

NEWSPAPERS IN ITALY CARRY ON VIGOROUS CAMPAIGN IN FAVOR OF INTERVENTION

ITALY ABOUT TO SIGN AN AGREEMENT TO INTERVENE ON SIDE OF THE ALLIES?

Press Working Hard for Intervention — Report From Petrograd Warns Italy She Must Soon Join or Lose Her Great Opportunity.

Rome, via Paris, April 26.—An energetic campaign is being conducted in the Italian press on behalf of the allies. Every day there appear telegrams from Petrograd warning Italy that if she does not soon intervene she will lose everything. It is said that the allies have decided to give nothing, in case they are victorious, to a neutral power which, in the words of Jules Cambon, the French diplomat, "rushes to support the victor."

The newspapers also publish long re-productions from the French papers, stating that Italy's participation in the war is imminent. Despatches from London say the Italian Ambassador there, Marquis Imperiali, is about to sign with Sir Edward Grey, the British Foreign Minister, an agreement containing clauses which provide that Italy shall side with the allies.

Although despatches from Berlin and Vienna on this subject are more guarded, on account of censorship of the press of those cities, efforts are being made to offset this campaign. Representatives here of the Berlin and Vienna newspapers are most active, and seek to convey the impression that every necessary measure will be taken to prevent Italy from abandoning her neutrality. It is affirmed that in the end Austria will be convinced of the necessity of making suitable territorial concessions, even if Germany is compelled to cede Bavaria or Silesia.

Persons close to Premier Salandra are of the opinion that in spite of the arguments in favor of proroguing parliament, he intends the Chamber of Deputies to meet May 12, as has been arranged. Otherwise the impression is given that the government wishes to rule without control of the representatives of the country, which is far from the intention of the cabinet.

CANADIANS SPOILED THE GERMAN PLAN IN FLANDERS

London, April 27 (3.13 a.m.)—To the Canadians belongs the honor of spoiling the German plan in Flanders, according to a despatch to the Daily Mail from its correspondent in Northern France. They were supported in turn by a French force, by Zouaves, by Belgians and by English regiments. The guns they lost temporarily were not behind their line but on the left side.

"The flood of German advance," says the correspondent, "cloaked under smoke and sulphurous gases, centered around these guns and passed the bulk of the Canadian forces, which maintained their calmness although their position became a promontory in the allied line."

"At times they had a double front, some trenches facing northeast and others southwest. They adapted their trenches to meet the new demands and transformed the back into the front. In any manoeuvre they would been adjudged annihilated but they held on and made good. They tied their hands over their noses to protect themselves from the gas fumes.

"It was only the Canadians' wonderful stand on the promontory, maintained many hours and varied by bayonet charges, that checked the Germans and enabled the Canadians to retire in good order and reform the general line."

London, April 27.—Joseph Patrick Nannetti, member of the House of Commons for the College Green division of Dublin, died last night. He was born in Dublin in 1851.

FRENCH GUNS ABANDONED IN 'NO MAN'S LAND'

Not Captured by the Enemy, as German Reports Say.

London, April 27, 2.39 a. m.—A correspondent of the Daily Mail in Northern France says:

Germans claim to have captured north of Ypres are not in German hands, although the French were forced to abandon them. The guns were abandoned in the march land, with their wheels half covered with water. At present they are in 'no man's land' between the rival forces. The French keep up a steady hail of artillery fire around the guns to prevent the Germans from getting near them."

DENY STORIES PUBLISHED BY GERMAN PRESS

Paris, April 26.—"The German press, basing its claim on so-called losses of the French army," says a semi-official communication issued tonight, "asserts that during the winter 36,000 Frenchmen, which is the strength of an army corps, were put out of action in a single sector of the Argonne. It was stated also that a second French army corps, which defended this part of the front, had disappeared, after being almost entirely annihilated."

"It is true that this second army corps at the end of the winter was withdrawn from the Argonne, but the Germans faced it in Champagne, and to this corps is due a large part of the credit for the French success on the Perthes-Beauneur front."

"Britain is Proud of Her Canadian Brothers"

Hon. Lewis Harcourt Cables Sir Robert Borden —Canadians in Reserve Yesterday—More Casualties Among Soldiers From Dominion.

Ottawa, April 26.—The Canadian Division was in reserve today, according to a despatch received by the Minister of Militia from Colonel J. J. Carrick, M. P., of General Alderson's staff. Col. Carrick wired: "Canadians covered themselves with glory. Their heroism most highly appreciated at headquarters. In reserve today."

The list of casualties, which continues to come from the front, gives additional evidence of the fierce character of the fighting north of Ypres. That the Fifteenth Battalion was also in action is evidenced by the names of several officers of this corps which came through tonight.

Messages of a congratulatory nature continue to pour into the government and a wave of patriotism is evidently sweeping the country. Sir George Perley, acting High Commissioner for Canada in London, cabled:

"All London is praising the conspicuous gallantry of the troops."

Hon. Lewis Harcourt, Secretary of State for the Colonies, says:

"Britain is proud of her Canadian brothers."

The Prime Minister answered:

"I am most grateful for your message, which will be deeply appreciated by the people of the Dominion."

General James Drain, of Washington, D. C., wired the Minister of Militia:

"I sincerely regret the terrible losses, but glory in the magnificent showing of the Canadians."

Major Scobell, in command of the Frontier Guard of Niagara Falls, wired:

"Am ready to go to the front to fill the gaps."

Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper, Bart. of Vancouver, B. C., answering a message of sympathy in the death of his son-in-law and the wounding of his son, says:

"If death had to call Merritt (his son-in-law), he would have chosen it in defence of his country, Canada. In its sorrow, is consoled by the bravery of her soldiers. Reggie (son) cables from Boulogne 'slightly wounded.'"

HAD INDIGESTION FOR OVER 10 YEARS.

ALMOST DESPAIRED OF EVEN GETTING WELL.

"Indigestion is one of the worst forms of stomach trouble. The stomach becomes upset and you have a raw, debilitated feeling in it. After a meal you feel that you must get rid of that nasty, bilious, burning sensation. It is not necessary for you to be troubled with indigestion if you will only try that old and well-known remedy, Burdock Blood Bitters, which is a combination of nature's best known roots, herbs and barks for the cure of all stomach and blood troubles."

Mrs. Mary MacKay, Hunter's Mountain, N.S., writes: "I was troubled with indigestion for more than ten years. I tried several doctors' medicines claiming the power to cure, but all without success. Having heard of the many cures effected by Burdock Blood Bitters, I decided to give it a trial. After taking two bottles I was completely cured. My appetite which was very poor is now good, and I can eat most everything without any disagreeable feelings."

I can strongly recommend B.B.B. to anyone suffering from indigestion."

B.B.B. is manufactured only by The S. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

THE WILHELM INTERNS UNTIL AFTER THE WAR

Captain Says He Intended to Make Dash for Open Sea but 60 of Crew Ill with Beri-beri.

Newport News, Va., April 26.—The German auxiliary cruiser Kron Prinz Wilhelm, which put into Hampton Roads on April 11, after a notable commerce destroying cruise, will be interned for the war at the Norfolk navy yard near her sister raider, the Prinz Eitel Friedrich.

Lt. Capt. Thierfelder of the Wilhelm notified Collector Hamilton late today of his intention to intern in this laconic message: "Herewith I have to officially inform you that I intern."

No explanation accompanied the communication, but later the German commander said he had intended to attempt a dash past the Allied warships off the Virginia Capes, but that the illness of more than sixty of his sailors with Beri-beri would make that impossible before expiration of the time that the United States government granted to make his cruiser seaworthy. It was understood the limit on that time was midnight of April 20.

The commander told Collector Hamilton that his surgeons had informed him today there was no prospect for the early recovery of the sailors, and added that his ship could not be properly manned with so many of her crew incapacitated.

The United States government will maintain a naval and military patrol around the Wilhelm until she is taken to Norfolk.

It was said tonight the cruiser probably would not be moved before Wednesday.

Commander Thierfelder's notice to Collector Hamilton came unexpectedly. Early in the day the Wilhelm was towed to a pier and began loading several thousand tons of coal. That, together with reports that she had been granted sufficient provisions to carry her to the nearest German port, caused the belief in some quarters that the cruiser was preparing to sail. Coaling was continued after the commander's notice had been given. The bunkers will not be filled before late tomorrow.

The Wilhelm was formerly a North German Lloyd passenger liner, plying between New York and Bremen.

Several times during her raiding career she was reported destroyed, but she eluded many hostile warships, and destroyed thirteen merchant vessels of the Allies, and one neutral vessel, a Norwegian bark. The commander claimed the bark carried contraband.
