receive the same honours as those accorded to the Governor General. .

14. In order to prevent any confusion or mistake in towns garrisoned by Her Majesty's Regular Troops, whenever the whole or any corps of the active Militia in those garrisons assemble for exercise with blank ammunition, or to fire salutes, &c., within the limits of such garrisons, the officer commanding the Active Militia shall previously notify the same to the officer commanding the Regular Troops in such garrisons; and it is directed that the general assembly shall not be sounded by Buglers belonging to any corps of the active Militia in those garrisons, without a distinguishing call peculiar to the corps or company being sounded immediately before the call for the assembly.

15. The Militia are, when called out for their annual training in camp, to turn out, but not under arms, whenever His Excellency the Governor General, or the General officer commanding the Regular Troops passes along the front of the camp. On these occasions they are to be formed in open column with closed ranks, all officers at their posts.

16. When two Battalions or Corps meet on the march the junior in point of precedence is to halt in line, open its ranks and salute the other Battalion or Corps, which proceeds on its march, with swords drawn or bayonets fixed, trumpets sounding or drums
