United States" was proposed by H. Russell Sturdee.
