Those sententious proverbs, or o'd saws. which are used as prefixes to all of the Hood Barsavarilla advertising in thousands of papers throughout the country, are evidence of * new and original style of display adver-tising, both pleasing and elective. The Hool firm is to be congratulated on so cleverly adapting such wisdom as has filter-ed down through centuries. Another charm-ing thing about this Hood advertising is the unique type they are naing. The new boiler at the pumping sta-tion is now being used and is found to work equally well and satisfactorily as the other one.
