Progressive merchants advertise in the BULLERIX. It has by far the largest circulation and is constantly adding new subscribers. During this busy season merchants should secure their holiday space now as it will be restricted on account of pressure on our columns.

Drs. Hebb and Morse have purchased the Drug business, opened in Chester by Dr. A. F. Whitford who leaves on account of ill health. A first class up-to-date drug store will be run under the management of Drs. Hebb and Morse in connection with their practice.

The special train which left here this afternoon at 1.30 o'clock, will not leave Lunenburg until 9 o'clock. Any person wishing to hear the new Chimes of St. John's Church may go in on the regular train which leaves here at 5.47, and return on the special. Fare for the round trip 60 cents.

F. B. Wade, M. P., K. C., solicitor for Mackenzie & Mann, and C. E. Foss, C. E., attended the railway meeting at Middleton on Thursday evening. On Friday they drove to Caledonia, Mr. Wade proceeding to Matiland that evening and next morning Mr. Foss left for Bridgewater. -Liverpool. Advance Nov. 12th.

The Gold Hunter says: "There are no idle persons in Nova Scotia. Contractor Sorette had one hundred and fifty men at work on our railway, counted Thursday noon. He sent to Cape Breton for one hundred men, offering to pay their passage here, but the answer came—all employed. Try Newfoundland, and still the answer came—all at work. None to spare."

The Lunenburg Daily News says: "Mr. Frank Powers placed before the meeting of the Lunenburg Board of Trade, a proposal received by him from Yarmouth parties, stating that if he could furnish a reliable Captain and 20 good fishermen, the owners would give their steamer trawler Messenger to be used in the pursuit of the fresh fish business from Lunenburg. Nothing definite was decided."

William Foley son of Charles Foley of this town was married at New Canada on the 13th, last by the Rev. Mr. Webb, to Miss Nettie Conrad of Cook's Branch. The bride wore a handsome blue camel's hair gown trimmed with white satin with hat to match and looked very charming. After the ceremony the young couple drove to the residence of the groom's parents where a number of guests were invited to meet them. A repast was served to which ample justice was done. The bride received a number of elegant and useful presents.

Morton; Song, by Miss Almada Corcum; Dialogue, by Miss Susie Smith, R. O. Wisener and Fred Bent. After the program was over, games were played and refreshments served. About 60 guests were present who thoroughly enjoyed the entertainment.

Dominion of Canada bills of denunciation of one dollar, bearing the pictures of Lord and Lady Aberdeen on either side of the logging scene, and bearing the number 533,346, are in general circulation, and are all forgeries but one. The genuine bills are of the issue of March 31st, 1898, which date also appears on the counterfeit bill. Dominion of Canada two-dollar bills and Dominion of Canada five-dollar bills of the same issue, but with varying numbers, printed on private presses, are also in the pockets of many people, and are as worthless as those of the smaller denominations. A couple of suspected counterfeiters have been arrested at Toronto.

The 23rd, of November will be World's Temperance Sunday—the day of the year when we should especially strive to teach Temperance in the Sunday School. The lesson will be taken from Isaiah 28th, 1-13, and will afford a grand opportunity of showing the danger of using strong drink. In view of the organized effort put forth by the liquor-sellers since the Dominion Plebiscite on the Temperance and the consequent increase in the use of liquors throughout the country, everyone who is engaged in instructing boys and girls in the Sunday school should teach this lesson most faithfully and use their utmost influence to have them sign the pledge, since it is from the ranks of the young that the drunkards are made.

The following is taken from the Journal of Education Oct. 1902. "The legislature in 1900 empowered school sections at their annual or special meetings to assess themselves for books for a library, thus putting public libraries in school houses on the same plane as the more elementary school work. The books in school libraries are supposed to be taken by those attending school, to be used by their parents or older brothers and sisters." Instead of calling on the school board to provide this, the teachers propose to endeavor to obtain funds for this purpose by a series of entertainments. Not having a hall large enough to accommodate all the pupils at once, they have been divided. The pupils of the high school, preparatory, shipyard and St. Philips giving the first in about two weeks, and the remaining departments a little later. This method of raising funds entails a large amount of extra work upon the teachers, as not one particle of this preparation is done until after school hours. Not having had such an entertainment for so long, the teachers ask the pupils to be even more critical, and to evening of the entertainment should excel in every respect, please be so kind as to be up to the level, please be so kind as to be up to the level, please be so kind as to be up to the level.

Mad Mullah is Knowing. LONDON, November 11.—The Mullah is not so very "mad" after she says that some time before the present uprising an English man-of-war was sent to demonstrate off the coast, and at night threw a search-light on to the jungle-covered mountains. Abdullah was in hiding there, and knowing from his visits to Aden what it was that his followers hailed as a new star, told them that the light was seeking him. When the electric rays actually flooded his encampment he cried in triumph: "Will you deny now that I am not under the eye of God?" The Somali fell on their knees, beat the earth with their foreheads and replied: "Thou art truly the Elect the Chosen, the Mullah, the Master our goods, our existence, our souls belong to thee. We place ourselves at the disposition of thy will." A few weeks later came the news of the rising of some 4,000 of these Somali.

Will Prosecute Perry. BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 13.—It seems probable to-night that instead of the Commonwealth proceeding ultimately against George L. O. Perry, the negro on charge of having murdered Miss Clara A. Morton, the Government would prosecute the young man on a charge of killing Miss Agnes McPhee in Somerville. This the result of the evidence the police have succeeded in obtaining today in the case of death of Miss McPhee and of the brief that the Commonwealth's case against Perry for the murder of Miss Morton is not as strong as it at first appeared to be. The main evidence in the McPhee case will come from the young woman to whom the defendant gave the chain which belonged to Miss McPhee's watch.

Borned Father's Body. VIENNA, Nov. 12.—An extraordinary instance of the superstition which is so prevalent among the peasantry of Hungary is reported from the village of Gross Zorlenz, near Reschitz. The house of a widow, named Pova, had been lately repeatedly stoned and the police were unable to discover the culprit. The widow's young son, becoming possessed of the idea that his father rose from his grave nightly and bombarded his former home, went to the cemetery, dug up the corpse, dragged it nearly a mile and buried it. The boy was arrested.
