

Order the same day it is made, nor before the Members of this House in Town shall be summoned to consider of the same motion.

TWENTY-FIFTH—That Bills brought up from the House of Assembly, when reported by the President and handed to the Clerk, shall be carefully read over by him, and all verbal mistakes, if any, noticed by him to the Speaker in writing.

TWENTY-SIXTH—The President, when he speaks to the House, is always to speak uncovered, and is not to adjourn the House, or do any thing else as mouth of the House, without consent of the Members first had—except such things as are of course, wherein the Members may likewise overrule, and in case of difference amongst the Members, it is to be put to the question; and if the President will speak to any thing particularly, he is to go to his own place as a Member.

TWENTY-SEVENTH—That every Member previous to his speaking to any question or motion, or other matter before the House, shall rise from his seat uncovered, and address himself to the House.

TWENTY-EIGHTH—When a question is decided by vote, the number of both the affirmatives and negatives shall be inserted in the minutes, and also the Members' names, if desired.

TWENTY-NINTH—That the Black Rod do not permit any person to come within the House while it is sitting, except the Members and Officers attending, and the Members of the House of Assembly, and such person or persons as may receive a Ticket from any Member of this House.

THIRTIETH—That any Member who brings up a Petition, shall, in his place, acquaint the House of the general purport of such Petition, and ask leave for it to be read, which must be seconded before it is read.

THIRTY-FIRST—No Member is to speak twice to any Bill at one time of reading it, or any other proposition, unless it be to explain himself in some material point of his speech, but no new matter, and that not without leave of the House first obtained. Every Member speaks standing uncovered, and names not Members of the House commonly by their names, but "the Member that spoke last"—"last but one"—"last but two, &c.—or some other note of distinction.

THIRTY-SECOND—To have more freedom of debate, and to facilitate business, Committees are appointed either of the whole House, or of Individuals; Committees of the whole House sit in the House, but then the President sits not in the Chair as President.

THIRTY-THIRD—Every Member is to sit in his due place when the House is put into a Committee.

THIRTY-FOURTH—If it be desired by any Member that the House be put into Committee, it ought not to be refused.

THIRTY-FIFTH—That every Member who shall introduce a Bill, Petition, or motion, upon any subject which may be referred to a Committee, shall be one of the Committee, without being named by the House.

THIRTY-SIXTH—That in a Committee of the whole House, the Rules of the House shall be observed in so far as they may be applicable, excepting the Rule limiting the times of speaking; and that no motion for the previous question, or for adjournment, can be received, but a member may at any time move that the Chairman do leave the Chair, or report some progress made, and ask for leave to sit again.

THIRTY-SEVENTH—That no Bill, Resolution, or other proceeding founded upon any application addressed to the House of Assembly, be sustained by the Council, unless an application to the same effect, with such documents as may accompany the same, be also presented to the Council in General Assembly.
