

Linenburgh District.

The former Collector's Accounts have been received to June, 1804, there appears a balance due by him of £18 0 4

By a return from the present Collector, for the quarter ending 30th September last, there appears duties secured amounting to

42 4 6

Liverpool.

By a statement made by the Treasurer it appears there is a balance due by the Collector of that District, amounting to

902 11 4

Annapolis.

The old balance due by the former Collector still appears to remain unpaid, amounting to

301 5 2

An account has been received from the Executors of the late Collector Robert Dickson, by which there appears a balance due from that Estate (exclusive of Bonds transferred to the present Collector of £290 4 1) the sum of

620 5 1

The present Collector's Returns from 1st January, to 30th September last, have been received, and are correct: the duties secured by him during that period amount to

£157 13 5½

To which add amount of Bonds delivered him by Executors of the late Collector

290 4 1

£447 17 6½

Of which it appears by the Treasurer's Account he has received

50 0 0

There remains to be accounted for 397 17 6½

Shelburne.

The late Collector's Accounts have been received, and are correct, the balance due by his Executor amounts to

116 18 7½

The present Collector's Accounts have been received to the 31st December 1804, and his Quarterly Returns to 30th September last, by which there appears to remain to be accounted for by him

1040 3 5

Yarmouth.

The Collector's Accounts, to 30th September last, have been received, which are very correct: the balance in his hands to be accounted for is

199 3 2½

Cumberland.

The Collector's Accounts have been received to 7th November last: there remains in his hands

9 14 3½

Colchester.

No Returns.

Sydney.

There is a Return for March Quarter, 1805, by which there appears duties secured by the Collector amounting to

484 1 10

King's County.

The Collector's Accounts have been received to 22d November last; they are incorrect; there appears duties secured by him, to be accounted for amounting to

199 4 6