

secretary; Mr. P. Williams, treasurer; programme committee, the Misses Beaubier, Cleverley, Pilling, Rev. M. Custance, and Mr. W. Aldridge; social committee, the Misses Barton, English, Quinn and Douglas, Mrs. Cleverley and Mrs. Sheather; visiting committee, the Misses Henderson, Jennie Barton, Percival, Donaldson, Quinn, Annie English, Pilling, Halse, and Mr. Unjcome. The society will hold weekly meetings of a literary, musical, and social character, and from the interest already taken in the Guild, it is evident that its object, that of bringing the young people of the parish together, will certainly be attained. After the election of officers at this meeting a very enjoyable musical programme was rendered. The meeting closed with prayers by Rev. M. Harding.

At the weekly meeting of the Guild on November 8th, there was a good attendance of members. Mr. G. B. Coleman presided. A good programme of vocal and instrumental music, recitations, etc., was rendered, at the conclusion of which Rev. M. Harding delivered an interesting lecture on the life of Oliver Goldsmith.

A large number of young people were entertained in the parish room on Monday, November 15, by St. Matthew's Guild. The entertainment consisted of music, games and refreshments. Mr. W. Aldridge gave two solos on the cornet, "The Lost Chord," and "O, Rest in the Lord," from Mendelssohn's "Elijah," both of which were much appreciated. The Rev. M. Custance and Mr. Blackett gave an instrumental duet, "La Reine Blanche;" while the Misses Hilda Hesson and Louise Barton brought down the house in the rendering of "I Don't Want to Play in Your Yard," in costume. Mr. George Coleman kept the young people in roars of laughter with his humorous reading. Others who took part in the programme were the Misses Pilling and Cleverley, and the rector. Refreshments were served at 10:30, and the evening closed with the National Anthem.

HOLY TRINITY, WINNIPEG.—Sunday, November 17, was the twenty-second anniversary of the Ven. Archdeacon Fortin's rectorship of the parish of Holy Trinity, and the occasion was marked by special services. Dr. Fortin preached at the 11 o'clock service, and his sermon referred to the work of church extension that had been done in the past, as well as to what is now being done, in connection with Holy Trinity, St. Luke's, Fort Rouge, now established as a city parish, was originally begun and for some time carried on under the fostering care of Holy Trinity. Two new missions had been established during the year, St. Matthew's and St. Barnabas', in the eastern part of the city, and in both good work is being done with Sunday schools, night schools, and evening services. Rev. C. C. Owen was the evening preacher.

The anniversary social gathering was held on Monday evening in the school-house, which was crowded with the members of the congregation and their friends. A select orchestra gave a number of musical selections in capital form, and an admirable programme of songs and speeches was rendered. Refreshments were served during the evening, which was one of the happiest in the history of Holy Trinity parish.

ST. GEORGE'S, WINNIPEG.—The authorities of this well-organized parish have taken the initiative in inaugurating an institution which cannot fail to be productive of much good to this great northwest. They have opened a Penny Savings Bank in the basement of St. George's Church, the trustees being Rev. J. J. Roy, and Messrs. W. Shimmin, J. R. Dutton, J. T. Arundel, A. Jardine, J. M. Johnstone, Frank Johnson, T. W. Taylor, S. Hooper, F. J. Nixon, and W. R. Mulock. A. S. Healey is Secretary-Treasurer, and W. E. Healey, Auditor. It is felt that the establishing of this bank will meet the wishes of a large number of people at that end of the city, whose savings are not sufficient to warrant their opening an account with the Dominion Government Savings Bank or any other chartered bank, and the trustees hope and expect that it will be largely patronized.

CHRIST CHURCH, WINNIPEG.—The clergy of Christ Church are busily engaged in preparing classes of young people for the confirmation which will be administered on the second Sunday in Advent by the Lord Bishop of Qu'Appelle, acting for His Grace the Archbishop, who is at present in England.

Those who knew Christ Church in bygone days will be glad to learn that the Rev. Canon Pentreath, who has been serving in the American Church at Brainerd, Minnesota, has returned to reside permanently in Canada. He has been appointed Archdeacon of Columbia by the Bishop of New Westminster, the appointment to take effect on Dec. 1. The Archdeaconry was founded and endowed by the Baroness Burdett-Coutts, and has an income of $2,000 per annum from investments in Victoria. The duties of the Archdeacon will include, for the present, the work of missionary extension in the diocese; and he will also be the Bishop's Commissary during his absence. Canon Pentreath will succeed Archdeacon Small, who, though by proper title, "Archdeacon of Columbia," was of the Diocese of New Westminster; the proper title of the corresponding officer in the Diocese of Columbia being "Archdeacon of Vancouver," with headquarters at Victoria.
