The extent of this list, and the number of new districts into which the good work of our Grand Association has penetrated, show the vast progress it has made during the past two years. Every member of the C. M. B. A. must rejoice over this advance—must rejoice to see that so many of our Catholic fellowmust rejoice over this advance—must rejoice to see that so many of our Catholic fellow-countrymen are placed in a position to reap all the benefits—religious, secial, fraternal and financial—which it gives. With the blessing of the Holy Father, so benignly given to us on the occasion of the Convention of our Grand Council in Montreal; with given to us on the occasion of the Convention of our Grand Council in Montreal; with the paternal care and advice of the distinguished prelate who rules the Archdiocese of Toronto, our Grand Spiritual Adviser, himself a member of the Association; with the sympathy, encouragement and advice of the Cardinal, Archbishops Bishops and priests of the Dominion, many of whom are members of our organization—we should feel that our Association has a special work to perform; that to us, indeed, should specially belong the watchword "Progress."

That the office of deputy is a very important one in the government of our Association, I need not point out. The care with which the duties of that office are set forth in the constitution shows the value attached to its work. I have every faith in the zeal and tact of those who have accepted the office. I commend them to the good-will and fraternal regard of the Branches in their respective districts. I look for co-operation with them on the part of the Branches—the same co-operation and loyal support which would be given to the Grand Council or to the Grand President.

Brothers, our organization is now complete. It is now our duty, one and all, to settle down to work. New Branches, new members, in larger and larger numbers must be the order of the day, so that the time may not be far distant when every parish in the Dominion will have at least one Branch of the C. M. B. A.

The resolutions asking for a separate beneficiary for Canada were presented and referred to the Committee on Laws.

Appeals of Branchs 11, N. Y., were received and referred to the Committee on Laws.

The Committee on Laws began its report on amendments to the Constitution, of which about 160 were considered and reported during the three days's session, the principal ones being the question of striking from the Constitution all clauses having reference to the granting of separate beneficiary jurisdictions, which was stricken out by a vote of 25 to 3, two members from Canada not voting.

In the question of the custody of the medical certificates, a substitute for the amendment to section four of the Beneficiary Fund Article, as submitted by Canada Grand Council, requiring all application papers and medical certificates to be filed in the office of the Supreme Recorder, was adopted by a vote of 25 to 21, the vote of the Canadian members being 3 for 2 against it. The point having been raised that the first of the foregoing amendments should not become law, having had one or more negative votes, it was held that the questions voted upon were not new matter, but had been considered at one or more Grand Councils, and required only a two-third vote. No appeal being taken from this ruiling of the chair, the amendment to the foregoing amendments to the Reserve Fund at the consideration.

Section 14, Beneficiary Fund Article, was anended as to designation is made, or an imperence of the carried and being taken from this ruiling to Grav deep being 21 to 8. The question will go to Grav deep being a two lift and paid when no designation is made, or an imperence of the carried and being a submarkes for their consideration.

Section 14, Beneficiary Fund Article, was an ended as to designation of beneficiary, so as to determine to whom the beneficiary so as to determine to who

A great many other amendments were carried, hanging the wording or making the sense more lear. changing the wording of making the sense more clear.

At the opening of the afternoon session on Tuesday, the Supreme Spiritual Adviser, Right Rev. S. V. Ryan, Bishop of Buffalo, attended the Convention, and made a short but very instructive address, expressing his pleasure at seeing so much harmony and so many different nationalities and races blended together in one Catholic brotherhood. He gave some very rare information as how Branch One was started, and the large part he had to do with it.

The ladies of St, Mary's Branch 29, L. C. B. A, were conducting a banzar for the church, and, before taking their last recess on Wednesday, tendered the Council an invitation to attend, which was accepted, as was also the invitation from Branch 1, C. M. B. A., to take a carriage drive, and Thursday afternoon fixed as the time. The Rev. P. A. Baart was Chairman of the Committee of the Whole, when all the principal amendments were under discussion.

Grand Secretary Cameron was Arsistant Secretary to Recorder Hickey.

A communication was received from Branch 13, Monroe, Mich., asking a ruling to determine whether a member removing to a piace south of the 36 of N. Latitude retained his membership. Answered affirmatively.

Representative Campeau asked if the Province of Quebec or any other Province having the requisite number of branches and members could have a Grand Council instituted.

Answered in the affirmative.

On Tuesday evening Supreme President Mulholland was obliged to leave for Chicago. The lst V.-P., C. B. Friedman, presided in his stead. The Constitution was further anended to provide that no Grand Council that would be in arrears for dues or accounts to the Supreme Council for four months or more should be entitled to representation in the Supreme Council.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the family of deceased and sen to the daily papers and the official organ and spread on the minutes of the meeting. James P. Ball, William Jamieson and N. J. Curran, Committee.

CHURCH ALTARS-The Bennet Furnishing Co., London, have just completed three magnificent altars, two intended for the church at Wallaceburg, in this diocese, of which Rev. Father Ronan is pastor, and the third for Rev. Father Kealy, of Mount Carmel parish. The work on these altars has elicited admiration from all who have seen them. The Bennet Co. make a specialty of courch furnishing, and it may be truly said that no other factory in the country gives such excellent satisfaction, as regards quality of material and artistic designing and workmansh.p. Their prices, too, are always so reasonable that wonder is expressed that such beautifully finished contracts can be completed at the figures given. The Company has now in course of construction an altar for Rev. Father Lennon, Brantford, another for Rev. Father McGee, St. Augustine, and a third for the new St. Lawrence Church, Hamilton,

We learn from the Walkerion Telescope of the 16th instant that for the first time in the history of Cocaley the service of the Roman Catholic Church was held in that village on Sunday last. The Very Rev. Father O'Connell, Dean of Walker-ton, calebrated high Mass in the town hall. A large number attended, parties coming from Walkerton, Eden Grove, Paisley, Griffia's Corners, Hanover, Vests, and North Brant, there being in the neighborhood of four hundred present altogether. The Flanagan family of Hanover furnisher music, both vocal and instrumental, being in themselves a complete choir. The temporary sitar was handsomely decorated, most of the furnishings being kindly supplied by prominent members of the Caurch of England. GENTS, - I took a severe cold, which settled in my throat and lungs and caused me to entirely lose my voice. For six weeks I suffered great pain. My wife advised me to try MINARD'S LINIMENT and the effect was magical, for after only three doses and an outward application, my voice returned and I was able to speak in the Army that night, a privilege I had been unable to enjoy for six weeks CHARLES PLUMMER,

EDITORIAL NOTES.

LIPPINCOTTS are, we understand, to publish Rudyard Kipling's longest work, which will take up some sixty pages of their magazine. The critics are anxiously awaiting its appearance. Since Kipling made his debut before the literary world every theory with regard to his ability has been formulated. Some give him a place aside Dickens, while others, with less enthusiasm, put him in company with Bret Harte. With all due respect to adverse opinion, he is, we think, more psychological than Dickens, and his pictures of India life, rivalling in freshness and vividness those of the author of "Luck in a Roaring Camp," are characterized by more definite ideas.

IN A recent issue of the RECORD we pointed out some of the advantages arising from literary clubs. A generation with lofty ideals would be the outcome. Now that the woods are dipped deep in autumn's frost and sunlight let us make good resolutions for the coming winter. Some evenings a month with our books will give us more happiness than an unceasing round of gayety. A master spirit will teach us that our soul is our paradise. What will we do, however, with our dock laborers and others who belong to no association, and, from want of sympathy, beguile their leisure hours in saloons and worse places. Agitators who make the working classes subservient to selfish ends tell them that their happiness consists in the despoiling of the rich, while others fashion ideally perfect plans which will never be worked out to completion. Man must be led by his intellect and heart, Give him something besides his own condition to think about. Look upon him as gifted with an immortal soul, and not as a mere money making autamaton, and we will have rescued him from out the social ruin. Such a result can be brought about by an association. That we are not vision. ary is proved by the existence of the "Work of the Catholic Circles in France," which, insignificant at the outset, now claims as members thousands and tens of thousands of the toiling masses.

A POPULAR writer who "lives up to his lights," that is, who regulates his conduct by any standard, except God's, denounces communism in unmeasured terms. Our friend does not evidently believe in logic. Destroy the idea of God, and what else is there worth working for but wealth? If the best be wealth, all members of a community should have their portion. Therefore "a society, which concentrates it in the hands of a few, is radically bad, and communism is justified."

DR. WINDTHORST the "grand old man" of the Catholic party in the German Reichstag, is an ideal Christian. His long and eventful life mirrors only years of pur ity and unswerving fidelity to religious convictions. When Catholicism was on the wane in Germany his voice rang loud and high for the old faith. Animated by that belief which looks first to God, he scrupled not to cast aside all human respect and to stand firm against the onslaughts of his Church's enemies. But recently in his speech at the closing of the Coblentz Congress he prefaced work with that greeting: "Praised be Jesus Christ," and from a thousand throats sang out the response : " For evermore." We would imagine it a congress of the Middle Ages and not one of our progress. ive nineteenth century.

A NEW society called the "Servants of St. Peter" has been organized at Grenoble, France, by Mgr. Pava, of that city. It will be devoted to the furtherance of the interest of the Holy See, orally and through the press. The Holy Father has sanctioned its establishment, and has accorded it several plenary indulgences. Mer. Pava, in a letter explaining the aim of the society, gives the following definition of the Papacy :

"Prepared by God the Father, founded by God the Son, guided by God the Holy Ghost, the Papacy is a divine institution guarantees religious truth to men, and labors to preserve them in the unity of celestial faith, hope and charity." One of the principal objections to the

Papal Infallibility is that Pope Honorius was branded as a heretic by the sixth General Council. This was the Gordian knot of Father Gratz at the Vatican Council, and its Alexander was the illustrious Cardinal of Westminster. The difficulty of reconciling this condemus. tion with the Pope's Infallibility comes from the misunderstanding of the term "heretic." All writers agree in censur. ing Honorius for his temporizing policy, for his want of promptness in proclaiming the true doctrine of the Church, and | ma
