"BOTH SEATS THIS TIME;" LIBERAL WORKERS SURE OF GLORIOUS VICTORY

Pugsley and Lowell, and Greater St. John is Popular Motto With All Classes
City Ward Rooms Crowded Each Night With Enthusiastic Workers for Minister of Public Works and His Colleague—Look Upon the Issue as a Business Proposition, and Have Interests of St. John at Heart.

With the ardors work of the campaign in hand, the Liberal ward workers feel satisfied with the prospects for the return of both candidates with substantial majorities, and very encouraging reports were received last evening from the different headquarters. The canvass of the electors as reported by the workers shows many Liberal gains and none of the converts shows any disposition to split the ticket. It is realized that the assistance of an energetic colleague will be of great value to the minister of public works in carrying out his plans for the development of the port, and the motto "Pugsley and Lowell and a Greater St. John" is a popular one with all classes.

The ward rooms last evening were filled with earnest men who are going into the fight as a business proposition with their aim to forward the building of a great harbor here and to provide more trade by the endorsement of reciprocity. A favorite topic at the rooms last evening was the unprecedented success of the minister's provincial tour.

Wherever Dr. Pugsley went he was received with the greatest of enthusiasm and he was greatly pleased with the out-between Fairfield and the foot of Loch Lomond, through Willow Grove, for the last four seasons this road has been under the supervision of John A. Robinson, a special commissioner appointed by the Hazen government, and furnished with considerable money every year to spend on some eight or nine miles of road, which was in fairly good condition when he was in charge. His successor, Mr. Hazen, has been very much disappointed in the road, for, for them, they were traveling in a comfortable automobile. If their conviction had been the kind used by the farmers, their speeches would probably have been even worse than they were.

Walter F. Brooks, of Gagetown, and Miss Julia McKee, of Petersville, were united in marriage by Rev. D. H. Nobles Wednesday at the home of George McKenna, 80 Kennedy street. Intimate friends present, and after the ceremony at dawn to a dainty wedding luncheon. On Saturday the happy pair will leave for Gagetown where they will reside.

PUGSLEY AND LOWELL, OUR NEXT MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT, NOMINATED

Liberal Candidates Endorsed by Hundreds of the Most Prominent Electors in City and County of St. John—Strong Array of Names for Both Minister of Public Works and James Lowell, His Colleague.

Friday, Sept. 15.
Nomination day all over Canada found the Liberal party presenting unbroken ranks and smiling faces to the foe. From every province come reports of satisfactory nomination day proceedings, and confident assurances that Sir Wilfrid's administration is going to have the biggest majority in its history.

In New Brunswick the proceedings of the hustings in every shire town, some account of which will be found in our despatches, gave intense satisfaction to the government's candidates and supporters. A summary of the situation this morning is that if Dr. Atherton develops the strength with which he is now credited in York, the Tories cannot count upon a single seat in New Brunswick.

In St. John, where the formal nomination day speeches were called off by agreement, the nomination proceedings passed off quietly and without noteworthy incident, except that when the nomination papers of Hon. William Pugsley and his colleague Mr. Lowell are examined, it will be found that both papers are signed not only by a very great number of the leading men of the city and county, but also that many Conservatives are supporting the Liberal ticket, either because of reciprocity, or because of the solid services which they know the Minister of Public Works and Mr. Lowell can render the St. John constituencies. Hundreds of voters who are not partisans are going to vote for St. John—which means that they will vote the straight Liberal ticket.

The rally last night under the auspices of the Young Liberals was one of the most inspiring campaign meetings yet held. The Minister of Public Works in straight-forward fashion disposed of some of the latest Conservative canvasses, particularly their falsehoods in regard to Courtney Bay and other developments here. He showed, by telegrams from Mr. Wainwright of the Grand Trunk Pacific, that the new transcontinental has acquired terminal sites on Courtney Bay, and he demonstrated also that the great work of development there, involving the expenditure of many millions, is going forward. His very convincing discussion of reciprocity drove a coach and four through the latest contentions of Messrs. Powell and Daniel, the unhappy Conservative candidates.

Mr. Lowell, who received a rousing welcome, spoke briefly but with great acceptance, and both he and the Minister of Public Works were cheered most warmly. The Liberal campaign in St. John has the right swing. The Liberal majorities will be big.

Nomination day here passed off very quietly. The proceedings of filing papers and making the deposits necessary were conducted in the court house with a O'Rourke as returning officer, and his son, Roland, acting as clerk. The following names of representative citizens appeared on both Hon. Mr. Pugsley and Mr. Lowell's nomination papers: C. B. Allan, W. A. Lockhart, Wm. H. Bernaly, Thomas Mackay, Jas. G. Moody, Herbert J. Fleming, John Keeble, John V. M. Robinson, John E. Moore, Arthur W. Adams, Beverly R. Macaulay, Orlando H. Warwick, Wm. M. Jarvis, Wm. J. Mahoney, Frederick G. Knowlton, Wm. E. Foster, James S. Greig, Andrew F. McAvaney and Wm. E. Scully.

There were also the following names attached to Mr. Pugsley's nomination papers: Matthew B. Edwards, Robert Thomson, Wm. G. Seville, James Pender, D. J. Purdy, W. B. Wallace, Joseph Allison, R. Day, Hayes, H. B. Schofield, George E. Taylor, Chas. McRoby, E. F. Quigley, John V. Elias, T. H. Estabrook, Edward Lantlam, Alex. Wilson, John P. Macintyre, Jas. V. Russell, T. Collins, J. A. Likely, T. H. Bullock and many hundreds of others.

The following names were also attached to Mr. Lowell's papers: George E. Day, Charles McDonald, R. F. Quigley, A. F. Johnson, John V. Elias, Robert Connely, Theodore Estabrook, Edward Lantlam, Alex. Wilson, John P. Macintyre, Jas. V. Russell, C. P. Baker, A. L. Bentley, Timothy Collins, Joseph A. Likely, Thos. H. Billock, James McMurray with hundreds of others.

The names affixed to the papers of Dr. Daniel were practically the same attached to those of Mr. Powell, with the exception of the addition of some from the county. Among those whose names were attached to the papers were J. D. Hazen, Robert Maxwell, W. H. Thorne, M. E. Angar, J. B. B. Baxter, Wm. Golding, W. F. Hasbaway, J. E. Wilson, W. A. Ewing, Florence McCarthy, J. P. Mosher and M. G. Teed.

Sussex, Sept. 14.—There was a great crowd here from all parts of Kings and Albert for nomination proceedings, which commenced at noon. Fine weather enabled hundreds to come from distant points and the attendance equaled all records for nomination crowds in this constituency. At noon Sheriff Freze opened nomination proceedings and Dr. D. H. McAllister, whose agent is George H. White, was nominated by the Liberals. George W. Fowler, E. C. agent J. Arthur Feeze, was nominated by the Conservatives.

Dalhousie, Sept. 14.—Nomination proceedings passed off quietly here today. There was the largest attendance of electors on record. The meeting had to be held out doors and the speakers addressed the crowd from the church house steps. Daniel McDonald presided.

James Reid was nominated as the Liberal candidate, and W. S. Montgomery, Conservative.

Richibucto, Sept. 14.—(Special)—Return

ing Officer Goggin opened his court in a small office down town, having been refused the use of the court house by the Conservative sheriff.

August T. Leger, Liberal, and Ferdinand J. Robitoux, Conservative, were nominated. After the nomination there was some controversy as to where the candidates should address the electors. Mr. Robitoux and the Conservative electors in front of the republishing office, while the Liberal electors and their candidates wished to refer to the Temperance hall, where they invited the opposition speakers. The nomination proceedings refused to leave their opening in the hall, Mr. Robitoux, Dr. Bourque and Calhoun spoke to the remaining electors—those who had not left for the Temperance hall.

Grand Falls, N. B., Sept. 14.—(Special)—Pius Michaud, Liberal, and Maxime D. Cormier, Conservative, were nominated here today as candidates for the electoral district of Victoria-Madawaska.

A public meeting was held in the open air which was addressed by the candidates and their chief supporters. James Burgess, was appointed chairman of the meeting. Mr. Michaud was cheered throughout his rattling speech upholding reciprocity.

Fredericton, N. B., Sept. 14.—(Special)—Dr. Atherton was nominated here today for the interests of reciprocity in the county of York and was appointed as his opponent. The nomination proceedings were very quiet but in the afternoon both candidates and others addressed meetings. The anti-reciprocity meeting was held in the opera house, where the candidates and others addressed a small audience. Reciprocity party held a meeting in its committee rooms, which was largely attended, practically all of the people in attendance. Mr. Atherton was displayed and the feeling that York would be redeemed on Sept. 21 was in the air.

St. Andrews, N. B., Sept. 14.—Nomination day proceedings passed off very quietly here today, there being less than the usual number of people in attendance. St. George sent a large delegation of two bands of music. The islands also sent quite a large number, but the attendance from the upper counties was small, the exhibition and horse races in St. Stephen claiming their attention.
