POPULAR RULE RESTORED AGAIN IN NICARAGUA

For Twenty Years Autocracy and Revolution has Hindered Free Rule.

PRESIDENT STANDS ONLY ONE TERM
Right of Free Speech is Granted and Meetings Are in Order.

Managua, Nicaragua, April 14.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—The people of Nicaragua are to be given the right to elect their own president and to make such a condition as the selection of a president. That will be a remarkable state of affairs for Nicaragua where, for twenty years dictatorship and revolt on have interlarded and made such a condition impossible. As the Secretary of State expressed it in an official letter when he dismissed the Nicaraguan Minister from the United States in 1909: "It is equally notorious that under the regime of President Zelaya, republican institutions have ceased to exist in Nicaragua except in name, that public opinion and the press have been strangled and that prisons have been the price of every demonstration of patriotism."

President Diaz has just issued an announcement through the press, and says he will make it official by a proclamation in the Official Gazette, that "it has been the basis of my program of government to restore in Nicaragua all the republican practices." To that end, he continues, the most important is the succession of one-term presidents in the Executive Power, selected by popular will.

As the presidential election in Nicaragua occurs October 1, next, and as politics are warming and the parties are gathering themselves together, this announcement is most significant. The present generation, except the older people who were active before 1898, know nothing of a popular discussion of candidates for the presidency, of a free registration of votes, or of any expression of the popular will. Such things were not permitted under President Zelaya from 1888 to 1910.

The Provisional Government which gained force that year adopted a new constitution for a republican form of government, providing that the presidential term should be four years and an incumbent could not practice himself, thus restoring the practice in Nicaragua for the quarter century preceding Zelaya.

The President now declares that the one-term provision will be carried out, which means that he will retire, and states further that the free expression of the popular will in the future will be guaranteed by the Government "with the same care that I have taken, that the other guarantees which the constitution gives to the citizens shall be respected."

He says that there is further guarantee the free exercise of proper meetings provided that it be done with decorum and in lawful manner. He calls attention to his instructions to the Jefe Politico (Governors) of the Departments last month that all citizens who desired to register will be given further opportunity on two days in May.

The Liberals, which is the party in opposition, are already taking advantage of the President's declaration that free discussion will be permitted, by organizing clubs and calling meetings. The Conservatives are doing the same. So there is good prospect of a six months lively campaign. Some of the Liberals seem a little stunned by the announcement that free speech will be permitted, so that most of the present high officials of the Government, who are Conservatives, spent more or less time in prison or in exile for indulging in free speech in the regime of Zelaya the significance of President Diaz's announcement can be appreciated. It marks a new epoch for Nicaragua.

SPRING FISHING.
Anglers in all parts of the country are now getting their fishing paraphernalia ready for the opening of the spring call. An objective point that will appeal to fishermen in Algonquin Park, (200 miles north of Toronto, and 170 miles west of Ottawa), where fine sport is assured, is the "Highland Inn" at Algonquin Park Station. It will open this year for the reception of guests in a new and more comfortable and descriptive, literature free on application to T. J. Nelson, G.T.R. Ticket Agent.
