

LISTOWEL STANDARD. FRIDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1880.

The death of Senator Christie has created a vacancy in the representation of one of the western districts in the Senate. Hon. John Carling has been suggested as a worthy person for the honorable position.

The discussion of the Syndicate agreement has been the chief topic of discussion in the House during the past week. The Opposition has exhausted itself in a futile effort to create a "scare" over the agreement, and is tending down to more agreement in their own minds.

On Monday next the nomination of Candidates for municipal honors for the incoming year will take place. Up to the present time there has been comparatively little stir in municipal matters.
