MC2465 POOR DOCUMENT

THE GRANITE TOWN GREETINGS LOCAL AND SPECIAL LOCAL AND SPECIAL The ice in Lake Utopia disappeared on | The Pulp Co. recently purchased a fine FRAULEY BROS. looking horse from St. John parties. Mr. Chas. Brine will build a cottage at A valuable horse, owned by Joseph Lake Utopia this spring. McHugh is very sick, and will probably Head to Foot Beginning next Sunday vespers will be held at 7.30 in the evening. Hanson Bros., tailors, report business good. They are advertising for more Outfitters Sch. Francis Goodnow cleared last help. week, with a big cargo of pulp for Norwalk. A number of railroad foremen were in St. John last week having their eyes For style and wear we know no clothes that The newest and prettiest line of post inspected. -cards in St. George, can be found at Herring are plentiful in some districts and the fishermen generally, are elated 20th Century Brand Capt. Milliken and Thos. R. Kent are over the outlook. painting and preparing their boats for the summer season. The medical men are not getting much rest, as most of the people are affected Sch. Dorothy docked at the public by the "spring cold." high class tailored garments, constructed by exwharf Saturday. She carried a cargo of pert custom tailors only---many, models to brick for the Pulp Co. Repairs are being made to Young's choose from; made up in exclusive designs bridge, which was quite badly damaged Your spring outfit will not be complete owing to the freshet. without a pair of Tan Oxfords. Frauley Suits for Men Bros. have them in a variety of styles Grant & Morin are agents for the and reasonably priced. Palmer engine. They can fill orders promptly and on reasonable terms. and Young Men James J. Oliver, L'Etang, has bought the Walter Justason property, and afte $12.50 and $22.50 Boyds hotel is in the hands of the carsome improvements and alterations are penters, painters and paper hangers and made on the house, he will move in. is being put in first class condition. The roads are very bad and people Several men finished work at the Pulp living any distance from town do not mill last week. Their places were filled Showerproof Clothing for Men promptly by others "in waiting. PRING I is not as brisk as it will be when roads There is a little more snappiness and fit in The St. Andrews Beacon celebrated our Raincoats, at a little less price, than you can Mr. Morrissy, in reply to Mr. Lowell's its twentieth birthday on Thursday 22nd enquiry, said the government is looking inst. We tender congratulations. Prices $5,00, $8.50 and up to $17.50 into the matter of the bridge known as New River Bridge over New River, car-Stephen Goodiell has accepted the ried away. It will be rebuilt. OXFORDS position of keeper at the Alms house. Regal Shirts He will enter upon his duties at once. The granite works of H. McGrattan LACED BOOTS & Sons present a busy appearance. Business is good and there is every indica- Capt. Lon. Simmons was thrown from The Acme of Style BUTTONED BOOTS tion of a prosperous season. This firm a wagon on Friday last and received will erect monuments in any part of the several nasty cuts on the head and face. Tans, Ox Blood, Vic. Kid, Patent Colt, Velour Calf, Only the Dressy Kind of Furnishings are Ever Found Here Box Calf. Parties getting rid of dirt should engaged in the work on the new hotel. refrain from using the road leading to When completed this hotel will be very but these shirts are really exceptionally Skillful snoe making---the choicest leathers and the river bank as the dumping grounds. neat and attractive. latest lasts, form a combination in our fine shoes that attractive The condition of this road is a disgrace and offenders are leaving themselves Prices, 75c, $1.00, $1.25 $1.50 Those who object to the old fashioned liable to a heavy fine. way of sawing wood, can have the wood Our Display of Infant's and Children's Shoes will pile manufactured into stove lengths in Friends will regret to hear of the a most satisfactory manner by Hanson's affiiction that has fallen on Mr. Jonas sawing machine. Stuart, a former resident of this town. Cataracts on the eyes threaten to destroy Frauley Bros. his sight. An effort is being made to Regal Shirts are made to fit every man lave him taken to Boston, where an be he very thin or be he very stout. If you are out of the ordinary, one way or operation will be performed. Regal at Frauley Bros. The St, Teorge Clothiers & Turnishers The annual chorus of the frogs began last week. It lasted but one evening and was not general, in fact they were A beautiful memorial window, donated heard only on the Upper Mills road. by Mrs. Parker was recently pat in St. An observant citizen, who keeps his eve Marks church. A pulpit given by Mrs. on the pond, opposite Drageorgian Hall, Fletcher in memory of her father and says frogs, living there, are equipped mother, Mr. and Mrs. James Watson, is with horns, they push the frost out expected soon. sooner than their brothers of other parts of the town and are better singers. An attractive pamphlet with the title "Camp Utopia," A Summer Athletic Several fish-flaking machines have Camp for Boys, on the cover page, has

Seasonable Goods and Prices

For Motor Boats

Paints, Waste,

been received by Eastport factory owners been issued by J. B. Brine, 98 West 183 this spring, and it looks as if the old- D. Street, New York. The little book time hand method was to be done away sets forth in a few well chosen words the with, the recent improvements over the old machines said to have perfected them summer outing. The first page bears a to an extent that will make them satisfactory workers and great labor savers; landed by Gideon Milne one evening last and it is said that all the city factories Spring. Mr. J. B. Brine of A. G. are to be equipped with them the present Spalding & Bros. is Director, and is as-

The showers of Friday evening last did Ben. S. Wallis, Yale University.

gian Hall good wishes and kind feelings Paul Tracy Brine, New York were the sponsors for a shower of useful, Val Flood, Trainer, Princeton " friends poured on Miss Florence McGee, E. F. Ver Wiebe, Harvard " ornamental and dainty gifts which Eddy Hart, not all fall on the earth and run off to Harry E. Mowen, New York University. join the "flowing river." In Drageor- Robert J. Bach, Marquette University.

whose marriage takes place today. The occasion was made a merry one. Danc- of the Camp is to familiarize boys with ing was indulged in till a late hour and a camping out methods and to give them lunch of coffee, cake and sandwiches that healthy out-of-door life which em-

F.om indications at the present time, of a Councillor at all times. They will the sardine canning season in this sec- enjoy all the pleasures of outdoor life, tion for 1909, ought to be one of except he camp will be well supplied with tional sucess, provided fish of suitable boats and the boys taught how to handle quality and quantity can be obtained, them. The hours of the day will be

Last season's pack is about cleared up, spent in swimming, fishing, hunting, very few of the packers now having any playing base-ball, tennis and golf. of the 1908 pack on hand, and the Special lectures will be given in the market is more promising than it has evenings and musical entertainments been for some time. Former out-of-town around the camp fire will make it pleas employes are beginning to come back to ant for the boys. Trips over the country the city, from all points, many moving will be taken every week. Instruction their families here and putting up with are given what each boy should bring. all sorts of inconveniences from the Tutoring will be individual work, so that great scarcity of houses. But the little each boy may receive instruction in any spurt of fish just now on is not likely to branch desired. A large number of boys be long lived, and some long waits are have already been booked for the outing probably in store for those who come to The camp opens June 25th and the earl .-- Eastport Sentinel. season lasts until September 8.

sisted by the following college men:

phasizes manhood and contributes to their individual sense of responsibility.

The boys will be under the supervision season .--- Eastport Sentinel.

Gasoline,

Dry Batteries,

Marine Motor Oil.

For Fishing

Lines, Hooks,

Rods, Bobbers. NEW SEEDS FOR FIELD AND GARDEN

ASHIONABLE

Timothy and Clover,

Ontario White Oats, Peas, Beans,

Beets, Carrots,

Yellow and White Turnip, Vetches, Corn,

Pumpkin,

Mangel Wurzel On all above goods our prices are right

John Dewar & Sons, Limited

April 28th, 1909