NOT IN THE HALLS OF PARLIAMENT

Real Makers of Canada Are in the Schools, says Pres. Elliot.

The real makers of Canada are in the schools of the country and not in the halls of Parliament, said J. G. Elliot, Kingston, retiring president of the Ontario Educational Association, at the second general session of its annual convention. It was in the schools, he said, that the training was provided which developed true citizenship. If true Canadian ideals were to be realized, then the schools must become the moulding place for alert, active and aggressive Canadians.

President Elliot claimed that the secondary school to-day should be modified to meet the needs for manual workers. Thirty-three to forty per cent of students to-day failed to complete the high school course, he said. He asserted that the schools should provide first full time classes for those not otherwise employed, and secondly, part time classes for those employed industrially.

Sir Robert Baden-Powell, appearing in Boy Scout uniform, told something of the growth of the scout movement. It had been rather a natural evolution than a development, he said, and to-day it had its place inside as well as outside of the school walls.

Lightning Sets The Forest Ablaze

Winnipeg, Man.—Interesting

observations regarding the starting of forest fires by lightning were made during the past season by a Manitoba fire ranger in the service of the Dominion Forestry Branch. In an aeroplane flight made during a thunderstorm, he reports, at the height of 2,000 feet he could watch the lightning leave the clouds and strike the earth, and soon afterwards see the smoke rising from the fire thus caused. During the one flight five fires were observed to start in this way.

EXECUTION OF VICAR GENERAL

MOSCOW, April 4.—Vicar General Butchkavitch was found guilty and executed as a violator of article 62 of the criminal code, which provides the death penalty or imprisonment for "participation" in any organization which is acting for the purpose of exciting the population to mass agitation non-payment of taxes, unfulfillment of its duties or by any other means clearly detrimental to the dictatorship of the working class and the proletarian revolution, although an armed rising or an armed invasion is not the chief aim of that organization.

Only two papers, the official Izvestia and Pravda, carried the the laconic announcement of the execution, that printed in the Pravda, reading:
"On March 31 was brought in to effect the death sentence on the the Priest, Butchkavitch, condemned in the case of the Catholic counter-revolutionists."

The paragraph in Izvestia reads "The sentence of the Supreme Court of the republic with regard to Butchkavitch, who was condemned to be shot, and whose reprieve, which had been requested was disregarded by the Central Executive Committee, has been carried out."

Northcliffe's Widow Marries Husband's Choice

London, April 4.—Lady Northcliffe, widow of Viscount Northcliffe, was married today to Sir Robert Arundell Hudson. The wedding took place at Marlbury, in Worcestershire.

Lord Northcliffe, the noted publisher, died on August 14, 1922. He left an estate shown when his will was probated on February 16, last, to be valued at £3,250,000, on which a duty of £1,300,000 was payable to the government.

Lord Northcliffe had made two wills, it developed under the first of which it was provided that should Lady Northcliffe re-marry, the greater part of her share in the estate would pass to other beneficiaries. A later will, placed no limitation upon her share, but it was the earlier will which finally was probated, the court ruling against the later document after announcing that an agreement had been reached which made for at Marlbury, in Worcestershire. Sir Robert Hudson is prominent as a Liberal party leader and is actively interested in the conduct of various charitable and civic organizations, notably the British Red Cross Society, of whose joint finance commission he is chairman. It was rumored early this year that he and Lady Northcliffe were to marry, and that at that time it was recalled that after the publisher's death reports had it that one of his dying wishes was that should Lady Northcliffe determine to re-marry her choice should fall upon Sir Robert Hudson.

Expect Turkish Peace Settlement

The impression in Constantinople is that a peace settlement will be reached in view of Mustapha Kemal's coup in carrying a motion for new elections; it is expected that these elections will eliminate from the assembly the recalcitrant element and insure a majority for peace. It is understood that in accepting the invitation for another conference, the Turkish reply to the Allies makes the usual reservations on certain points.
