

BIBLE LESSONS FOR SCHOOLS

BY

E. M. KNOX,

PRINCIPAL OF HAVERGAL COLLEGE, TORONTO.

EXODUS.

Illustrated. Globe Svo. 1s. 6d.

Expository Times.—"Out of the multitude of books for the better teaching of the bible in schools which the press is now pouring forth, we have no hesitation in selecting 'Bible Lessons for Schools,' by E. M. Knox, Principal of Havergal College, Toronto. The volume before us is Exodus. It contains a map and some unusually good illustrations. But the value of the book lies in the author's own writing. The story is retold in excellent English and in thorough loyalty to the truth of revelation, as well as to modern scholarship."

Record.—"It is scarcely necessary to commend to readers of the Record any Bible studies by the Principal of Havergal College, Toronto. . . . They will be glad to have this little book of hers on Exodus, supplementing one of equal worth on the first book in the Old Testament."

Sunday School Chronicle.—"Will prove a very useful manual for teachers engaged in dealing with the second book of the Pentateuch. . . . The studies are very suggestive, and the spiritual lessons of the incidents are amply and skilfully drawn out."

Globe.—"May be warmly commended to parents and teachers."
