

A CHARACTER SKETCH ENTERTAINMENT

ENTITLED

Afternoon Tea in Friendly Village, 1862

CHARACTERS

Mrs.—Kelly—Village hostess. A kindly good hearted woman, rather talkative, must have a good voice and free, easy manner.

Mrs. De Vere—A stiff, dignified manner.

Mrs. Barton—A pleasant, gracious manner.

Mrs. Goodsense—A good, strong character, must have strong voice.

Mrs. Hicks—A backward, retiring woman.

Mrs. Vernon } Visitors from the city, elaborately
Mrs. Good } dressed and much given to impressing the villagers by their knowledge.

Thomas's Wife—A kindly, helpful manner.

Miss Skinning—"A man hater." Very pronounced views. A good, strong voice is necessary. This part requires the best talent.

Mrs. Runkle—An excitable woman (a telling part.)

Mrs. Meek—A quiet, gentle woman.

Mrs. Bond—Must have a clear voice.

Mrs. Donnelly—A young mother, with baby.
