SMITH BROTHERS IMPORTERS AND WHOLESALE JOBBERS OF EUROPEAN, AMERICAN, AND CANADIAN STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS AND MILLINERY, 25 DUKE STREET, HALIFAX.

As our object is to keep our STOCK WELL ASSORTED all the year round, and our Buyer being now on his way to the FOREIGN MARKETS, from whom we expect to receive Goods each week, we are in a good position to fill Sorting Orders from the Country, which we beg to solicit from the trade generally. Every such order is put up under the supervision of one of the firm.

ALL GOODS AT LOWEST MARKET RATES! "METHODISM IN EASTERN BRITISH AMERICA."

Being a History of the Rise and Progress of Methodism in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island, and the Bermudas, with collateral facts and characters in these Provinces, down to the year 1813. The second volume, now being prepared by the author, will bring the History down to the period of Union—the year 1874.

Impartial readers, not members of the Methodist Church—men of high literary standing—have pronounced this the best History Nova Scotia has ever produced. The Book has been put in the Market at a price which covers but little more than the actual expense incurred by the author in its publication.

The style is clear, methodical and often eloquent. As an accurate epitome of dates and circumstances, it has been verified by competent judges. Sold, or sent post-free, at $1.50. Discount to Ministers, Sabbath Schools and the trade, at the NOTICES OF THE PRESS. The Churches in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island, and the Bermudas have found a painstaking historian in Mr. Watson Smith, who traces their rise and progress, and chronicles the names and doings of the pioneer missionaries with loving care.—Recorder, London.

If our readers want to possess a history of heroic struggles and glorious triumphs let them procure this book. We trust that it will have a wide circulation, especially among those for whom it is chiefly written.—Argus, Charlottetown

As Methodism in the East and West is now consolidated into one organization, this history of Mr. Smith's is well adapted to make the Methodists of the West better acquainted with the origin and history of Methodism in the East, and thus bring them into closer sympathy with the work of our brethren in the East. A fuller knowledge of that work will be a bond of fraternity and unity. The volume is highly creditable to both the author and the publisher. It is got up in good style. We bespeak for it a wide circulation among the readers of the "Guardian"—Guardian, Toronto.

Is invaluable as a repository of the annals of Methodism in this country. It opens with a judicious chapter on the Origin and Characteristics of Methodism, and then, chapter after chapter, gives the history of the evangelistic efforts and operations of the Methodists, from 1769 to 1813. Mr. Smith has evidently bestowed great pains on this work. It is minute and comprehensive and appears to do ample justice to the subject. We trust his services will be heartily appreciated and that he will thus be encouraged to prosecute a task for which he seems peculiarly well qualified.—Presbyterian Witness.

It is needless to say that the book is interesting, especially so to our Methodist friends. While the main object kept in view by the author has been to present an authentic and reliable history of Wesleyan Methodism, he has necessarily embodied in his narrative many historical facts of a general character, bearing upon the condition of the country socially, morally and religiously, which are calculated to render it valuable as a history to people generally as well as to Methodists. The book is deserving of a wide circulation and careful perusal.—Chronicle, Halifax.

Its typographical appearance reflects credit upon the establishment from which it emanates. The work is ably written, and the information to be derived from it is invaluable.—Reporter, F. edricton. This work will be found a most interesting volume, especially to Methodists. The time for its appearance had fully come. Such works as Mr. Smith's, connect themselves with general literature, and they become of interest, not merely to the denominations whose careers they describe, but to every one interested in tracing the rise and progress of a people.—Reporter, Halifax.

We recommend our readers to procure it for themselves. It will do good both to their heads and their hearts.—Canada Methodist Magazine.

It would be a means of grace, as well as a source of valuable information to our people; and ought to be in every Methodist family.—Rev. C. Stewart, D. D. Prof. of Theology, Mt. Allison. This book ought to be in every Methodist Sabbath School, side by side with the first books in real merit.—Rev. D. Currie.

MESSES C GATES & Co. Gentlemen—Our little girl that was troubled with the Salt Rheum for several years, her head being covered with running sores and suffering severely, I am pleased to say by the use of your No. 2 Bitters and No. 1 Syrup has not shown any symptoms of the disease for two years, and I believe has made a perfect cure of it. We have used your Nerve Ointment for burns and scalds, your Acadian Liniment for cuts and bruises, and find them good—I might say all that they are recommended. Should you ever come this way please call and you will see for yourself.

Your's truly, JAS. C. PARLEE.
