

ALL tment in the city, and RESS GOODS ever imantage of buying goods ESALE PRICES, as the ouyers enable us to give the graves touched on any account. Nowhere could Penn's remains rest so suitably as beneath the elms of the quiet spot where with others he had worshipped in un-quiet and dangerous times, and where

THE REMAINS WOULD STAY WHERE THEY ARE

do in the matter,

he officials of Dublin Castle have not nd thirdare those of Isaac Pe any intelligence from the district since morning. The last telegram stated that the polici and his wife, the fourth is that of Penn's wife, Gulielma Maria ; the fifth bears the names o William Penn and his second wife. To molest parrack had been attacked, and ass argently asked for. Another body of troop with artillery if required, will leave Cork the morning for Skibbereen. any of those graves, to molest most of all the chief among them, that of William Penn, William Penn, would be a desecration. Such was the opin-ion of all with whom I spoke, Americans as well as English. They would not like to see

A soldier belonging to the Scots Greys, while riding along the quays of Dublin to-day, was savagely attacked by a man, who dragged him from his horse and stabbed him several times. The soldier was taken to the hornital encioned The Times arraigns the leaders of the Land League and their abettors, including Arch-bishop Croke and Parnell, as having conspired to defy the law. The article severely cen-sures the Archbishop for his recent course, inciting the peasantry to insubordination, and points out that it is not alone the landlords LONDON, June 4. Timothy Harrington, the proprietor of the Kerry Sentinel, was arrested under the Co-ercion Act this morning. Harrington was elected chief organizer of the Land League after the arrest of Davitt, and has been at tending the sheriffs' sales throughout the country on behalf of the League. There is SERIOUS BIOT AT CORK. Land League and five of its members were arrested to day under the Coercion Act. The condition of the country grows worse and

A BRUTAL ASSAULT. Yesterday a party of men brutally assaulted a servant of the farmer Denpsey who was murderously attacked in the county of Gal-way recently. Two farmers have been ar-rested charged with the assault. THE "TIMES" ON THE SITUATION of Commons is simply astounding. It is now necessary to vindicate the authority of the law."

A serious riot occurred at Cork last even-ing in which the houses in two streats were completely wrecked....

the grave, many into the workhouse, and many to the great Republic of the west, bearerate grazing season.

many to the great Republic of the west, bear-ing with them undying hatred to the country that banished them from their native land. (Great cheering.) At the same time, if the evictions are to go on, I would advise you how to act. Do not bring yourselves into collision with the authorities. They are too strong for you. If not even for conscience also for our our proceeding for the present. POSITION AND AIMS OF THE LAND LEAGUE.

Mr. Dillon's letter to the Speaker of the House of Commons from Kilmainham gaol is officially published. Mr. Dillon enquires whether a question of privilege does not arise strong for you. If not even for conscience sake, for our own preservation-for the sake of expediency, if not of prin-ciple-we must act on the defen-sive. We must offer passive resistance to those opposed to us, and in that way they will get tired of the contest, because a whole united people have never yet been defeated." In the evening his Grace entered fully into the present cinthe, there are two other distinguished clergymen attached to the Gallican Church in the Rue d'Arras, one a young American priest from New Orleans, who preaches equal-ly well in French and English. This rapidly-growing church has need of funds for its de-velopment and extension. It is mainly for this reason that Père Hyacinthe is going to America He declared that the antation was not due to Davit nor Parnell, not to their followers, but to the fact that there was a weighty grissance, and these there was a weighty grissance, and these there is a population fact contemplated it manually and were deter-mined to removert. Without the priesthood must succeed.

THE EXTERMINATION

LONDON, June 5. At a police court on Saturday a man calling

Among them were Dr. King, of Baltimore, Mr. S. C. Thorn, of Baltimore, Mr. Amos Hains, of New York, and nearly a dozen others. I found a group of gentlemen gathered about one of the inprotending graves, arge proportion of the grain crop is deficient in the plant, and the present prospect is for a late and not very prolific harvest, while there will be an inferior hay crop and a modor gravestones I should say, for there was hardly a mound to indicate where a body had been laid. It bore the simple inscription, A Paris despatch says:—Père Hyacinthe sails for the United States in September, having been invited by members of different churches to give a series of conferences in the larger cities of America. Madame Loyson accompanies him. In addition to Père Hya-cinthe, there are two other distinguished chargement attached to the Galliane Church in

"WILLIAM PENN, 1718."

"WILLIAM PENN, 1718." A few years ago a stranger would have been mable to distinguish the grave of William Penn 'from the surrounding grass-covered hillocks. No sign declared the former rank and character of the sleeper; wild flowers grew alike over all. It was Granville Penn, of Stoke Pogis, the great-grandsou of William Penn, who sug-gested the erection of a small stone to mark the resting place of his ancestor. This advice was adopted. Headstones mark not only the grave of Penn, but those of his two wives, his children, his relatives, his intimate associates, and his fellow-laborrers. The creater number of graves remain anmarked by stones. Only fifteen stones of William

The Scots Guards are in readiness to move again to any part of the country at three hours' notice. Army service corps waggons, with the full complement of attendants, are being forwarded to the disturbed districts as rapidly as they arrive from England. There is every probability that the force in garrison in Dublin will be augmented by another battalion of Guards to-morrow. The Dublin flying column goes out in full marching order or what is ostensibly a practice march, but there are rumors that the troops will not return to the city. Disturbances were apprehended to - day at Mullingar where a proclamation similar to that which has been issued at New Pallas has been published, and at Clonmel, where the sales adjourned from last week, will take place. A later telegram from Cork states that three miles of telegraph wires have been torr down. The force which left Cork to-night is

ACK SILKS, and $1.50. ORONTO. NNG M'CHINE

e noise-not enough to wake the n ckel-plated balance who will be found all the improve and adapted to the oll ral make it a point to ery Machine warranted for five

STREET WEST.

AWSON, Manager.

Live Stock.

R SALE. BRED AND CARRIAGE HORSES. SHIRE CATTLE, AND RED BERKSHIRE PIGS. DAWES & CO., Lachine, Province of Quebec.

KLY MAIL, printed and published reday morning by THE MAIL PRINT AT, at their Printing House, corner and Bay strate, Torenta, G. Ba Bay stres others arrested were brought up at the petty whether a question of privilege does not arise on his arrest, and says Mr. Forster read an sessions, and remanded. POLITICAL AND RELIGIOUS LEAGUES.

sixteen men. These, however, had managed to get rid of their guns. They were brought back, handcuffed, and marched in the midst of the police from house to house as the writs were served. This had the desired effect, and no further obstruction was given to the police till they were returning home to Ennis. About ten o'clock, at Fort Anbeg, within two miles of Tulla, the police got off the cars to walk up a steep hill. At the turn of the road an armed party was lying in wait, and im-mediately opened fire on the police from an adjoining wood. No less than forty shots were counted in regular file-firing order, the bullets whizzing over the heads of the Dolice, fortunately doing no injury. The police briskly returned the fire, but with what effect is not known. About a quarter of a mile further on they were again fired on by another armed party from behind some hedges, and one of the horses in the car on which sat county in-spector Smith was shot dead. The police made a search through the fields, and three men were arrested, but they had no arms.

The tenant of Fort Anbeg was one of the party, and his son and a servant. The inaccurate report of Mr. Dillon's speech. He Cardinal Manning told a deputation of the declares it did not afford justification for his Catholic League of the Cross that he had not arrest. The Speaker replied that as Mr. Dil-lon's letter did not relate to a matter of ordered the refusal of the use of club halls for Land League meetings, but desired that the League of the Cross as a body should not ally privilege he had not thought it necessary to lay it before the House. itself with political movements.

ARCHBISHOP CROKE'S TRIUMPHAL RETURN ANOTHER RIOT AT CLONMEL. HOME.

Away with tyrants! Too long the country has been robbed of its natural wealth to feed the lazy few who call themselves landlords."

A TROOPER STABBED.

considerable excitement, and more arrests are expected. The secretary of the Ballinamore hospital, seriously injured.

more threatening every day

At Clonmel the military entertained the representatives of the Emergency Com-mittee at the barracks, and the com-Archbishop Oroke has returned to Thurles. after delivering a series of speeches on the land question, which the Opposition journal mittee at the paracks, and the com-mittee were afterwards escorted to the station by the military and the police. An enormous mob assembled, and the escort were assailed with a terrible volley of stones. assert would have led to his arrest if deliver ed by any other than a Catholic bishop. He was met two miles from Thurles by a band of was met two miles from Thurles by a band of musicians, and 3,000 people, with flags and banners bearing patriotic Irish inscriptions. He was brought in procession to the archi-episcopal palace, and the people were with difficulty restrained from taking the horses from the carriage and drawing it themselves. One soldier was dangerously hurt. A HERCULEAN TASK.

At a Cabinet Council to-day Mr. Forster Secretary for Ireland, was the only member who was absent. He is detained in Dublin

A HOME RULE MEMBER SUSPENDED. reason of the alarming condition of affairs In the House of Commons, while putting that city and throughout Ireland. The Cabinet meeting was protracted to an unusual length, and is believed to be of exceptional im-portance. Sir Henry James, Q.C., Attorney-General, who is not a member of the Cabinet, uestion to Ministers, Mr. O'Con called to order for using the word "men-dacious." Mr. O'Kelly, Home Ruler, there-upon applied the epithet "calumnious" and "lying" to several members of the House, upon applied the epithet "calumnious" and "lying" to several members of the House, and his suspension for the remainder of the sitting was moved by Mr. Gladstone, and car-ried by 188 to 14. Mr. O'Kelly withdrew quietly. Mr. Parnell gave notice that he would call attention on Friday to the circum-stances of the suspension of Mr. O'Kelly. On motion of Mr. Gladstone to take recess until the 0th the Comparison prime spinol was sent for, and took part in the discussion on Irish affairs. It has leaked out that at the meeting to-day the members were great-ly excited, and that a rupture was with diffi-culty prevented. Sir Henry James, it is ted, was sent for in order to ascertain whether in his opinion the Government could proceed to still more stringent measures in the enforcement of the Coercion Act. He is said to have replied that if the Government wishes to suppress the Land League it should the 9th, the Conservatives members raised a heated discussion on the state of Ireland. Sin William Harcourt, replying to an attack by Sir Stafford Northcote, denied the charges of concealment and lack of information, and ac-caneed Sir Stafford Northcote of desiring to be prepared to imprison nearly the whole population of Ireland.

ANOTHER OUTRAGE. embarrass the Government by causing alarm, and adding to the difficulties of the grave cir-Lord Dunsandle's son was fired upon at New Loughrea to-day, and was wounded. There was great excitement in Galway in cumstances already existing. Mr. Gladston DUBLIN, June 3.

said vigorous steps were adopted by the Irish Executive yesterday for dealing with the re-sistance to law, including that at the castle near New Pallas. Sir Stafford Northcote The most imposing military display in the I is hand war since the Boycott expedition was made to-day in the eviction of three tenants of Col. Hare near New Pallas, County Limerick. A large military train, consisting said the statement was not reassuring. Mr. Forster's absence must of itself, he said, cause anxiety. Mr. Gladstone's motion to take recess was agreed to. of 350 Coldstream Guards, 100 Scots Guards, and an ambulance corps, headed by Surgeon-Major Felley and six of the Engineer corps, arrived at six o'clock this morning in New

A VICTIM OF THE BODYK RIOT. Later reports about the Bodyk affray state that a farmer named Maloney has died from the effects of a blow from the butt end of a Pallas. This place is a small country village, gun.

is so turbulent that it boast but it is so turbulent that it boasts of the best police barracks in Ireland outside of Dublin. The column was within two hours joined by nearly three hundred of the Royal Irish Con-stabulary. At nine o'clock marching orders were given, a detachment of police going first, then the guards, and then more police. In this order they proceeded toward Col. Hare's estate. Just outside of New Pallas fifty guards and a tent waggon were detached, and a camp formed in the green fields, while the main body passed on. After an hour's brisk march under a broiling sun Gurtavalla bridge was reached, when an order to halt was given. The engineers, THE NEW PALLAS EVICTIONS. The force which went to New Pallas was nearly 1,000 strong. It charged and dis-persed the crowd after crossing the bridge. The evictions will be continued to-morrow. LONDON, June 5.

In a disturbance at Ballytraphy to-day, a man was shot dead and others were wounded by a bailiff, who with his three sons have een arrested.

The mass meeting in Hyde park to protest against the Government's policy in regard to Ireland was held to-day. Although there was a steady drizzle of rain during the day a Gurtavalla bridge was reached, when an order to halt was given. The engineers, with Col. Hall commanding the troops, and Chaplain Hatchell, the resident magistrate, went ahead to examine the bridge, it having been reported that it had been destroyed. It was found to be so, and the engineers thought it could not be repaired without serious delay. The soldiers and police, there-fore, managed to cross in single file along the parapets of the bridge, which were left stand-ing, while the horses went about half a mile Value a steamber of Irish, men and women, were present, but the attendance of the general pub-lic was limited. A procession of branches of the Home Rule organization, with bands and banners, marched from Trafalgar square to the park, where there was speaking from three platforms. The following resolutions were carried unanimously at each platform :--"That the Government is criminally responsible for the deplorable condition of Ireland." " That this meeting summons the Govern-parapets of the bridge, which were left stand-ing, while the horses went about half a mile down the river, and found an easy ford. This détour caused an hour's delay to the resident magistrate and the newspaper correspondents, who were on "jaunting cars, and could not cross. About a thousand men, women, and boys who met the expedition at this point hooted the troops and police, but offer-"That this meeting submid evictions and to liberate the persons arrested on suspicion." "That Mr. Forster resign his office, for "That Mr. Forster resign his which he has proved utter incapacity." Mr. Parnell appeared, and was enthusiasti-cally received. He made a speech in which ing a quiet crowd of people with the butts of their rifles, and afterwards charging them with fixed bayonets. BLUSTER BY BOYTON.

The following has been telegraphed to President Garfield by Mr. Boyton from Kil-mainham prison :--- 'I hope the American Government will never submit me, or the honour of the Republical fought to maintain. to the degradation of an appeal to the benevo lence of a cowardly British Government, in capable of extending to my countrymen the commonest justice."

THE LOUGHREA MURDER.

At Loughrea, Galway county, on Saturday, Donlan, Fahey, and Keogh, charged with the murder of Connors and discharged for lack of vidence, were re-arrested under the Coercio Act for the same crime.

LONDON, June 6. A Dublin despatch of this morning says :-Thus far the day has passed here without disturbance, but the state of feeling is ex-Cisturbance, but the state of feeling is ex-tremely critical, and grave trouble is appre-hended. The Government continues its arrests and evictions. A process server was burned in effigy at Kenmore last night. Animals belonging to a magistrate at Kilra-garna, who had incurred popular displeasure by issuing writs of ejectment, have been muti-lated.

The Right Rev. Thomas Nulty, Bishop ø The Right Rev. Thomas Nalty, Bishop of Meath, replying to an address from the Pains-town Land League, said the Land bill had splendid principles. He deprecated the agi-tation against the payment of all rent. He said he had received a letter from an Ameri-can priest who stated he had organized branches of the League in Ohio, Indiana, and Kentnety among five million people.

Kentucky among five million people. The Dublin correspondent says it is stated in most of the disturbed districts that Ribbon odges are in active operation, and to these odges is to be traced the actual carrying out of the system of agrarian terrorism. LONDON, June 7.

It is further reported that Father Murphy, It is further reported that rainer and rain, priest of Schull and Skibbereen, has been ar-rested under the Coercion Act, and there is much consequent excitement. Some outrages have been committed. Five writs of ejectment were served yester-day upon tenants of the father of Mr. Mel-don, Home Rule member of Parliament. In county Cork roads have been torn up with pickaxes and made impassable, and the telegraph wires cut in many directions. The Irish Executive last night issued an im-portant circular, instructing all county in-spectors and constabulary to forward to their spectors and constabulary to forward to their headquarters sworn reports as to the occasions when they anticipated obstruc-tions to sheriffs' sales or evictions, in order that the Government may send the necessary military forces, and pro-claim the district, warning all persons to re-frain from assembling to obstruct legal pro-cesses, and declaring that all persons so as-sembling will be dispersed by force. This circular entirely dianels the rumour that the circular entirely dispels the rumour that the Government intended to introduce measures for the temporary suspension of evictions. The rumour that Father Murphy of Schull had been arrested proves unfounded, but it threw the people into a violent state of ferment. Thousands of men and women crowded into the village of Schull, wrecked the police station and post-office, tore wrecked the police station and post-omoe, tore down the telegraph wires and cut up por-tions of the road. The excitement was taken up by the people of Skibbereen, who supplied cars to the police. Their indignation became unbounded when they discovered that a spe-oial train, with three hundred military, had been sent from Cork and then tore down the telescont wings to Bellydebeb telegraph wires to Bellydehob. A despatch from Cork says Ballydehob an Schull are inaccessible by the ordinary roads, which are broken up and the bridges pulled down. Five hundred foot soldiers, twenty dragoons, and seventy service corps. men,

A MASSACRE IN ALGERIA.

A despatch from Oran, Algeria, says Col. Bringard, inspector of telegraphs, and his escort, have been massacred between Freuda and Geryville. Twenty-six men were killed.

n general are excessively backward.

PERE HYACINTHE TO VISIT AMERICA.

been said that Mr. Parnell did not wish the co-operation of the priesthood, but the Archbishop declared authoritatively that two years ago Mr. Parnell waited on him in Dublin and literally went down on his knees to him to ask him to use all his influence to have the priests join the movement. His Grace concluded with the following remark-able declaration :---"I have to say that this movement is not a revolutionary movement in the strict sense of the word. It is a con-A MYSTERIOUS ARREST 2N TURKEY. A Constantinople despaten says :--Palmer, better known in England and America as 'Warhawk," has been arrested on suspicion movement is not a revolutionary movement in the strict sense of the word. It is a con-stitutional movement. It is a lawful movement. It is a movement which we in-tend to push forward by moral force alone. (Cheers.) We do not intend to violate any of being the chief conspirator in a It is asserted that papers were in Palmer's possession proving that he had undertaken in case of war with Greece to blow up the Turkish fleet. (Cheers.) We do not intend to violate any law. We intend to exhaust all constitutional remedies. We are perfectly certain that the elasticity of the constitution will allow us the means of working energetically to the last, and finally achieving the result we aim at. We wish to produce the effect non England not by physical force or by any manifestations of This is probably an invention, for some days ago Palmer told several persons that he was about to be arrested, and it may be safely assumed that if he had any papers of that kind he would have destroyed them. The fair is mysterious.

wish to produce the effect upon England not by physical force or by any manifestations of physical force, but by moral means. We want to make our grievance known before the entire world, to tell France, and Spain, and Italy, the United States, and the great colonies that acknowledge the sway of Great Britain, that as in this country we have been kept down by bayonets to the present time, and as by bayonets we are kept down at pre-sent, please God we are now fully determined, LONDON, June 6. "Warhawk" Palmer, who has been arrested at Constantinople on suspicion of being chief conspirator in a plot, writes on May 27th that he warned the Grand Vizier in 1868 Zrin that he warned the Grand vizier in 1868 that a plot existed to assassinate the Sultan, and that some persons privy to the plot are now under arrest. "Warhawk" was then requested, for his own safety, to quit Con-stantinople, which he did, but returned in 1877. "Warhawk" states that for some days that areas not of inducement has been offered BAYONETS OR NO BAYONETS past every sort of inducement has been offered and threats made to procure his silence on the affair of 1868. There are in London, he says, -(great cheering)-to proclaim, at all events, our wants, and to proclaim that we will not be satisfied until we get our rights, and that we will enlist on our behalf, not the swords, abundant papers which will throw every light on the subject. It is stated that one of nor the guns, nor the cannon of France, or of Spain, or of Italy, or of the United States, but the intelligent opinion of all the intelligent nations of the world. Therefore this is not a revolu-Palmer's reasons for returning to Turkey was to have the affair of 1868 officially re-examined A few hours after the publication of a letter A few nonrs after the publication of a letter on the subject written by Palmer to a local paper he was arreated. Palmer several years ago wrote letters to the Times, signed "War-hawk," exposing various plots and conspiracies of a secret organization in Turkey.

The first named is the chief trustee of Jordan's meeting-house. He writes to the Times this morning the following letter :---"The intimation in your correspondence from the United States relative to the re-moval of the bones of William Penn from their resting-place at Jordan's in Buckingham-shire to America takes me by surprise. As a trustee of the burial-ground I may say that the trustees have received no application on the subject, and if made it would not be en-tertained." koff, who had a very protracted interview to day at which guarantees of peace were settled between the two nations. ertained.

cheers.) What we want is a chance for our lives in our own country, and we will forget the past. We will forget the numerous tyrannice of England. We will forget all the tears we have been obliged to shed. We will forget the massacres that have been committed, LONDON, June 7. A letter from Russia, received at Berlin A letter from Russia, received at Berlin, states that thirty army officers, including a colonel of the Imperial Guards, have been ar-rested during the past month. Among the naval officers arrested is a relative of Procu-rator-General Mouravieff, who conducted the prosecution of Roussakoff and the others ex-ecuted for the murder of the late Czar.

of our race, and the downfall, as far as it was possible for them to accomplish it, of our dear country, and we will begin a new score with the dominant country. We will let them see that we are not only able to flourish abroad, The Czar is reported as completely broken down from dread of the Nihilists, and is apsee that we are not only and to nourism abroad, but that in our own land we cannot be suppressed. (Cheera) I hear of disa-greement among the laders of the people, but those things are exaggerated. Our phalanx is unbroken, our spirit is unsubdued, and the result is therefore clear as day--wu must succeed " prehensive of a civil war and the overthrow of his dynasty. Russia has proposed to the powers that attempts on the lives of sovreigns be visited with extradition. A ereigns be visited with extradition. A St. Petersburg despatch says:-In con-sequence of the reign of terror throughout Russia the coronation of Alexander III. has been deferred. The mistrust extends to all If Mr. Gladstone accepts a peerage, it is to be hoped his withdrawal to the calm atmos-phere of the Lords will not affect him as the late Lord Beaconsfield's retirement from active party warfare affected him. It was asserted by the Lancet, just after Lord Bea-consfield died, that if his Lordship had remained in the Commons, and if his brain had been kept as busy as it hid been for so many years, he might have thrown off the attacks which disease made upon him and lived ton classes. The Imperial Guard is suspected of disloyalty.

A DYNAMITE MINE DISCOVERED.

A dynamite mine has been discovered under A dynamic mine has been discovered under the metals close to the Gatschina railway station, connected with the battery in the rail-way telegraph office. All the telegraph officials have been arrested.

MONTRBAL, June 7 .- There was a slight which disease made upon him and lived ten years longer. The sudden cessation of mental exertion sometimes leads to a general breaking frost in this neighbourhood last night, but it was not severe enough to do much damage to THE LONDON DISASTER.

The Hull of the Wrecked Victoria Examined LONDON, Ont., June 8."

LONDON, Oht., June 5. The hull of the wreeked Victoria was brought up to the foot of Dundas street to-day, in order to admit of an examination by the jurymen. It is said by competent wit-nesses that she exhibited alarming evidences of leakages, the pump, being kept in constant employment on the way to the city. The jurymen have been called, together two days earlier than the time adjourned to, and some fresh light may be thrown on the accident. at his own request he was buried. This opinion found unauimous expression in a This opinion found unanimous expression in a resolution which was passed at a meeting, to the effect that nothing would ever induce the trustees of the little graveyard to allow any of the graves to be molested. They had heard that a sum of money had been collected to purchase a grave for Penn's bones, but they smiled at the simplicity of anyone who could resh light may be thrown on the accident suppose that money could have any effect upon them. For anything which they intend-ed to do, or which they could be induced to roceedings Opened in the Suit Against the Creditors of the Late Archbishop Purcell-$4.000.000 Wanted.

THE DEAD ARCHBISHOP.

$4,000,000 Wanted. CINCINNATI, June 8.—The suit against the Catholic Church regarding the property of the Cincinnati diocese, brought by the as-signee of Archbishop Purcell, was called yes-terday. The suit is against all property held in trust by the Archbishop, and includes churches, school houses, hospitals, cemeteries, and properties given by benevolent persons for the use of the church. The creditors represented by the assignee number 500, and forever. Minutes to this effect were entered upon the record of the day's entered upon the record of the day's proceedings, and a committee was appointed to see that nothing was done contrary to the resolution should any direct application be made for the removal of Penn's body. Up to the present this has not been the case. It should be said that these views are in accord-ance with the wish of Colonel Stuart, whose wife is a descendant of the founder of Penn-sylvania, and who still enjoys the pension of £4,000 which was granted to the family in lieu of the money lent by William Penn to Charles II. Among those elected upon this represented by the assignee number 500, and their claims aggregate $4,000,000. The case will be taken to the District Court, where it will be heard on its merits. . A verdict having here of the money lent by william ren to Charles H. Among those elected upon this committee for the safeguard of the grave I may mention the names of Mr. R. Littleboy, of Newport, Pagnell, Mr. Tuke, Hitchings, and Mr. Browntown, counsellor of Lisbon. The first named is the chief trustee of Jordan's mostion house. He writes to the Times this been secured upon it, it will then be taken to the Supreme Court, and a final decision se cured. It is expected the trial will con-sume six weeks. The chief point at issue is whether the property held in trust by the bishop of a church is liable for his debts.

AT ALBANY.

More Gossip-Latest Features of the Struggle More Gossip-Latest Features of the Struggle. NEW YORK, June 8.—The Times' Albany special says that overtures to Conkling men for a cancus meet with very few favorable responses. It is said that some of the Conk-ling men intimate they will soon feel dis-charged from all obligations to vote for Conk-ling. The meeting of administration men last night was one of the largest, most enthu-siastic and harmonious yet held. It was the general opinion that there should be a closer vote for Depew. The World's special says that the changes for Depew yesterday demonstrate that the cry of ''Railroad Corporations'' has lost its terror with the Granger vote, for these who terror with the Granger vote, for those who had been riding the Granger or anti-monopoly hobby voted for him.

The Bank of Montreal.

MONTREAL, June 8.—There has been a still further decline in Bank of Montreal stock today, it having fallen 2 per cent. since the opening of the board, being quoted at 94. There has been a fall of about 10 per cent. during the past eight or ten and "beers" say that investors not yet purchase. The dropping of Hon. Thos. Ryan from the board of direc has caused that gentleman considerable an noyance. It is stated it was due to irritation between him and the syndicate mem the board, and that the retiring pro-George Stephen, plumped against him

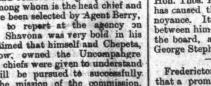

Fredericton is greatly excited over the fac that a prominent professional gentleme been discovered having too intimate rel with the wife of a young man whose father i well connected. The lady formerly belonger to St. John.

ournand the decline to make a selection, the commission would proceed without them to locate the would proceed without them to locate the reservation, and remove the agency thereon. Five Utes, among whom is the head chief and Shavona, have been selected by Agent Berry, and ordered to report at the agency on Wednesday. Shavona was very bold in his talk. He claimed that himself and Chepeta, Ouray's widow, owned the Uncompabgre valley. The chiefs were given to understand that scheme will be nursued to successfully. that steps will be pursued to successfully, accomplish the mission of the commission. The presence of the military kept the Utes under submission, and matters are now quiet. Very few Indians are hovering about the conference of Government commissioners with the Utes on Saturday, Shavona a lead-ing sub-chief, exclaimed loudly that there never was a treaty made, neither the one under consideration nor any other, and boldly demanded to know who signed the treaty. He was informed that every Indian present had signed. Shavona made no answer. The chiefs were informed that they could

DEFIANT UTES.

The Treaty with the Ute Commission Re-pudlated-Trouble Only Prevented by the Presence of the Military. Los PINOS AGENCY, Col.; June 7 .- At a select five Utes to accompany the commision-ers to the new reservation, and should they

THE CZAR BROKEN DOWN.

the world. Therefore this is not a revolu-tionary movement. Nor is it an irreligious movement, because it is conducted by the most religious people in the world, and backed up by the best, the most holy, the most self-sacrificing, the most faithful, and most uncompromising prisethood in the world. (Great cheering.) It is not A CRIMEAN HERO MURDERED. A retired colonel of the Russian army sho and killed in the streets of Sebastopol Capt. world. (Great cheering.) It is not an unjust movement, calculated or de-signed to do injury to anybody. We repudiate that charge. We say that we do not intend to do injury to any mortal man. We recognize the rights of the owner of the A MEETING OF CHANCELLORS. The rumours that have been circulating o coldness between Russia and Germany have been completely dispelled by a meeting be tween Prince Bismarck and Prince Gortscha soil and we recognize our own rights at the same time, and while we "give to Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's," we will assert for ourselves the things that are ours. (Loud cheers.) What we want is a chance for our