question of ndence only.

The step is too delicate a one to be treated rashly, but there always remains the possibility of closer acquaintance if correspondence is satisfactory.

I am myself an Englishman and 25 years of age. I have not been very long in Canada, but would like to get myself associated with a few nice friends if possible, and would thank you for address of "Light of the Morning."

"Codger" on the Warpath.

Milestone, Sask., Oct. 10, 1907.
Editor.—I notice several of your correspondents simply want letters and are not in the matrimonial market, notably "Nouhika," with whom I should like to exchange a few letters as I have always enjoyed that amusement, having many relations in England.

I do not see anything about the regulations for this department, but do not want my name and address published. I presume you would send it to those who ask for it; which would be agreeable to me.

I am what some here call "getting old," but don't hold that opinion of myself. I notice one subscriber gives 34 as her age—a very good age, too. A woman begins to get woman's virtues then.

Of course, as "Nouhika" says, it is wise to look on the bright side of life, but I generally find the greatest fun and wit is to be found with the graver folk—silliness is often mistaken for humor.

I don't suppose anyone is interested in my personal appearance, but I am English, have been four years in Manitoba and Saskatchewan, and am a bachelor and likely to remain so. Perhaps you won't insert this if I make it longer, so subscribe myself "Codger."

Will Marry for Love Only.

Macdonald, Man., Oct. 11, 1907.
Editor.—As I am a new arrival to your correspondence column, I hope you will welcome me. I derive much pleasure and interest from the letters to the Western Home Monthly.

I am a farmer's daughter, and have a good idea what woman can do and ought to do on a farm. I think she should take hold and help her husband all she can to get along. Especially those that are just starting out for themselves.

Of course, there are some men who really expect too much of a woman, but take it in general, if he sees she is doing her part in the house, he won't ask her to feed pigs and do chores outside. However, she should not object to a few hardships at first, such as milking cows and feeding the hungry little pigs, and if all goes well in the near future she will be able to enjoy the luxury of a comfortable little home of which she can have the happy thought to think she helped her dear little husband to make.

As for me, I will marry for love and work for my riches, not merely for a nice home and lots of money, and a husband I don't like a little bit, for where true love reigns all others exist.

I think the one signed "Hetty" should go back to the Old Country where she wouldn't have any cows to milk or pigs to feed. I would sooner milk cows any day rather than see my tired husband doing it after his hard day's work, while I would be enjoying myself at the piano.

I am not, as it were, on the matrimony line, but will write to any respectable young man who wishes to correspond for pastime. Wishing your paper every success.

"Rosebud No. 3."

Would Exchange Photos.

Hamar, Sask., Oct. 23, 1907.
Editor.—In the July number of your valuable magazine I read of an "Old Sleuth," saying: I should like to shake hands with "The Devil." It is a wonder he does so, for his letter shows very plainly that he is the "Devil's" brother. If it wasn't for his age, I should think him to be the old fellow widower I used to know; he married a sea stewardess, and treating his first wife rough, he tried to do the same with the second, but he failed. She blackened his eyes with a bootjack at several occasions.

I, for my part, am one of those fellows who want to be taken in by some good little girl. I am a young farmer, about 5 feet, 4 inches, brown hair and gray eyes, like to drink, coffee or tea, and chew "youbet" three times a day and smoke—sure, with a big stove pipe. Am good looking and would like to hear from a girl that's the same and not over 25 years of age, and, if possible, can play the organ. I think just as much of you, girls, if you write first and send photo if convenient and I will send you mine.

"Rolling Stone."

How Will She Suit, Boys?

Glenboro, Man., Oct. 11, 1907.
Editor.—How would I suit some young man. Here I am, 5 feet, 4 inches tall, slight, dark brown hair, grey eyes, fair complexion, counted good looking, good cook, can milk and look after house.

I think that ought to catch some of the young men. Some of the girls are rather hard on the boys, who are, taking them on the whole, just as good as the girls. Don't you think so, boys? I think that "Tommy No. 1" is a pretty good hearted fellow if he would take his wife out to a dance every night in the week.

"Glenboro Beauty."

Handsome Widow Wants a Hubby.

Wetaskiwin, Alta., Oct. 24, 1907.
Editor.—For some time I have been a reader of your interesting paper. I am a widow, 34 years of age, and wish to correspond with some gentleman near my own age and of good habits. I have brown eyes and hair, 5 feet, 2 inches tall, weigh 110 pounds and considered good looking, if one is not too particular. I prefer a Protestant with some means. Hoping you will favor me with an early reply.

"Handsome Widow."

The Waste Paper Basket Not for Yours.

Saskatchewan, Oct. 15, 1907.
Editor.—For some time I have been an amused reader of your bright magazine, especially the correspondence column.

I would like to know the object of this column; is it conducted simply with a view to matrimony or with a view to a jolly correspondence?

I am afraid we would hardly know some of the gentlemen, or ladies either, by their own description, should we happen to meet them. I, for one, cannot imagine any nice, sensible Christian girl advertising for a husband. How can anyone fall in love through correspondence? and who would wish to marry someone they did not love?

I have no wish to correspond with anyone with a view to matrimony, as I have plenty of gentlemen friends, and am in no hurry to change my present state of bliss. I live on a farm in a good wheat growing district and am fond of riding, driving, shooting, dancing and music, in fact, I like a good time. I will ring off and hope, Mr. Editor, you will not deem this to be the waste paper basket.

"Gladys."

Boys, Have You Got the Necessary?

Brierwood, Man., Oct. 19, 1907.
Editor.—I have been reading with interest the correspondence column of your paper, so I think I will try my luck at the game.

I would like to correspond with some nice temperate young man who is good looking and well cultured. He must be worth at least $12,500.

I am sweet sixteen 5 feet, 6½ inches tall, weigh 130 pounds. Have brown hair, blue eyes, and am considered good looking. I am a real good cook, but will not milk cows or feed pigs for any man.

Hoping to hear from some nice young man and wishing the W. H. M. every success.

"Pretty Polly."

Happy Bill Wants to Correspond

Saskatchewan, Oct. 1907.
Editor.—It has been with greatest interest that I have followed the correspondence page of your valuable paper.

I would like to correspond with some nice good looking young ladies about 17 years of age. I am an Englishman, 18 years old, good looking and weigh 140 pounds, height 5 feet, 7 inches. I do not smoke, chew or drink. Would Lady Betty, Trixie, Canadian Rose, or any other nice young ladies who wish write to me.

"Happy Bill."

Farmer Boy Lonely.

Taylorboro, Sask., Oct. 22, 1907.
Editor.—I would like to join the correspondence columns.

I'm one of the Western bachelors and have taken much interest reading the letters from young ladies. I would like to get acquainted with young ladies between 16 and 23 to correspond with, as I find living on a homestead quite lonely.

I am 22 years old and not at all ugly and anyone wanting to know more please write to "Farmer Boy."

Answer to Flossie.

Manitoba, Oct. 12, 1907.
Editor.—Though not being a subscriber to your valuable paper, I take great interest and pleasure in the privilege of reading it. I am a Canadian, 6 feet tall, auburn hair, blue eyes, weigh 170 pounds and have a good trade. Always lived in town and city, would not and could not be contented on a farm or in the country. Have a good education, well born and brought up in the proper way. Use tobacco. Will inherit a few dollars from the home. Oh, yes, Flossie, my age is 25. Now I would like to have a letter from you.

"Big Bill."

Sunny Jim Wants Wife.

Virden, Man., Oct. 15, 1907.
Editor.—Having been a constant reader of your Western Home Monthly

Fruit Cures Constipation

"Fruit-a-tives" cure Constipation because they are Fruit Juices in Tablet form.

Constipation means a disordered liver. When the liver is weak, bile is lacking. And it is the bile—which the liver excretes—that flows into the intestines and moves the bowels.

Fruit is the great liver tonic. It invigorates the liver and causes more bile to flow into the bowels.

Purgatives, powders and purging mineral waters, never reach the liver. They irritate the bowels and FORCE them to move. They generally do harm. They NEVER do any PERMANENT good.

"Fruit-a-tives" are fruit juices—in which the medicinal action is many times intensified by the wonderful change which takes place when the juices of apples, oranges, figs and prunes are combined.

"Fruit-a-tives" have already proved a cure to many thousands of people in Canada.

"Fruit-a-tives" are free from calomel, cascara, senna and other bowel irritants. They are concentrated fruit juices with valuable tonics and internal antiseptics added.

"Fruit-a-tives" move the bowels regularly and easily every day—and thus cure Constipation.
