Lodge Notes

Some 31 members have enlisted to date, one of whom, Corp. Claude Charlton, made the supreme sacrifice and lies buried somewhere in Belgium. Several more are overseas and in the trenches. Progressive eulogies occupied the time during the early part of the evening. Bros. Howell and Cameron being the lucky prize winners and each were presented with a pipe by Noble Grant, Col. Page. Through the kindness of Bro. Cameron, local agent G.N.W. Telegraph Co. Messrs Bodell and Chalk were present and gave a most interesting illustrated talk on the "Story of the Telegraph" which was enjoyed by every one present. During the evening, Bro. Richards sang several solos. Bro. Fred J. Porter presided at the piano. Light refreshments brought the evening's pleasure to a close, all wishing Mohawk continued prosperity.

WAS A COAL PASSER
Since the world loves a lover, the announcement of the engagement of Prince George of Battenberg to the Countess of Mountbatten is of unusual interest. At this time in particular there is a special interest in the contracting parties owing to the position they occupy in the world drama now being enacted. Prince George, who is a naval officer, is a son of Prince Louis of Battenberg, who was compelled to resign as First Lord of the British Admiralty shortly after the outbreak of the war, owing to his German connections. The young man in question is a democratic youth, absolutely devoid of side, and won the friendly approbation of the British people a short time ago through having his picture in the papers as a coal passer on the battleship New Zealand. The young lady to whom he is engaged is a daughter of the Grand Duke Michael Michailovich. She has spent practically her entire life in England.

He decided to attack against the enemy's front and flanks with three battalions, keeping one in reserve. The 125th battalion is the right battalion of the three detailed, and will make the attack on the enemy's left flank. The frontage allotted to it is from the river bank to Birkett's Lane inclusive.

Atlanta garbage crematory is to be municipally operated. Little Rock, Ark., is to build a public auditorium this year.

THE "PANAMA"

Again the wide-brimmed Panama comes forward as a favored fancy in summer hats. And why not, since its becomingness to the wearer is unquestioned? Its popularity reigns supreme.

The smart effect created by draping vari-colored silk scarfs in Roman stripes and gay plaids is chic beyond compare. The picture illustrates the idea, but fails to show the color picturesque-ness of the scarf.

Just beneath the surface of the pleasant, cheery atmosphere here is the restlessness of a store organization touched with high ideals and inspired with the spirit of achievement in the work at hand. As a stone cast into a still pool creates ever-widening circles, that eventually reach the shore, so ambition spreads out in this store until, through action, worth-while deeds are done—the Shore of Accomplishment reached.

This is a store of action—there are no "Dreamers" in it. Workers—not shirkers—make up its well-trained ranks, whose slogan is "Dare, Do, Accomplish."

William H. Moore, founder of the 5 and 10 cent stores which have spread throughout the world has lately died at his home in Watertown, Mass. He was honorary vice-president of the F. W. Woolworth Company, with its eight hundred and fifty stores scattered throughout the United States, Canada and Great Britain, and an annual turnover of over $76,000,000. Away back in 1876 Mr. Moore was operating a general store in Watertown, N.Y., and in a desire to improve his failing business opened a 5 and 10 cent store, putting Mr. F. W. Woolworth in charge of the department. Young Woolworth made a success of it and later, with the financial assistance of Mr. Moore, launched out on his own account. Later on he attained such a success that he absorbed the business of his former employer, who became associated with the Woolworth enterprises.
