

What's Swan On

Fibre Expressions '93

Commencing October 16, the National Exhibition Centre will feature an exhibition of creative needlework entitled "Fibre Expression '93". This show highlights the work of 25 talented members of the Fredericton guild of fibre artists and is the first of its kind for a coming together of hands on guild projects.

Children of all ages will find enjoyment and learning with the hands-on activity corner which accompanies this exhibition. Admission is free; open every day except Monday's, 12 noon to 5 P.M..

Tricks and Treats at the NEC

A Halloween Workshop For Kids Between the ages of 6 to 12 Saturday, October 23 1:00 to 4:00 P.M.

Create your own handicrafts, Sure to bedazzle any spooky ensemble!!!

No ghost or goblin will be complete on Halloween Night Without their own personally designed loot bag, Noisemaker or jewelry pin!

And for the home, create your own great pumpkin candles!

If you dare to register... Call 453-3747 or visit the National Exhibition Centre in Downtown Fredericton, on Queen Street (Open every day except Mondays, 12 noon to 5 P.M.)

$15 Registration Fee includes all supplies and treats Enroll now! Space is Limited!

Arts Week '93: October 25-29

The Second Annual Arts Week organized by the arts Undergraduate Society and the other arts departmental societies will take place October 25-29. Among the scheduled events are a Pub Crawl of Friday the 25th, "Arts Unplugged" on the 24th, an Interdepartmental food drive and a movie night. For more information, or to get involved, call the A.U.S. office at 453-4686, 12:30-1:30 weekdays, or Paul Lenarczyk at 450-7379 anytime.

Peter Sabat on Exhibit at Playhouse Galleries

Theatre New Brunswick is pleased to present Fredericton Artist Peter Sabat's newest exhibit in the Playhouse West Gallery. Sabat's exhibition Faces and Realities will include some of his newest paintings and drawings.

The public is invited to enjoy this exhibition of Faces and Realities by Peter Sabat in the Playhouse West Gallery from October 5-31.

Elderfest '93 - A Celebration of Older Adults-

Fredericton's National Exhibition Centre in collaboration with The Third Age Centre and The Chair in Gerontology of St. Thomas University presents Elderfest '93 - A Celebration of Older Adults on Tuesdays and Thursdays in November

November 2 (Tuesday)
Tai Chi and the Aging Process
 Dr. Gary Kenyon, Gerontology Program, Saint Thomas University
November 4 (Thursday)
Long Weekends: Women's Experiences With Widowhood
 Dr. Debbie Van den Hoonaard
 Sociology & Gerontology Depts
 Saint Thomas University

Alternative Gig

St. Charbel's Hall is the place to be Saturday night for an evening of original, independent rock 'n' roll. Featured in the show are Moncton's Bad Luck no. 13, whose recent "Enfants Terribles" ep has garnered rave reviews in such publications as Maximum Rock n Roll and EQ. Fredericton's Nebraska Girl, Sciolism and the almighty USSR are along as well, proving that the spirit of independent and alternative music is alive and well in Fredericton. Admission is a mere four bucks. Show starts at 7:00 P.M., Saturday, October 23 at St. Charbel's Hall (Corner of Argyle and Westmorland).

Kikawi matow / Our Mother Cries

Kikawi matow is an installation by Native artist Ned Bear, which offers a glimpse into a possible solution to the problems at hand, be they on a global or a personal level.

Kikawi matow / Our Mother Cries...opens at the UNB Art Center, Memorial Hall, October 31, 1993 from 2:00 - 4:00 with special guest George Fry. A walking tour with the artist will be held on November 18 at 12:15.

The UNB Art Center is located in Memorial Hall on the UNB Campus. The gallery is open weekdays from 10:00 - 5:00 PM. and Sundays and holidays from 2:00 - 4:00 PM.

Capital Film Society
 Tilley 102
 Alfred Bailey Auditorium
 All showings Mondays at 8:00pm
 October 25:
The Last Days of Chez Nous

John Greer Lecture

On behalf of the Coalition of Fredericton Art Galleries, the UNB Art Center invites you to attend a slide lecture presented by John Greer on Friday, October 29, 1993 at 12:15 PM. in Memorial Hall. The Canada Council and the Visiting Artist Program for 1993-94 announces this year's theme as Nature Touching the Artist. As part of the program, Halifax artist John Greer has been invited to present a retrospective look at his stone sculpture installations and his sources of inspiration working with natural media. John Greer currently holds the position as Head of the Sculpture Department at the Nova Scotia College of Art and Design and has made frequent visits to Europe to work and study in the marble quarries of Italy. Refreshments will be served. Everyone is welcome and admission is free is a free space highlighting arts, entertainment and cultural events on campus and in the community...

What's Swan On

Submissions must be received by Tuesday at noon.

Here's a Deal you'll really "FALL" for...

OKTOBERFEAST!
12" WORKS PIZZA

only $8.88
 plus taxes

15 PROSPECT ST.
453-1400

REGENT MALL
450-3263

169 MAIN ST.
(NORTH)
459-1707

BROOKSIDE MALL
453-1732

* A trademark of Pizza Delight Corporation Ltd. used under license. Offer valid at participating Pizza Delight locations until November 7, 1993. Not valid in conjunction with any other discount offer. Available for Drive-In, Take-Out and Delivery where applicable. Not redeemable as cash.

SWAP TALK

STUDENT WORK ABROAD PROGRAMME

COME MEET THE EXPERTS!

TRAVEL CUTS
 Going Your Way!

November 4th
12 Noon, S.U.B.
Rm. 103 (next to Travel Cuts)

TRAVEL CUTS
Going Your Way!

The Travel Company of the Canadian Federation of Students