"The Store that Fits the Feet"

The late Venerable Archdeacon Tiffany of New York bequeathed $125,000 for the erection of a suitable home for Training School for Deaconesses, to be erected on the grounds surrounding the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in that city.

An Altar and reredos of Caen stone, a reproduction of that of Exeter Cathedral, is being made in England for Christ Church Cathedral, St. Louis, Mo., costing $35,000, and $31,000 additional will be spent upon the exterior of the sacred edifice.

The general Convention of the American Church is to be held (D.V.)

in Cincinnati, next October. It is probable that the sessions will be held in the Music Hall which is capable of seating 5,400 persons and which contains one of the largest organs in the world. The adjoining Exposition buildings will also probably be used.

Canon Fausset, whose death in England, at the advanced age of 90 took place lately, gave his parishioners the following recipe for long life when he was in his eighty-eighth year: (1) They must be at peace with God; (2) keep their tongues from evil; (3) avoid strong drink.

UNLESS

The Great-West Life Assurance Company were providing particularly attractive policies, it would not—for three successive years—have written the largest Canadian Business of any Company.

Unless the funds were invested at an exceptionally favorable rate, it would be impossible to pay the unequalled profits that are being paid to Policyholders. Unless strict economy prevailed, the advantage of these high earnings would be lost.

These, and many other points of vital interest to those looking for the best obtainable in Life Insurance, are referred to in the 17th Annual Report of
