Why You Are Paying High Prices for Meat

The comment of the American press on U.S. Federal Trade Commission's report on the packing industry would tend to show that the people do not seem to be worrying over the precise percentage of profits made by Mr. Armour and Mr. Swift and Mr. Wilson and the rest, nor are they so deeply concerned lest these gentlemen branch out too widely into the grocery business. What they do ask is: are the packers profiteering; are they keeping up the price of meat and other products they handle; are they one of the props of the High Cost of Living? While the packers have their defenders among the newspapers, there is a widespread belief that the "Big Five" can not be held guiltless of all blame for the continuance of high food prices, as is shown in the leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST for August 2nd.

Other features of more than ordinary interest in this number of "The Digest" are:

Peace Can Only Come When Everybody Goes to Work Again

and when the "healing processes of trade" have a chance to make themselves felt. So we hear on every hand. Here's a common-sense prediction of the future of America and the rest of the world, and a discussion of the great volume of reconstruction business which Europe is expected to send here.

Austria Paying the Fiddler

She writhes and kicks against the terrible punishment but will submit. While the American dollar quoted before the war at five crowns, is now worth thirty-two, "the future is not so black, even for Austria." A map accompanying this article shows proud Austria before the war and the shred of territory that now remains.

Japan Rattles the Saber in Korea

Japanese journals are publishing articles in which the failure of that country's authorities to administer affairs in Korea is pointed out in harsh terms. Korea through the Korean National Association appeals to the world for freedom and makes charges against Japan that are startling, to say the least. Be sure to read this "close-up" account, which includes translations from the Japanese press.

A Race Riot At President Wilson's Door.

strikes some observers as a touch of irony, inasmuch as he had just returned from looking after the needs of suppressed nationalities and subject races in Europe. In this article the opinions of various editors, including representatives of the colored race, are given as to the causes and tendencies of the race riots in Washington.

Does Germany Consider the Treaty A "Scrap of Paper?"

The Brussels Nation remarks cynically that the Germans have signed the Treaty, but they "will never execute it" as they consider it a "piece of dupe." Read this series of translations from the German, Austrian, and Italian press, and you will get an answer to a question that affects the future safety of the world.

"Dry" America As An Example to England

The Manchester Guardian says American prohibition is "the biggest blow at the use of alcohol that has been struck since Mohammed banned liquor among his followers," but other English papers are not so sure. It may be all right for America, but for England—perish the thought!

The Uproar Over Shantung

"The blackest page in all our history," cries Senator Hiram Johnson, of California, "was written when our name was signed to the Treaty delivering Shantung to Japan." Many newspapers agree and run such headlines as "Japan the Possessor of Stolen Goods," "Far Eastern Alsace-Lorraine." Others defend the Shantung Treaty. This article will give you the basic facts of the dispute and the leading opinions of both sides.

And in Addition to These Features —The Vital News of Religion—Science and Invention—Literature—Poetry to say nothing of the feast of illustrations, including striking cartoons from the press of many lands—makes THE DIGEST indeed the one necessary magazine for intelligent men and women.

White Trucks

Constant Service Pays Big Dividends

QUANTITY and Quality of truck service cannot be purchased at a low price. You have the choice of buying trucks built to sell at a price—or buying trucks built to defy wear and tear, which are necessarily higher in cost.

Where White Trucks are used in mixed fleets you will find them selected for the longest hauls, the heaviest loads and the roughest routes.

Think it over, and you will decide that you prefer to pay for quantity and quality of service that you can be absolutely sure of.

Do not handicap yourself by trying to use trucks that will not stand the strain of constant service. Do not experiment by tinkering with inferior hauling machinery.

There is a Size and Type of White Truck To Meet Every Transportation Requirement
