A conservative estimate of the A conservative estimate of the amount of money spent in Quebec by tourists reaches $2,358,750. From the beginning of May until the first of September, 15,000 motor tourists had called for information at the offices of the Quebec Auto Club. Taking an average of four people to each car, this meant that at least 60,000 people had come to the city by automobiles. Of this number there were approximately 3,000 camping parties, or 12,000 people.

At the Chateau Frontenac, Quebec, recently, Colonel J. S. Dennis, Chief Commissioner of Colonization of the Canadian Pacific Railway, outlined in a detailed speech existing conditions in Canada and prospects for the future. He emphatically stated that there was no cause for discouragement but on the conally stated that there was no cause for discouragement, but, on the con-trary, every prospect of a renewal of rapid development, including an increase in our population and the development of our latent natural resources is such a way as to in-sure, in the comparatively near future that we should be out of
