MARTIN IS BACK BY BIG MAJORITY IN SASKATCHEWAN

Will Have Probably 45 out of 63 Seats When Dust Clears After Vote

NO GROUP GOVERNMENT

Liberal Lead Cut Down in Small Degree—No Conservatives so Far Elected

REGINA, June 10.—Hon. George Langley, Minister of Municipal Affairs, and the Saskatchewan Government, was defeated in Redberry by George Cockburn, Independent. This is now conceded. Mr. Cockburn has more than a hundred majority with one poll to come. Langley was the only minister to meet defeat. It is thought he may be a candidate in one of the deferred elections.

REGINA, June 10.—Saskatchewan decided yesterday not to experiment with group government, and returned Premier Martin's government to office giving him a majority less sweeping than the one which followed his leadership during the last legislature, but sufficiently large to make him independent of all opposition alignments.

The government supporters will number about 5 in a legislature of 63 when three deferred elections have been held, in the view of the political authorities. Latest figures are: Government, 42; Independent, 15; Conservative, 2; Labor, 1; Deferred, 3.

Hon. George Langley was defeated in Redberry by George Cockburn. With two polls to be heard from, Cockburn had a majority of 13 over the Minister, and it was admitted that they could not overcome this lead. The suggestion has been made that Mr. Langley may be a candidate in one of the deferred elections.

Harris Turner, leader of the men in the Independent movement, was elected in Saskatoon city, but W. T. Badger, associated with him in the movement was defeated by J. A. Wilson in Redberry.

Mrs. Sarah Ramsland, the only woman in the field, was elected for Pelly, in a four-cornered contest, in which she defeated a Conservative, an Independent and a Non-partisan. She sat in the last legislature.

When U. E. L. Came to Bay of Quinte

Mr. W. S. Herrington of Napanee Speaks on Subject on Which he is Authority

Echoes of the "good old days" when whiskey was 30 cents a gallon; when an "election day in Bath, which lasted a week—every one of the 67 taverns were going full blast, were heard at the Lions' Club supper last evening at the Quinte, first Mr. W. S. Herrington, of Napanee, recounted in interesting fashion, events of early days in this part of the world.

He is the outstanding authority on the early history of the Bay of Quinte and his books take the rank of text books. Mr. Herrington speaks as well as he writes and consequently the Lions' Club had an interesting half-hour.

The letters U. E. L. written after one's name, were originally a title, a mark of honor, signifying that the name in question had stood loyally behind the Royal cause of the King complete list of U. E. Loyalists was prepared under the direction of Governor Simcoe and J. P.'s of that time were commissioned to make a list of Loyalists. Later the U. E. Loyalists were granted lands and their division of lots in front townships led to some controversy over who should be owners.

The Mohawk Indians were the first U. E. Loyalists to move in, a band under its own chief reaching the Bay of Quinte three weeks before any Britishers marched in. Deseronto is named after this chief, the name being "Angitieda. There were about 8000 Loyalists who came in from New York, many of them disbanded troops, under their old officers.

Deseronto and especially the village of Bath were prominent places before Belleville was known and Mr. Herrington dwelt on the glories of Bath in the old days.

The first mill in this part of Canada was at Napanee. Belleville was not then even surveyed and the Durham highway went through Prince Edward County, skipping this section because there were no roads and no bridge.

ASSEMBLY SEES PEACEFUL CLOSE; CONNOR LAODED

Today Finds Delegates Scattering to Homes all Over Dominion

LAMBETH APPEAL UP

United Church of Canada is Brought Distinctly Nearer by Debates

TORONTO, June 10.—Presbyterians whose deliberations at the General Assembly here were the subject of Dominion-wide comment for the past week were scattered today, some back home, some on trains carrying them to more distant parts, but all were agreed, doubtless, that the Toronto general assembly would go down in history as one of the most important ever held.

The assembly voted almost four to one for church union and made the minimum pay for ministers $1,800.

A Peaceful Closing

But from the peaceful atmosphere which pervaded the closing scenes of the 47th Presbyterian General Assembly in St. James' Square, Church last evening, one could never have supposed that it had passed through the throes of a debate which threatened to cleave the church in twain. The momentous issue of church union had been decisively pronounced upon, the vision of a United Church of Canada brought nearer, the realization, the Moderator, in his closing speech, predicted that the Toronto General Assembly would, in after years, be regarded as an historic one.

One of the most important reports passed upon during the day was that of the Committee on the Lambeth Conference appeal on Church reunion. The Assembly authorized the holding of local conferences with the Anglican and other churches on the question of the reunion of Christendom, and more particularly on the proposals of the Lambeth Conference.

The Assembly adopted a strongly worded resolution condemning race-track gambling, and declaring that the Federal Government was responsible for the continuance of this vice by refusing to make it an offence against the Criminal Code.

Knox College Professors

A warm discussion took place at the afternoon session over the resignation of the Board of Education to recommend the appointment of a professor of religious education to Knox College. It is understood that the attitude of the board was due to its looking forward to the carrying into effect of the co-operation among the colleges as proposed by the report of the Church Union Committee.

Commissioners of all shades of opinion were unanimous in their praise of Darling's dignified, manly and unimpaired and dignified manner in which the Moderator has presided over the deliberations of the Assembly. It was freely stated that "Knox Connor" had proved himself an ideal master of assemblies.

The opening day of the Argyll Light Infantry Tennis Club was a very successful social event of yesterday. Many of the younger set in town were there and enjoyed a cup of tea and a bite of food. While the more strenuously inclined players mostly mixed doubles on the turf courts which for so early in the season, were in excellent condition. Mrs. McManus, wife of Capt. D. T. McManus, Adjutant of the Regiment and president of the club, presided at the tea table and assisting were Miss Ruth Sinclair, Miss Pearl Smith, Miss Phyllis McManus, Miss Sylvia Pinkerton, Miss Georgie Springer, Miss Currie, and others.

The Armouries lawn presented a gay appearance and many comments were heard to the effect that the courts there with their implied suggestion of gaiety and life were a decided improvement over their former condition of "splendid isolation."
