WHOLESALE WAREHOUSE.

NOW OPENING PER THE STEAMER "EDITH EMILY."

One Case Blue, Brown and Black MOSCOW BEAVERS.

One case Blue and Black Presidents! 2 bales GREY COTONS; 2 cases HABERDASHER One case Small Wares; One case Shoe Threads.

FOR SALE AT THE LOWEST LIVING PROFITS.

EVERITT & BUTLER. 55 and 57 KING STREET.

THE VILLAGE SCHOOL

home making nets for the fishermen. The teacher, who was affable, intelligent and communicative, hopes for increased and improved accommodation under the new

In order that timid tourists may not be ## ishermen were preparing their nets for The Daily Tribune. another day's fishing. They have about forty large boats. Just now the salmon fishing is falling off The fishermen say

ST. JOHN, N. B., JULY 19, 1872. e salmon are plenty, but the easterly The Commons Candidates for St. John winds are bad for the men with their nets spread out. The regular shad fishery commences about the middle of July and con-No elector questions the ability of Mr. tinues till September. After that codfish-

Palmer to serve this constituency. All, ing follows in January and finishes the last whether friendly to him or to the other respectable candidates now before the County, admit that he has great talents. At the Bar he is unsurpassed by any lawyer in the Province, while his business ability is above, in the guessessing the constant of the ness ability is shown in the successful management of large Shipping and Manufacturing interests. His qualifications were and warmth as in any Jeigh harmlet management of large Shipping and Manufacturing interests. His qualifications being admitted, his strength with the people does not admit of denial. In the people does not admit of denial. In St. John City, two years ago, Mr. Palmer was a condidate for a seat in the occasion, undisturbed by foreign wars, free school commotions or any thing else, the Assembly, and although this was his school commotions or any thing else, the post, and seated in the comfortable carry.

That this relation is feared for life, by an accident at the is feared for life, by an accident at the seater of horses. Palmer was held by the ordinary electors. No politicism lifted a finger to, forefathers are all from the County Down; assist his election; the votes came to and scattered along this elevated sandy ridge him simply from the large body of people who knew him and knew his value from the commercial metropolis of New as a legislator. The vote which Mr. Palmerwill take during the approaching election will equally surprise superficial theorem. We understand that in Landau waters of the Bay of Fundy, the "rattlin" election will equally surprise superficial observers. We understand that in Lancaster, in Simonds, in St. Martins in Portland and in Carleton he will take a of making nets by the girls and fishing by very large vote, and we know that in the boys goes on for another twelve months. will astonish the unsophisticated. From braith, and his pay is very small, too small all quarters the signs appear to be most for the work, as two and three papers are favorable for his election.

The canvass is proceeding with con- good deal of labor weekly. siderable animation, the announcement Pisariuco boasts of Methodist, Episcothat the Election for the County will pal, and Presbyterian Churches, none atpositively be held on the 7th and for the tended by resident pastors, but all visited City on the 8th, having determined the occasionally by city ministers. At the candidates and their friends to make upper end of the village the Temperthe most of the time allowed them. A good feeling, in fact a friendly feeling prevails on all sides, and there appears to be no desire to run into under perto be no desire to run into undue personalities or to employ unfair arguist taught by Miss Brown. On her register ments to influence the voting. Each of the Candidates is fairly represented in the Press. Each is working through committees as well, and at the same time using active personal exertions to ing opposite Mrs. Madden's, a mile and a half drive over a very good gravelly road.

ST. JOHN COUNTY.

brings one to the house of gravelly road. brings one to the house of Wm. Stinson, the first of the long stretch of houses
"Of Taylor's Island, O, let me sing;
The first of the long stretch of houses which compose this terra ineognita, to most city people—Mr. Stinson is a fisherman, like all the rest of the people in this vil
Where is heard the splash of the fisherman oar; lage. He owns a comfortable looking oar; cottage. A short distance beyond, James cottage. A short distance beyond, James around around that on our coast can be found, Is the finest that on our coast can be found, overlooking a cove which runs up into the And the lobsters, too, when the season's not land some distance and is crossed by a will almost throw themselves into the long bridge in only a fair state of repair.

Standing out from the point of land formThe salmon are fat and the herrings galore ing the outer limit of the cove, about a dozen large boats carrying two sails each are

JUST LEAVING FOR THE DAY'S FISHING.

June and July are the salmon months

the air,

For the wild goose knows by his strong The fishing this season has been an average one. Some of the men have done very well, and others poerly. None have made a regular good haul. Two hundred salmon And the maiden fair with her nice young to a single fisherman is called a fair season's work. For these they get one dollar and thirty five cents each, large and small, the mose and the deer are never forlorn, for under Nature's care they are sure of a fair. rent coin of the Dominion as a twenty The birth, too, are happy and have no ills, pounder. Messrs. Coram, Littlehale and Noble buy all 'that are 'caught in this vicinity, and they ship them all to Boston.

And they could be porcupine guards the place with his quills.

And the porcupine guards the place with his quills. In Pisarineo there are about fifty families, Of all the Islands I ever did see and in the neighborhood of a hundred O, Taylor's Isle is the spot for me. stalwart, healthy, genial fishermen.

alarmed at the presence of bears, the ina drive of half a mile or so brings another formation is gratuitously given that by feet long. It is now in a bad condition for mitted to roam around any more. heavy wagons, and should receive immediate attention from the Read Supervisors. It don't look as if they had done much for it laland Oysters. Ice Cream, Pastry &c. &c., lately. At Craft's Creek a number of may be found at Geo. Sparrow's. heavy wagons, and should receive immedi-

Otnabog and its surroundings.

BY OUR OWN REPORTER. About midway between Saint John and Fredericton and almost hidden from view John who only expected to stay for a fortby the numerous islands at this point, lies of night. of which are so well know to all River our ists. After a pleasant sail of three that his arrangements appear to have been made purely with a view to the comfort of by what mighty power, I know not, Saint John. Long Island is reached; a few his guests, and we can safely recomme noments more and the characteristic small his house and "Calm Content" to every More than a century, methought, oat of steamer landing shoots out to meet one desirous of spending the summer in an us. It is grappled, the steps let down, agreeable manner with none of the disladies with little shrieks and the omnipre comforts ordinarily met with in country When lo, above the mists, so bright, sent bandbox gently deposited; the gen tlemen and luggage follow; hats are raised handkerchiefs waved and we are off dan-of Ethiopia who handles the oars has, he tells us, pulled out a boat to meet the steamer for nearly 30 years, a labor of which the Steamship Company have shown their appreciation by presenting him with en Longfellow, though the loss of the race a new and handsome boat this season. It is Saturday, and the group of muslin encased beings who wait with shrill cheers on the landing for fathers, husbands, N. Y. Herald says:-

eing on the wave caused by the paddles of the departing steamer. The dark hued son first appearance before the constituency people don their gala attire and the bright post, and seated in the comfortable carryhe came within a few votes of securing orange colors are unfolded to the breeze.

all of "Our Bost," a span of horses Saratog course yesterday. That this soon lands us at the "Upper House," took place in a race which saw two and a bloom lands us at the "Upper House," took place in a race which saw two and a bloom lands us at the "Upper House," took place in a race which saw two and a bloom lands us at the "Upper House," took place in the same within a few votes of securing orange colors are unfolded to the breeze. all of "Our Bost," a span of horses that occasion surprised those who did Orange Hall, which continues till daylight not know the appreciation in which Mr. of the thirteenth of July breaks in upon the province, has

> THE SCENE Brunswick, interspersed with variegated boys of the County Down" go in for a further out the head of Long Island; then | in four minutes, thirty four a line of water separating Greater and Less Musquash Islands, and finishing the taken by each family, which involves a through wood and meadow, catching view is more picturesque; first, the level intervale, we have rocky, fern of the boys have disappeared in pursuit of piscatorial bliss, while the others are scattered through the grove and hav field from ime. The rest of "Our Family" are inreflects many a lair cargo either rowing pass through their territory. themselves or allowing the gentlemen to exert themselves for the pleasure of others.

NOTES FROM QUEEN'S COUNTY. and family, Mrs. W. Peters and family. Mr. and Mrs. Clawson, Mrs. and Miss Gerow, Mr. Underhill and family, the Misses Eaton and many others, including a number of young gentlemen from Saint lage bearing the same name. This charming spot, nestled away from the ordinary a proportionate exodus on the Monday fol.

Wakened by the passing wind:

Once it's path was thronged with pilgrims Now no trace of it we find. track of tourists, has long enjoyed the re- lowing, when the boat by a special arrangeatation of being a capital Summer resort, ment calls at the landing so as to allow but beyond the lavored few who had disvered its heauties the number of plea- families. Late in the senson, about the sure seekers who visited it was small. The first of August, there is an abundance of glowing descriptions given to us by some duck as well as heron, bittern, gull and of its admirers made us take a ticket to other good game. Beyond eel and chub, Hampstend instead of to Fredericton, and the piscatorial attractions are not very at nine o'clock off we steamed in the great, but within ten miles there are some respectively. The admirable arrangements very fair trout streams. It is but justice to Mr. Peters to say Soul and sense beneath their magic,

ANOTHER GREAT RACE.

THE KENTUCKY HORSE SERIOUSLY DISABLEI The race for the Saratoga Cup has just been won by Harry Bassett. who has heat. is no injury to the reputation of the horse. It will be remembered Longfellow defeated Bassett only two or three weeks ago. The

Harry Bassett beats Longfellow.

made ample management for the accommodation of summer visitors. Standing upon the portico,

THE SCENE stretching out below us is one for which a end, and was led off limping and bleeding visitor for the first time is little prepared.

Beyond the lawn and well kept flowers is a sloping meadow ending with a fringe of maple, oak and elm on the border of the maple, oak and elm on the border of the control lake. Beyond the lake, with its miniature admiration the world over. It will be reislands, is a long piece of intervale studded membered that he recently beat his successful rival of yesterday, Harry Bassett, at Long Branch, in a two and a half mile separates the lake from the river beyond; by about one hundred and fifty yards, Unfolded were the heavenly gat THE RACE. When Longfellow and Harry Bassett Less Musquash Islands, and finishing the water view the true river with its heavier waves and broadly curving cove forming the outlet of the Washadamoak. For six miles above and below the house is a most beautiful route for a drive or ride.

Going Down The River we pass the neat while farmhouses, with fences and fields, showing the true test of good farming, down gently sloping hills, through wood and meadow, catching through wood and meadow, catching glimpses of Little River from time to time, until Lower Hampstead or Hampstead proper is reached.

The time of the latest through was twenty-five and a half seconds. Going around the upper turn, Longfellow went up to Bassett's saddle girth, but at the quarter pole they were nose and tail. Time of the half-mile, 524 seco ds Delender at this time was out of the race and not worthy of further out of the race and not worthy of further lake with its reflections of rock and tree. Going down the backstretch. Longfellowagain went up to Harry's saddle girth, but at the half mile pole fell back again. The three quarters of a mile were channel like a silver ribbon through it. up to the White Bridge, where, in place of level intervale, we have rocky, fern level intervale, we have rocky, fern level intervale, we have rocky, fern level intervale, we have rocky fern level intervale, level intervale, we have rocky fern level intervale, level intervale, we have rocky fern level intervale and not worthy of the three in the roce and not worthy of the rockstretch. Longfellowagain went up to Harry's saddle girth, but at the half mile pole fell back again. The three quarters of a mile were enjoyment, health and mutual improvement of its motley participants, could not have been more of a success. Eight hundred and level and the suburban groves. The second pic-nic came off Saturday, and, intended for the enjoyment, health and mutual improvement of its motley participants, could not have been more of a success. ST. JOHN COUNTY.

The proper of the protection of the section, is one of the protection of the protect f r the mile. Longfellow then ran up to dred and sixty children, who had never quet, of which there are two setts. Some The Canadian Pacific Survey Interrupted by Hostile Indians.

SAN FRANSISCO. July 15 .- A portion of which their jolly shouts come from time to the Canadian Pacific surveying party have returned to Kamloops, and report that the erspersed over the lake sailing or rowing, Chilcoatan Indians are openly hostile, up in the grove enjoying its mossy threatening the work of the survey and dusky friends, whose names may be re-their ways to quiet retreats where they Minn., in an unusual way lately. The bridge into view. This bridge crosses special provision of the Sessions, at the in- God'' in the most approved style. When the floor of which was filled for dancing, patriotic colored clergyman of Louisiana, craft's Crek, and is a couple of hundred stance of Judge Nowlin, bears are not per- we visited Oatnabog there were about fifty except one set. Then the happy couple, in a letter to the New York Tribune, pro-

TRANSLATED FOR THE TRIBUNE. THE DESERTED CHURCH.

Oft. in vonder distant forest. Is heard a faint, dim sound of bells; Whence it cometh no man knoweth: Sage tradition nothing tells. Of some lone, ruine I church the murmur Now no trace of it we find.

In it's pathless woods late wandering, Fancy's mystic realm exploring, From these wicked, dreary earth scenes Aloft my soul to heaven was soaring. Sudden, in that silent forest. Again those plaintive notes I hear; Climbing, listening, their sweet music Near and nearer doth appear.

Borne so high and far away. Had vanished 'midst this pleasant drea

A broad, clear space before me gleam-

In the azure depths of heaven The sun was shining, full and bright, And a vast cathedral's presence Stood revealed in golden light. Snow-white clouds, like outspread pinion Bore it's massive splendors high, And it's towers and pinnacles Seemed melting in the holy sky.

A ravishing accord of bells Resounded, thrilling, through the tower No mortal hands those bells did toll, A wakened by some heavenly power. Methought those waves of sacred sound Against my throbbing heart did beat; Beneath the lofty dome I stole. With trembling joy and faltering feet. The splendors that I saw within,

Vainly I seek in words to paint The windows glowed with mystic light From seraph and from martyred saint Still, as I gazed, the wonder grew : To life returned those blessed sprites seemed encompass'd by a throng Of holy women, sainted knights. Before the altar humbly kneeling,

My soul was thrilled with love and awe. As in the spacious dome above me, The shining ones of heaven I saw Lo! the vast arches parted wide; Unfolded were the heavenly gates,

The wondrous visions that I saw. While thus mute and reverent bending

-The children of the New York Mission school are having a series of delights, in the development of a plan projected by the knew much about before, in excursions to -Apaches in a Fifth avenue church must be something like a drove of bulls in a china shop, without, however, any disrespect for the Apaches, but Gen. O. O. Howard with that delicate preception of the eternal fitness of things which distinor up in the grove enjoying its mossy walks and romantic neoks and resting places. After tea the visitors indulge in more active amusements. Nearly all are good riders, and the horses have as much as they wish to do for three or four hours. Long walks over the meadows or along the road form a prominent feature in the recreations, while the surface of the lake or reflects many a fair cargo either rowing peculiar strangers who happened to be -The wife of Dan Rice has gone over within the gates. One of them wore a Birch canoes and lapstreaks glide along to the enemy by joining Backenstoe's opposition circus. Both circuses were in the his head, and a long linen duster. The and frilled wrists dip in the clear waters same vicinity the other day, Rice's at other wore his hair down to his waist, and gathering dripping water lilies. The lake, Dubuque and the other at McGregor. At no turban; in other respects his costume with a brilliant full moon shining upon it, the careless crowd on its bosom, the faint echoes of some song coming over it, the dark shadows on its beach, cannot be descripted but must be seen to be appreciated.

Dubuque and the other at McGregor. At mounted the was like his brother chiefs. They and nounced themselves very much pleased with their visit and anxious for peace, and one who wore a naval coat and two pair of had not the authorities of McGregor intercribed, but must be seen to be appreciated. had not the authorities of McGregor inter- pantaloons was very anxious for schools. on sundays those religiously inclined are taken across those religiously inclined are taken across and swollen mouths abounded on both find one convict innocent of the crime for the lake in the sail boat by Mr. Peters to sides.

and swollen mouths abounded on both find one convict innocent of the crime for which he was imprisoned, that he might shake hands with him, but he was unsuc their ways to quiet retreats where there

LOCALS.

The Elections. Nomination day will be August 3d, Polling days 7th and 8th, Declaration day 10th. respect of his Troop, together with the fol-The time now is very short.

The Steamer " Durien," from Savannah, for Liverpool with cotton, seven days out, The non commissioned officers and me pool, carries 86,085 bushels of grain, said soldiers should. to be the largest cargo ever taken in one vessel from that port. The Moonlight Exentsion.

Shipping Notes,

Last evening, shortly after 8 o'clock. music during the evening, and dancing was freely indulged in. The Choir of Now ed Officers and Troopers of No. 7 Troop Dominion Lodge, Indiantown, added to Cavalry. the pleasure of the evening. An abunalthough the moon did not put in an appearance until Oak Point was reached, the trip was one of the pleasantest of the son. Gilbert Murdoch, Esq., occupied the Vice chair, supported on the right by Deputy Grand Master A. Robortson and on the left by Grand Warden S. Fraser. The usual loyal toasts were drunk in clear and usual loyal toasts were led me to form a high estimate of the position you would occupy in war.

Odd Fellows Dinner.

My greatest wish is that pro-perity and happiness may attend you and your families. God Save the Queen.

Yours ever I. W.J. HENDERSON. sparkling water, which all preferred to the Grand Master Yorston made a few appro are jolly good (Odd) Fellows." George oned better things from the next batch. In the absence of U. S. Consul Warner, Last Hours of the late Mr. John Bolton. to benevolent institutions, and Odd Fellows, the deceased gentleman :particularly. He spoke admirably and his He had been confined to his house for to Manilla and thence to Boston. He complained of being kidnapped and confined on the vessel, and when she arrived in Boston he undertook to give the Captain trouble; but although the vessel lay there three weeks before coming to St. John, Kelly Passengers per Anchor Line Steamers. could not get even the adventurers among the legal fraternity to back up his case, "Acadia" published a few days since, though he did succeed in getting a news- there are also on board from Glasgow the paper reporter to publish a fictitious story which was imposed on our Boston CorresWrs. Peter lunis; Peter lunis; Rliza There was no cruelty in confining a man Saml. Pocklington; Mary J. Crawford: work, and the Captain was justified in steerage, from Liverpool and Glasgow. keeping him strictly to the fare prescribed under such circumstances; but the truth passengers who sailed from New York last Spanish authorities would not allow this, unless the ship's consignees would become responsible for his maintenance and his passage to Hong Kong. We have heard or read both sides of the story, and we see lawyers" with a view of "raising the by any steamer on that day. wind." Captain Wilson is a gentlemanly, smash up.

efficient officer, who is highly esteemed by At noon to day, as Dr. Walker was drivreputable authority. loademy of Music.

of her complete command of all the graces Olive's Express. "look through Nature up to Nature's ceremony was performed in a dancing hall, we visited Oatnabog there were about fifty boarders at the Upper House and about half as many at the Lower one, kept by a stepped forward and formed the consin of Mr. S. L. Peters. Among them were J. Travis, Esq., and family, from New York, Mrs. Ennie ward as it nothing had happened.

Minn., in an unusual way lately. The ceremony was performed in a dancing hall, the floor of which was filled for dancing, and natural and artistic qualities which the floor of which was filled for dancing, the floor of which was filled for dancing, in a letter to the New York Tribune, promises the most intelligent portion of his care in that State for Greeley, for Grant has held sway over them simply as the head of the Republican party, whose service has been magnified.

Minn., in an unusual way lately. The ceremony was performed in a dancing hall, the floor of which was filled for dancing, in a letter to the New York Tribune, promises the most intelligent portion of his charming character of "Rosalind" will be busted in a letter to the New York of Grant has held sway over them simply as the consistency of the Annapolis and Windsor road.

Packages of freight or monies forwarded by this Line will receive the fullest attention. OLIVE'S Express.

Mr. W. H. Olive runs an Express to the coracter of "Rosalind" will be charming character of "Rosalind" will be dancing in a letter to the New York of Grant has held sway over them simply as the hone of the circle and performed the ceremony, the must be most intelligent portion of his susta Complimentary Address to Captain Henderson, of Shediac, and His Reply. Captain Henderson, of the Cavalry, was recently the recipient of a mark of the lowing address :-

To I. W. J. HENDERSON, Captain No. 7 Troop Cavalry :

put into Halifax Wednesday evening short of No. 7 Troop beg of you to accept this Ring as a small token of their esteem and 260 bales of cotton, a portion of the regard. For your ever watchful care for cargo of the wrecked steamer "Concor- the comfort of your Troop we tender our dia," arrived at Halifax Wednesday per sincere thanks, and trust that whether on duty or off duty, at our annual drill or in the stern realities of war, we may never The ship "Jeypore" which cleared at bring a blush to your cheek but will be New York, on the 13th inst., for Liver- ever ready for our duty, and perform it as

We sinceroly trust that your connection with No. 7 Troop as Captain may be while life shall last-like this ring, unendingand whilst encircling your finger may it the "David Weston" left her wharf at Indiantown for Oak Point. The excursionists numbered about two handred sionists numbered about two hundred, ed with happiness and prosperity is the Maddigan's Band furnished excellent sincere wish of those you command.

CAPTAIN HRNDERSON'S REPLY. dance of refreshments was furnished; and To the non-commissioned officers and men of No. 7 Troop 8th Regt. Cavalry :-The token of respect which has just been season. About 12 o'clock the party were the same spirit as prompted its donors. landed safely on the wharf at Indian- My connection with No. 7 Troop has been referred to and such connection has rendered me many happy hours and pleasing The dinner given by Pioneer Lodge of recollections. Your promptness to obey Odd Fellows last evening at the United orders has always placed you high in my States Hotel, was a highly enjoyable enter-estimation, and now to know that my eftainment, not only to the fraternity but to forts for your good have been appreciated, the guests of this highly progressive. and to learn of the mutual attachment so liberal, and influential body. E. Willis, strongly set forth in your address, gives Esq . was chairman, supported on the right rise to feelings in my breast which I cannot by Grand Master James Yorston, and on find language to express. Your faithfulthe left by Grand Secretary John Mathe ness in times of peace to your duty has sparkling wine. They said so at any rate. In response to a call from the Chairman, "Humpty Dumpty" was presented to a large audience at Bishop's Opera House priate remarks on the progress of the last night, and gave great satisfaction to Order. Grand Secretary Matheson, the next those within, and also to a large crowd on speak, gave a glowing account of the progress of the Order, which called out a der to listen to the performance of the hearty outburst of applause, and "They had a run of over a thousand nights in Stewart, Esq., Sr., responded to the toast of "the Dominion Parliament." He pitched into our late representatives, and lunny tricks, songs and acrobatic leaps. It will be repeated to-night.

Andre Cushing, Esq., responded to the The St. Croix Courser has an appretoast of the President of the United States. ciative article on the late Mr. Bolton. We Mr. Cushing spoke at some length relative quote a reference to the last moments of particularly. He spoke admirably and his remarks were highly appreciated. The "Press' was responded to by the various representatives present.

Messrs. J. G. Forbes, C. N. Skinner, W. Pugsley, Jr., Pringle and Mills, Robert McKean, C. Armstrong, R. R. Barnes, John March and J. Hinch made speeches on the usual topics, and Mr. Pringle sang "My Heather Hills," and Mr. March "Golden Strang." With 'Auld Lang Syne' sung in a splendid manner, and cheers for the Queen, Grand Master, and Pioneer Lodge, the pleasant meeting terminated at the source of the said he was no better and asked that Dr. Told should be sent for The Doetor was soon in attendance, but before he arrived Lodge, the pleasant meeting terminated at an early hour this morning. The dinner the vital spark had fled! Just before he was most creditable to the resources of the died he uttered a short prayer in a clerr and distinct tone of voice. The immediate cause of his death was heart disease.

Captain Wilson, of the ship "St. James," received a great overhauling from our Boston Correspondent in a letter which we published yesterday, in which he was described as a "sea ruffian" who ought to have been a truffian. The charges against the Cartesian with the cartesian was heart disease. Mr. Bolton was out driving on Friday and Saturday, and on Sanday morning attended service at Trinity Church, where the Rev. George M. Armstrong, of St. John, preached a most able and impressive sermon from Hebrews, xii ch., 1st verse. It was remarked that Mr. Bolton manifested a most devout spirit throughout the "pirate." The charges against the Capservice and paid the closest attention to tain (who with his ship, is now in our port) appear to depend for their justification entirely on the narrative of one Wilston entirely on the narrative of one tion entirely on the narrative of one William Kelly, a sailor who made the voyage in the "St. James" from San Francisco and afterwards said to Mr. Armstrong and pondent. There was no kidnapping Innis; Helen Cruickshanks; James Cruickin the case. Men were not scarce at San shanks; Mary Cruickshanks; Thomas Francisco, and Captain Wilson's officers Leahy; Catherine Welsh; Wm. McDonald; can prove that Kelly signed the articles. Catherine McDonald; Hector McDonald; who was insubordinate and would not making a total list of 15 cabin and 45 The following statement of first cabin is that he allowed him large extras, in this Saturday for Europs, shows the volume of respect. Captain Wilson would gladly pleasure travel to be increasing, and that have had the troublesome man leave the the Anchor Line gets the preference :ship at Manilla as he desired, but the Steamship Australia, Anchor Line, 104. do Atlantic, White Star. do Batavia, Cunard, City of Brooklyn, Inman.

do Franklin, Inman, The California of the Anchor Line sailed in it nothing very different from the the Saturday preceding with 174 cabin pascharges so frequently put forth by "sea sengers, being the largest number carried all that have the pleasure of his acquaint ing down Dock street towards the Market ance, and could not possibly be guilty of Square, he came in collision with a coach the charges so freely put forth on such dis- which was travelling in an opposite direction. The wheels of the two vehicles becoming locked, the Doctor's horse, which The brilliant comedy "Masks and Faces," is rather "skittish," started, tearing the was put on the boards at the Academy last whiffle-tree of the light wagon from the night. It is one of the many enviable shalts. But for the exertions of his driver triumphs in which Miss Le Clercq is unsurpassed, and which surprise her audi-ence by the constantly recurring evidences on injuries, the horses being quiet.