London, March 15.—Every part of Westminster Abbey, House of Parliament, the great structures of public offices and clubs and dwelling houses were violently shaken, to night, by a tremendous explosion. At 9 o'clock precisely, a great detonation was heard, followed by a crash of glass falling from thousands of windows. A deliberate attempt had been made to blow up part of the Government offices, occupied by Sir Charles Dilke and the Local Government Board, in the immense building bounded by Parliament street, Downing street, Charles street and St. James Park. The apartments in question front on Charles street, and are almost level with the pavement. The walls are of great thickness and of solid masonry and the windows protected
