

They miss you ^{the} Marnie says she ²⁶ wished you'd come back she don't care if you do tease her you told me to write your Colonel & never told me his name

Lena is having a big time she broke a needle off in the thick part of her hand its out of sight all together she done it yesterday but couldn't get to the Dr so Elbie took her after supper tonight don't think they got back yet.

Clayton Stewart's little girl got struck in the eye at school with a rock she's in the T. J. hospital now they won't know for a couple of days if the sight is gone or not but they think it is There's supposed to be a Dr come up here to the school next Wed. to inoculate for diphtheria

All children ~~over~~ six months are supposed to have it done and grown up can have it too. I think I will want be no harm & its for two or three other things too An awful joke if we all get sick at once
