NEWS FROM NORFOLK COUNTY

Fire Swept Penman Woollen Plant Yesterday Morning

(From our own Correspondent) Port Dover, Feb. 15 .- Fire from some unknown cause broke out in the attic of the Penman's Limited woollen mills here and was discovered at 9 a.m. The sprinkler system went into operation promptly, and with the assistance of the employees the last flames were extinguished at 11 o'clock. When it became evident that the flames were being brought under control, the Simcoe fire brigade, who had been called for assistance, was warned as the chemical and hose wagon was being loaded on a flat car at the north station. There will be considerable damage from water to the stock in process in the plant. The mill here employs about 90 operators and is the largest factory in the serve to keep alive the movement for waterworks installation at the earliest practical moment. (From our own Correspondent Simcoe, Feb. 15 .- The call of Port Dover, for assistance to fight fire in the Penman plant met with a ready response. The chemical truck and hose wagons were taken to the G.T.R. depot, and the railway responded by placing a flat car to convey the apparatus to the port. The good news that the fire was under control came before the equipment was loaded.
