

Karin Kain

Ballet benefit

Mississauga's Karin Kain is taking time out from a whirlwind of international bookings to perform for the Big Brothers of Peel Region's Evening of Ballet and Art at Bramalea civic centre on Friday, Nov. 21 at 8 p.m.

The evening at which Miss Kain will perform with Frank Augustyn, also of the National Ballet Company of Canada, will give patrons an opportunity to meet the performers at intermission. Wine and cheese will also be served at this time.

An art auction, featuring oils, lithographs, etchings, water colors and reproductions will follow.

Advance tickets may be obtained by calling Big Brothers at 459-3373.

The performance will take place in the Lester B. Pearson Memorial Theatre at Bramalea civic centre at 150 Central Park Dr. in Brampton.

The evening's proceeds go to Big Brothers of Peel Region.

There are over 100 Big Brothers in Peel, who take a special interest in boys from fatherless homes. After careful screening and interviewing to make sure that the relationship would be beneficial, Big and Little Brothers are matched.

Big Brothers volunteering are asked to make a committal of at least two years, for it often takes that long to win the trust of a fatherless boy.

Mark Zomek, 7 and Steve Dykstra, 7, are wearing matching hand-knit sweaters.

Richard Wierenga, 3, among the youngest matching brother and sister outfits. Wendy DeLang, 2, and Christofer Visser, 2, were models and modelled.

Vicki Boomgardt, 3, and Tina Haaksma, 6, model a pair of cotton dress-ups.

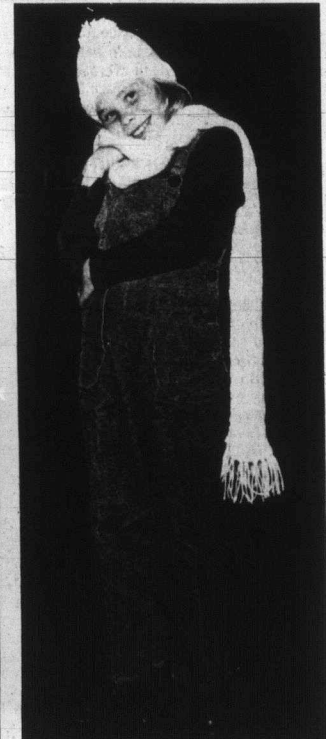

Imka Glas, 7, wore a fine cotton Victorian print with full gathered sleeves and belted with a velvet ribbon.

Anith Van-Dalen, 9, shows an embroidered apron dress with calico type print bodice.

Louise Palmer, 4, is proud of her coveralls in pretty printed cotton.

Sandra Krussie, 9, is ready for winter with hand knit scarf and toque and coveralls.

Mothers design & sew

The bazaar and fashion show at John Knox Christian school last Saturday grossed $6,500. Winner of the return trip to Amsterdam was Mrs. L. DeBonte of Clarkson.

The highlight of the day was the children's fashion show. The mothers created and sewed the fashions worn by their children. Hand knits, embroidered dress-ups and practical play clothes were shown.
