MEDISON CAND BAT 1.5

TOTAL CAND BAT 1.

January 10

a. This matter which this page conts in the page control of the page. The convertions sources; and the that, to any intelligent farmer or how contents of this single page, from week to fing the year, will be worth several time egription price of the paper.

WHEN WE CLOSE OUR EN

BY WILLIAM B. KING.

There is a stream, we call it Death With waters troubled and deep, Its icy waves dash on the shore, Where we part to more, or weep. Some day we will cross this river-Will cross thro' breakers and for And gently sink beneath the tide, As we journey to the great untain in old age as we near the brink. With our bodies shattered and I we faintly hear the surging wave

We faintly hear the surging wand feel that our years are s and feel that our years are spen And all but hear the Master say, with words to encourage and el "Have faith in me, my tired chill 'Fis nothing toon hast to fear!' And the' the thought of death is a And we shrink on our coiuch of; The path is sure, the end a near, And there is a neaven to gain.

THE HOME

HEALTH PARAGRAPHS

holds that insomnia is not atter such disastrous consequences: monly supposed. It is not as as the solicitude of the san suggests that the besins of lite who are the most frequent via dure the trick of the heart, we a dure a fraction of a second beat, and so manages to get rest in twenty-four. Some cases of insomnia, sleep it different brain centres going curn.

A GOOD BRD.—The main pd days is the covering. Dr. R.
in the Healthy Home says:
strong temptation to use a q ton comfortable, costing a preference to a pair of blanke ive times as much, yet the are far cleaner, sweeter, warn to add that the good housew to it that bedding and clot daily airing sufficient to abolt the stale unpleasant odor with around a bed and indicates to fan indefinite amount effluvis. Clean sheets and work wonders with beds. compelled to use a modern for be sure it has sample space of thon, and that it is never pu morning until sun and air h their miracle of cleansing.

Exercise For Wark He popular impression is that if be not strong it should not work which involves strength casee she truth is exactly til f a child's sense of logic is dhave the oxidi study mathe of these subjects which requiability, because we reason the of these subjects which requiability, because we reason
to f these subjects with requiability, because we reason
to
the child those faculties with the same thing obtains in practice.

The commence of restaulty and intelligency; this good the strong only by those exercall for a strong heart. The the commenced gradualty an intelligency; the commenced restaulty an
intelligency; the commenced restaulty an
intelligency; the commenced restaulty an intelligency is a short of the shade and a strong heart. The or health, should demand mental elements, namely.

The property of the strong heart of the shade and
mental elements, namely.

The property of the strong have a strong
mental elements, namely.

The property of the strong have a strong
mental elements, namely.

The property of the strong have a property of the strong have property of

RYE CAKE.—One pint of ry cup of sweet milk and two e melted butter and one and spoonfuls of baking powder salt.

FILLING FOR LEMON PIE-thick white rind off and the a lemon and chop fine. Gro One apple chopped fine, on oup of sugar, butter the size one half oup of water and or ful of cornstarch. This is a good recipe. good recipe.

PRESERVING FISH.—"Do Inquires a correspondent of Animals, the past little Animals,

ish by seven.
I the head.
PUDDING.— One cup, one of chopped suet, and a quarter of floutespoonful of sods, one of the september of the septemb three and a quarter of not one teaspoonful of sods, comon, haif a teaspoonful of pint of figs. Mix together sues, spice and figs out fit he sods with a tablespowater, and mix with the me other ingredients. Blight and stir into the me of the mixed such that the flour, and beat thoroug two small or one large moid or molds, and steam Serve with fine sance. Pound clarks, of the sance of the sance

Minard's Liniment for sal