

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California...

The properties of Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters are a aperient, Diaphoretic, Cathartic, Nutritive, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter Irritant, Sanguiferous, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

The Best Selling Book of the Year. Wild Life IN THE FAR WEST PERSONAL ADVENTURES OF A Border Mountain Man!

BY CAPTAIN JAMES HOBBS OF CALIFORNIA. In a beautiful octavo volume of nearly 500 pages, beautifully illustrated with full page Original Engravings, and a...

CHROMO-LIKENESS OF THE AUTHOR AS A COMANCHE! Extra English Cloth, Gilt Design on Back and title in gold...

Local Agents Wanted: To whom liberal commissions will be paid. FOR TERMS, canvassing books, etc., address...

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral: For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs. Among the great discoveries of modern science...

To Connoisseurs: THE Subscriber would invite the attention of the lovers of the medicinal wine to the carefully selected and varied stock of...

Sheriff's Sale!

Will be sold by Public Auction, at Chubb's Corner, from 10 o'clock to 12 o'clock, on the 26th day of April, A. D. 1874, between the hours of twelve o'clock noon and 2 o'clock, P. M....

1874.

The Weekly Tribune! ONLY ONE DOLLAR! The Cheapest and the Best FAMILY NEWSPAPER!

Now is the Time to Subscribe. NO ADVANCE. WILL BE MADE IN THE Subscription Price ONE DOLLAR!! ONE DOLLAR!!! Public Notice.

APPLICATION will be made to the Clerk of the Court of the County of San Francisco, California, at the Court House, in the City of San Francisco, on the 26th day of April, A. D. 1874...

A. CHAPMAN & CO., Rockland, Dorchester, N. B., SHIP-BUILDERS, IMPORTERS AND WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN...

ALBION LIMENT. Dr. LEARY, Dear Sir:—I have been afflicted with a severe case of rheumatism, which has been cured by your medicine...

SPENCER'S Non-Freezing Violet Ink. SPENCER'S CALCULIFUGE. MARGESON'S CALCULIFUGE. PURELY VEGETABLE. Price $1.00 per bottle.

COOPER BROS., MANUFACTURERS OF VARIOUS KINDS OF PATENT POWER LOOMS, MACHINES TO ROLL CLOTH DO.

COOPER BROS., BETHESDA STREET FOUNDRY, BURLINGTON, VERMONT.

COOPER BROS., PATENT POWER LOOMS, MACHINES TO ROLL CLOTH DO.

Mr. Alex. Brown, of Boletown, had his thigh broken while working in the woods. R. O. Stockton, Esq., is a candidate for the Councilship of the County of Ward. Mr. Stockton was elected by a large number of the electors to allow himself to be put in nomination.

Trout fishing through the ice on the lakes is now indulged in by the city sportsmen. Friday's Royal Gazette contains notices regarding forty-four insolvents. John McNeely was arrested in Carlton Friday afternoon on a battery warrant.

Losses in January.—The following is a list of the maritime disasters reported during the month of January, 1874. 1 steam sailing vessel totally lost, 168 tons—81 English, 25 American, 12 German, 10 French, 7 Dutch, 5 Greek, 7 Italian, 1 Russian, 2 Turkish, 1 Austrian, 1 Swedish, 1 Turkish, and 9 of which nationality is unknown.

Mr. G. U. Hays lectures in Carlton Friday evening to a large audience, on "Oliver Goldsmith." A vote of thanks was unanimously passed to him. Ann Eliza Young is expected to lecture in the Academy of Music in about three weeks. She is the nineteenth wife of Brigham Young.

A special session of the peace is to meet on St. Patrick's Day, in Hampton, to decide whether license to sell liquor will be granted for Kings County during the coming year. Current Court. March 12. Mr. Thomson closed a third trial for Robert Smith, his Honor then having been in Gibraltar. The next case on the docket is Burpee vs. Bick, and it will probably come on immediately after this case.

In the case of Whittaker vs. Welch the jury returned a verdict of $444.13 for the plaintiff. The case will be argued the next case taken up was J. R. Parker vs. Charles McLachlan, in which the case went to the jury at 11 o'clock this forenoon, but the absence of the juror, Mr. J. R. Parker, prevented the case from being tried. The Grand Trunk Railway and Thorne vs. Bostwick were withdrawn.

Novlin vs. O'Regan came up for trial. Mr. Pughley, Esq., appearing for the plaintiff, and Charles Duff, counsel, and R. J. Ritchie, Esq., attorney for defendant. It is an action for the recovery of $200, and the defendant there was any consideration for the note. The case of Novlin vs. O'Regan occupied the afternoon. The defendant brought testimony to show that there was no consideration for the note, and the case was given to C. L. Richards for a quantity of black lead. The lead was all given up, except this one, which had passed into the hands of the plaintiff, and the only witness for the plaintiff, who wished to bring evidence to prove that Novlin held the note, was also called, but certain statements of the defendant. This point was being argued when the Court adjourned.

In the case of Parker vs. McLachlan & Co. the jury, after an absence of seven hours, came into Court and said they could not agree upon a verdict. Three of the jury were giving $245, and four were giving $200. The only witness for the plaintiff, who wished to bring evidence to prove that Novlin held the note, was also called, but certain statements of the defendant. This point was being argued when the Court adjourned.

The case of Novlin vs. O'Regan occupied the afternoon. The defendant brought testimony to show that there was no consideration for the note, and the case was given to C. L. Richards for a quantity of black lead. The lead was all given up, except this one, which had passed into the hands of the plaintiff, and the only witness for the plaintiff, who wished to bring evidence to prove that Novlin held the note, was also called, but certain statements of the defendant. This point was being argued when the Court adjourned.

On Thursday the Rev. Henry Pope, Jr., pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist Episcopal Church of this city, received a unanimous call from the Quarterly Board to continue the pastor of that Church for another year. At the same time the Circuit Steward, Alexander Lockhart Esq., presented the pastor with $281, a gift of the congregation. Rev. Mr. Pope said he would have to ask for a little more time to make a suitable response, so much kindness and love, offered so spontaneously, quite surprised and overcame him. The meeting also passed a vote to increase the salary of the next year some $200 in addition to last year's amount.

The Quarterly Board and Methodist Missions Church met on Thursday, and very heartily and unanimously accepted the measure of the proposed union of the conference of the Eastern North America with the Canadian Conference. The title of the united conference will probably be the United Wesleyan Church of Canada. The Wesleyan Conference will assemble every four years, and be composed of an equal number of ministers and laymen. The annual conferences will be composed of ministers and be known as the Toronto Conference, London Conference, Montreal Conference, Nova Scotia Conference, and Brunswick and Prince Edward Islands Conference, Newfoundland Conference (comprising Newfoundland, Labrador and the islands contiguous.) Transfers of ministers from one conference to another will be permitted. The general conference will have domestic and foreign missions at Red River, Saskatchewan, and Japan. The General Conference will appoint the editor or editors and book steward or stewards for carrying on the publishing and book work of the United Church. A large number of circuits in Ontario have already passed a vote in favor of the scheme of a united church in confederation and in full co-operation.

Shipping Notes. New Vessels.—O. Booth, house, Esq., has made a contract with the Liverpool to build a ship of a thousand tons at $10 per ton. She is to be launched this season. Mr. B. is commencing operations with his usual energy. We wish him every success.—Skeletic Border.

Returned home.—Captain John B. Bolog, and John McDaniel, mate of the brigantine E. H. Oakes, arrived at Halifax on the 9th inst. in the steamer Canadian. Mr. McDaniel was not so badly injured as reported, it having been one of the crew who had his thigh broken. While on the banks of New Brunswick, on Christmas day last, he was washed overboard with the deckload, but was swept up by the crew, and the vessel was a life was saved almost in spite of the rough weather, and was washed away by a terrific sea.

Losses in January.—The following is a list of the maritime disasters reported during the month of January, 1874. 1 steam sailing vessel totally lost, 168 tons—81 English, 25 American, 12 German, 10 French, 7 Dutch, 5 Greek, 7 Italian, 1 Russian, 2 Turkish, 1 Austrian, 1 Swedish, 1 Turkish, and 9 of which nationality is unknown.

The bark Truro, which arrived at Newry, Ireland, on the 25th ult. from this port, reports having experienced heavy weather during the passage, in which her crew were obliged to work for several days, and was towed round to New Point by a tug.

The bark Ella E. Doty, master, which sailed from this port on the 29th Jan with deck cargo, was wrecked on the 31st ult. at the Cape of Good Hope, and landed at London. The E. E. registered 281 tons, was built in Carlton in 1866, and was owned by E. Oakes & Co., and built by the same firm. The cargo consisted of flour, and was lost in the wreck. The vessel was wrecked on the 31st ult. at the Cape of Good Hope, and landed at London. The E. E. registered 281 tons, was built in Carlton in 1866, and was owned by E. Oakes & Co., and built by the same firm. The cargo consisted of flour, and was lost in the wreck.

The ship John Gardner, 1700 tons, master, which sailed from this port on the 29th ult. for Liverpool, was wrecked on the 31st ult. at the Cape of Good Hope, and landed at London. The ship was wrecked on the 31st ult. at the Cape of Good Hope, and landed at London. The ship was wrecked on the 31st ult. at the Cape of Good Hope, and landed at London.

The ship John Gardner, 1700 tons, master, which sailed from this port on the 29th ult. for Liverpool, was wrecked on the 31st ult. at the Cape of Good Hope, and landed at London. The ship was wrecked on the 31st ult. at the Cape of Good Hope, and landed at London. The ship was wrecked on the 31st ult. at the Cape of Good Hope, and landed at London.

The ship John Gardner, 1700 tons, master, which sailed from this port on the 29th ult. for Liverpool, was wrecked on the 31st ult. at the Cape of Good Hope, and landed at London. The ship was wrecked on the 31st ult. at the Cape of Good Hope, and landed at London. The ship was wrecked on the 31st ult. at the Cape of Good Hope, and landed at London.

The ship John Gardner, 1700 tons, master, which sailed from this port on the 29th ult. for Liverpool, was wrecked on the 31st ult. at the Cape of Good Hope, and landed at London. The ship was wrecked on the 31st ult. at the Cape of Good Hope, and landed at London. The ship was wrecked on the 31st ult. at the Cape of Good Hope, and landed at London.

The ship John Gardner, 1700 tons, master, which sailed from this port on the 29th ult. for Liverpool, was wrecked on the 31st ult. at the Cape of Good Hope, and landed at London. The ship was wrecked on the 31st ult. at the Cape of Good Hope, and landed at London. The ship was wrecked on the 31st ult. at the Cape of Good Hope, and landed at London.

CITY POLICE COURT.

March 10. Thomas McColgan and John Curran, drunk; fined $4 each. Garrett Housley, a youth of fifteen, was charged with being disorderly on King street and assaulting two women near the Bell Tower. He confessed and a fine of $2 was imposed.

March 11. Wm. Shea, aged 15, just out of the penitentiary after his second term, could not work to do, and had to seek a resting place for the night. He was sent away with a caution. James Todd had just arrived from Portland, Me., and had obtained no work. He was told he would be sent to the penitentiary if he appeared again. John McDonough, drunk and disorderly; fined $5.

John Williams, drunk and disorderly and breaking the windows of the police station, will require to raise $8 to satisfy the demands of Justice, or spend two months in the penitentiary. March 12. The writ of Justice commenced to run at a quarter past ten this morning, and the business was rushed through. Two persons took advantage of the confusion and broke into the house provided for the homeless and friendless.

Michael J. Shields, a strapping fellow, charged with assault on a woman, was committed to the penitentiary for two months. John Connel admitted drunkenness in the street, and was committed to the penitentiary for two months. John Connel admitted drunkenness in the street, and was committed to the penitentiary for two months.

John Connel admitted drunkenness in the street, and was committed to the penitentiary for two months. John Connel admitted drunkenness in the street, and was committed to the penitentiary for two months. John Connel admitted drunkenness in the street, and was committed to the penitentiary for two months.

John Connel admitted drunkenness in the street, and was committed to the penitentiary for two months. John Connel admitted drunkenness in the street, and was committed to the penitentiary for two months. John Connel admitted drunkenness in the street, and was committed to the penitentiary for two months.

John Connel admitted drunkenness in the street, and was committed to the penitentiary for two months. John Connel admitted drunkenness in the street, and was committed to the penitentiary for two months. John Connel admitted drunkenness in the street, and was committed to the penitentiary for two months.

John Connel admitted drunkenness in the street, and was committed to the penitentiary for two months. John Connel admitted drunkenness in the street, and was committed to the penitentiary for two months. John Connel admitted drunkenness in the street, and was committed to the penitentiary for two months.

John Connel admitted drunkenness in the street, and was committed to the penitentiary for two months. John Connel admitted drunkenness in the street, and was committed to the penitentiary for two months. John Connel admitted drunkenness in the street, and was committed to the penitentiary for two months.

John Connel admitted drunkenness in the street, and was committed to the penitentiary for two months. John Connel admitted drunkenness in the street, and was committed to the penitentiary for two months. John Connel admitted drunkenness in the street, and was committed to the penitentiary for two months.

John Connel admitted drunkenness in the street, and was committed to the penitentiary for two months. John Connel admitted drunkenness in the street, and was committed to the penitentiary for two months. John Connel admitted drunkenness in the street, and was committed to the penitentiary for two months.

Capt. Stickey's Sudden Death. The Truro San has the following account of the death of Capt. H. P. Stickey, whose remains were brought to St. John on Thursday afternoon: On Monday morning last, a man named P. Stickey was found dead in his bed, in the Prince of Wales Hotel, in his own room. He was formerly a sea-captain, and has been in Truro for the last fifteen months in the character of a book agent. He was a man of high standing in the London season, and his death was a great loss to the community.

Ungrateful Era.—Chichester Fortescue as a Man and Statesman.—A Queen of society, Countess Waldgrave.—A Theatrical Triumph.—Dramatic Prospects and Gossip. LONDON, Feb. 19, 1874.

By all odds the severest single blow which the Liberals received by the recent election was the effect of the Right Honorable Chichester Fortescue in the Irish borough of Louth. More able men will be missed from the Liberal ranks in the new House—Prof. Pavest, for instance, and young Anderson Herbert; but Mr. Fortescue has held two Cabinet offices under the Gladstone regime, is the peculiar representative of a certain class of social influence which has been very useful to the outgoing Ministry, and has, within a very agreeable personal capability, which have rendered him a valuable colleague. Mr. Fortescue was Irish Secretary, and was the chief agent in reorganizing the Irish Church and reforming the Irish land carried through Parli.

Mr. Fortescue was Irish Secretary, and was the chief agent in reorganizing the Irish Church and reforming the Irish land carried through Parli. Mr. Fortescue was Irish Secretary, and was the chief agent in reorganizing the Irish Church and reforming the Irish land carried through Parli.

Mr. Fortescue was Irish Secretary, and was the chief agent in reorganizing the Irish Church and reforming the Irish land carried through Parli. Mr. Fortescue was Irish Secretary, and was the chief agent in reorganizing the Irish Church and reforming the Irish land carried through Parli.

Mr. Fortescue was Irish Secretary, and was the chief agent in reorganizing the Irish Church and reforming the Irish land carried through Parli. Mr. Fortescue was Irish Secretary, and was the chief agent in reorganizing the Irish Church and reforming the Irish land carried through Parli.

Mr. Fortescue was Irish Secretary, and was the chief agent in reorganizing the Irish Church and reforming the Irish land carried through Parli. Mr. Fortescue was Irish Secretary, and was the chief agent in reorganizing the Irish Church and reforming the Irish land carried through Parli.

Mr. Fortescue was Irish Secretary, and was the chief agent in reorganizing the Irish Church and reforming the Irish land carried through Parli. Mr. Fortescue was Irish Secretary, and was the chief agent in reorganizing the Irish Church and reforming the Irish land carried through Parli.

Mr. Fortescue was Irish Secretary, and was the chief agent in reorganizing the Irish Church and reforming the Irish land carried through Parli. Mr. Fortescue was Irish Secretary, and was the chief agent in reorganizing the Irish Church and reforming the Irish land carried through Parli.

Mr. Fortescue was Irish Secretary, and was the chief agent in reorganizing the Irish Church and reforming the Irish land carried through Parli. Mr. Fortescue was Irish Secretary, and was the chief agent in reorganizing the Irish Church and reforming the Irish land carried through Parli.

Mr. Fortescue was Irish Secretary, and was the chief agent in reorganizing the Irish Church and reforming the Irish land carried through Parli. Mr. Fortescue was Irish Secretary, and was the chief agent in reorganizing the Irish Church and reforming the Irish land carried through Parli.

means of seeing London upper society. Her fortune is princely, and certainly in a princely manner she dispenses it. Strawberry Hill, which is hers, and its historic as the delightful seat on the Thames water, above Richmond, where she was born, is a princely seat, and she has inherited it from her father, who was a man of high standing in the London season, and his death was a great loss to the community.

By all odds the severest single blow which the Liberals received by the recent election was the effect of the Right Honorable Chichester Fortescue in the Irish borough of Louth. More able men will be missed from the Liberal ranks in the new House—Prof. Pavest, for instance, and young Anderson Herbert; but Mr. Fortescue has held two Cabinet offices under the Gladstone regime, is the peculiar representative of a certain class of social influence which has been very useful to the outgoing Ministry, and has, within a very agreeable personal capability, which have rendered him a valuable colleague.

By all odds the severest single blow which the Liberals received by the recent election was the effect of the Right Honorable Chichester Fortescue in the Irish borough of Louth. More able men will be missed from the Liberal ranks in the new House—Prof. Pavest, for instance, and young Anderson Herbert; but Mr. Fortescue has held two Cabinet offices under the Gladstone regime, is the peculiar representative of a certain class of social influence which has been very useful to the outgoing Ministry, and has, within a very agreeable personal capability, which have rendered him a valuable colleague.

By all odds the severest single blow which the Liberals received by the recent election was the effect of the Right Honorable Chichester Fortescue in the Irish borough of Louth. More able men will be missed from the Liberal ranks in the new House—Prof. Pavest, for instance, and young Anderson Herbert; but Mr. Fortescue has held two Cabinet offices under the Gladstone regime, is the peculiar representative of a certain class of social influence which has been very useful to the outgoing Ministry, and has, within a very agreeable personal capability, which have rendered him a valuable colleague.

By all odds the severest single blow which the Liberals received by the recent election was the effect of the Right Honorable Chichester Fortescue in the Irish borough of Louth. More able men will be missed from the Liberal ranks in the new House—Prof. Pavest, for instance, and young Anderson Herbert; but Mr. Fortescue has held two Cabinet offices under the Gladstone regime, is the peculiar representative of a certain class of social influence which has been very useful to the outgoing Ministry, and has, within a very agreeable personal capability, which have rendered him a valuable colleague.

By all odds the severest single blow which the Liberals received by the recent election was the effect of the Right Honorable Chichester Fortescue in the Irish borough of Louth. More able men will be missed from the Liberal ranks in the new House—Prof. Pavest, for instance, and young Anderson Herbert; but Mr. Fortescue has held two Cabinet offices under the Gladstone regime, is the peculiar representative of a certain class of social influence which has been very useful to the outgoing Ministry, and has, within a very agreeable personal capability, which have rendered him a valuable colleague.

By all odds the severest single blow which the Liberals received by the recent election was the effect of the Right Honorable Chichester Fortescue in the Irish borough of Louth. More able men will be missed from the Liberal ranks in the new House—Prof. Pavest, for instance, and young Anderson Herbert; but Mr. Fortescue has held two Cabinet offices under the Gladstone regime, is the peculiar representative of a certain class of social influence which has been very useful to the outgoing Ministry, and has, within a very agreeable personal capability, which have rendered him a valuable colleague.

By all odds the severest single blow which the Liberals received by the recent election was the effect of the Right Honorable Chichester Fortescue in the Irish borough of Louth. More able men will be missed from the Liberal ranks in the new House—Prof. Pavest, for instance, and young Anderson Herbert; but Mr. Fortescue has held two Cabinet offices under the Gladstone regime, is the peculiar representative of a certain class of social influence which has been very useful to the outgoing Ministry, and has, within a very agreeable personal capability, which have rendered him a valuable colleague.

By all odds the severest single blow which the Liberals received by the recent election was the effect of the Right Honorable Chichester Fortescue in the Irish borough of Louth. More able men will be missed from the Liberal ranks in the new House—Prof. Pavest, for instance, and young Anderson Herbert; but Mr. Fortescue has held two Cabinet offices under the Gladstone regime, is the peculiar representative of a certain class of social influence which has been very useful to the outgoing Ministry, and has, within a very agreeable personal capability, which have rendered him a valuable colleague.

By all odds the severest single blow which the Liberals received by the recent election was the effect of the Right Honorable Chichester Fortescue in the Irish borough of Louth. More able men will be missed from the Liberal ranks in the new House—Prof. Pavest, for instance, and young Anderson Herbert; but Mr. Fortescue has held two Cabinet offices under the Gladstone regime, is the peculiar representative of a certain class of social influence which has been very useful to the outgoing Ministry, and has, within a very agreeable personal capability, which have rendered him a valuable colleague.

By all odds the severest single blow which the Liberals received by the recent election was the effect of the Right Honorable Chichester Fortescue in the Irish borough of Louth. More able men will be missed from the Liberal ranks in the new House—Prof. Pavest, for instance, and young Anderson Herbert; but Mr. Fortescue has held two Cabinet offices under the Gladstone regime, is the peculiar representative of a certain class of social influence which has been very useful to the outgoing Ministry, and has, within a very agreeable personal capability, which have rendered him a valuable colleague.