It is understood that Peter Laba-die will be urged to become a candi-date for school trustee. Mr. Labadie would make an excellent representatil and school board will be held at the town half on Friday, the 22nd inst. The township nominations will take place on the same date.

At Tuesday evening's meeting of the town council the following returning officers were appointed for the ensuing elections:—W. E. Hall, W. B. Tedford, R. M. Thompson and Geo. J. Gibb. The merchants of Blenheim are already making elaborate preparations for the Christmas season, and the many handsome windows are already beautifully bedecked in holiday attire.

The following Blenheim and Harwich jurors have been attending the sessions in Chatham this week: — Otis Nichol, J. Oglet C. Padbury, W. A. Patterson, David Samson, Wm. Robertson, Geo. L.. Russell and Louis Roesch. A HEALTHY TOWN.

A HEALTHY TOWN.

The annual report of Dra S. G. Storey, medical health officer, was presented at the meeting of the town council last evening. The physician reports the gratifying fact of the total absence of contageous diseases during the year, a physical and financial cause for satisfaction. There has been only one complaint of unsanitary premises during the year, which Health Inspector Grant promptly disposed of. Dr. Storey pays a tribute to Mr. Grant's prompt efforts and suggests attention to drainage or sewerage for the town in order to insure age for the town in order to insure

The last meeting of the town council was held last evening, for the purpose of winding up the year's business. Wm. McLarty has sold the rear portion of lot 16, of Con. 1, E. C. R., to Loammi Burke. The papers were made out by Barrister Gosnell.

A big fall of snow here on Thursday night presaged the appearance of sleighs and cutters on the streets yesterday. The sleighing was really excellent, while the little folks are using the Powell house hill for tobogganing

The executors of the Ann Mills estate, Cedar Springs, have sold the house and lot in that place to Samuel Rigley, of Blenheim. The sale was negotiated through Barrister R. L.

News of the death of Archibald Benedict, an old Blenbeim citizen, reached here yesterday. His death took place at the residence of his description in at the residence of his daughter in Rapid City, Mich., on the 12th inst.

BLENHEIM GRAIN MARKET. Mayor Peter Haggart, grain and provision merchant, yesterday gave The Planet the following market quotations:—Beans $1.18 to $1.20; wheat 65 to 66c, dressed hogs $5, clover seed $5 to $5.25. Deliveries are steady but not very brisk.

GOOD SCHOOL WORK.

Last week the secretary of the school Last week the secretary of the school board received from Inspector Colles and handed to the treasurer, a check from the government for $80; and another from the county for $50, these amounts having been earned by the continuation work done during the past year. This is in addition to the regular grant for public school work regular grant for public school work, and is the best possible proof of the high standing now held by the school.

GUNNING ACCIDENT. George, the young nephew of George George, the young nephew of George Flood, met with a painful and serious accident yesterday. He was out hunting south of Blenheim with a companion and his gun accidentally discharged while the lad was climbing a fence, the shot piercing his right hand: Drs. Langford and Hanks were immediately summonded and dressed the wound. It is hoped the hand may be saved.

Yesterday afternoon Police Magis, trate Gosnell communicated to the Crown Attorney the facts as reported to him in the Chapple case for alleged wife alienation, previously noted in these columns. Magistrate Gosnell has not yet taken the police court information against Chapple, preferred by Grimsoll, of Wallaceburg, believing that the Crown Attorney should take initiatory action investigating the full facts.

AN OYSTER SUPPER

Last evening at the conclusion the closing statutory meeting of the Harwich council the members adthe closing statutory meeting of the Harwich council the members adjourned to John Pickering's restaurant, where the popular clerk, George Baird, tendered them a complimentary oyster supper, a most relishable bill-of-fare being provided. There were present, Reeve M. Wilson, and Councillors Peter Morrison, Richard Young, E. B. Tole and C. K. Campbell, Secretary Geo. Baird and Treasurer Jas. Leslie, A. Denholm, of the News, L. Appleford, of the Tribune, Police Magistrate R. L. Gosnell and a representative of The Planet. A most congenial time was spent by all present. The council had good reason to congratulate themselves, Mr. Baird'sfinancial statement showing a surplus of some $9,000 notwithstanding the lower rate this year, the drainage improvement work and the list of uncollected taxes.

TOWN COUNCIL.
